Directors' Meeting.

The directors of the Mechanics Institute are requested to meet in the Library Room of the Masonic Hall, to-morrow Friday evening at 9 o'clock.

Last Saturday the Brants, of Paris, defeated the Shamrocks, of Montreal, in an exhibition game of lacrosse. The old-timers have now been beaten by three Ontario teams.

It is almost safe to say that the Toronto Base-Ball Club will come out ahead in the International Association. The record now stands, Torontos 65 games won, 26 lost; Syracuse, 63 games won, 28 lost.

The White Rose Lacrosse team went to Toronto last Saturday and crossed sticks with the Maitlands. The visitors were beaten by four straight games. The match took place on Moss Park.

A Correction.

We have been asked to state that the machine that threshed the 1350 bushels of grain spoken of in The Liberal two week's ago was not built by the Morris firm but by the new firm of Ingleton & Co who are doing their best to bailt up a reputation for good work and square dealing.

R. C. Pic-nic.

An unusually attractive pic-nic will be held at Bond's Lake in aid of the R. C. Church, Richmond Hill, on Thursday next, September 6th. The committee have arranged an excellent programme con-isting of all kinds of games and races, and have also secured the services of Prof.Roce's Quadrille Band which will enliven the proceedings of the day by their melodious music. Free busses will run from Richmond Hill at 10 a. m. and 1 p. m. Busses will also meet the 12 and 6 o'clock trains at King Station. Dinner served from 12 to 2; tea from 5 to 7. The public are cordially invited and no pains will be spared to make next Thursday a day of enjoyment.

Muldoon's Pic. Nic.

Young and old, rich and poor, without distinction of race, creed or color, are invited to a Basket Pic-Nic to take place on Wednesday next, Sept. 5th, on Mr. Muldoon's farm (down Lover Lane), Thornhill. The Richmond Hill Band has been secured, a quadrille band has also been engaged, and a platform is being built to accommodate all who may feel inclined to trip the light fantastic. Prizes will be given for jumping, foot-racing, &c , and a foot ball and base ball match will take place during the afternoon. We predict a big time for those who attend Muldoon's Pic-Nic.

Harvest Festival.

Last Thursday afternoon an interesting Harvest Home Festival was held in connection with Trinity Church, Thornhill. The church was nicely decorated with beautiful flowers and all kinds of choice fruits. The following clergymen were present and assisted in the ceremonies, Revs. C. Short, J. H. McCollum, John Langtry, and Dr. Davies. Later in the afternoon a pic-nic was held at the Mineral Springs residence. In the evening chinese lanterns hung from the trees and a programme consisting of tableaux and various games was much enjoyed by those present.

Card of Thanks. To the Tem. and Geu. Life Insurance Co.,

Toronto: GENTLEMEN, -I am sincerely thankful to you for the prompt and efficient settlement of my claim on your Co. for $1000 through | ing the policy held by my late busband, Henry Payne. My thanks are also due to Mr. J. T. Suigeon, your agent here, shose kindness in making out and forwarding the necessary papers, and thoughtful help to me in my bereavement, has saved me a great deal of trouble, and was timely and exceedingly welcome. I have received the $1000 without deduction of any kind, just one day after forwarding the proof papers to the head office. I'rusting that your Co. may long be a blessing to the widow and orphan,

> I remain, yours truly, LORBNDA J. PAYNE, Vaughan.

Marriage Ceremony.

We clip the following marriage notice from the Calgary Daily Herald believing it will be read with interest by many of our villagers. As will be ucticed the bride is sister of Mr. W. R. Proctor, and elaest daughter of Mr. Simon Proctor, formerly of this place:-"A very pleasant event took place at the residence of Mr. Simon Proctor last evening, when the marriage of our genial townsman Mr. Albert Traunwieser to Miss Susan Proctor took place. On account of Mr. Proctor and the brother of the bride being unavoidably absent at Fort Macleod, invitations were Betts, pastor of the Methodist Church, in the choir of which Miss Proctor has long been a prominent singer, tied the nuptial knot. Miss Mary Proctor, sister of the bride, performed the functions of bridesmaid, and Mr. Thos. R. Glanville was best man. Atter the legal business of the evening, the guests sat down to a recherche supper provided by Mrs. Proctor. There were a good number of useful and costly presents, among which were noticeable a massive silver cake basket presented by Mr. Harry Browa. The happy couple did not go to New York or Paris, but to their own new and comfortably furnished home in Calgary."

What We Say About These Goods.

One Man's extremity is another Man's Opportunity. Our grip on the market has brought this Bargain to our counters. We want the public to know just what we offer. When we say the goods are | bargains they are positive. When we say no such picuic was ever before offered we have the goods to back up the statement. We nail the flag of cheap and good clothing, of brilliant, sparkling bargains to the mast and defy any clothier in the world to lower our colors. Our plan to help you here-We want everyone to come and see what we are doing. Drive in if you can. Come by water, by stage or on foot, for there's money for you in the expedition. That and buys $10 worth of goods or upwards.

BOUNCING BARGAINS FOR BOYS-An honest statement always carries weight; can you believe one when you hear it ? In black and white we tell you what we are doing in Boys' Clothing. A Dandy Suit for the Boy, and mind you only 58 cents. People often run away with the idea that a cheap line is only advertised for a bait, and that when they come around say the boy is too big for the clothes and try to sell something else. This is not our style (we leave that for others to do) Don't be afraid to ask for these suits. Our salesmen wont say the proprietor is out and that they can't find them. We have stacks of boys' suits at 58c.
