TEN YEARS ADDED.

When His Honor, Judge Galt, last week inflicted the extremely light penalty of five years' imprisonment on the villain Buckley for causing the death of Bertha Usher, a feeling very much akin to that of indignation arose in the breasts of the great majority of fair-minded people. Law-abiding citizens wondered why such a short sentence should be given for a crime so heinous. Here was a man who had taken the life of a weak female in a most brutal manner. Had he struck the unfortunate woman one fatal blow in a passion of anger the deed would not have appeared so wicked. But the evidence went to show that he kicked her several times even after she pleaded for mercy. Again had his previous record been that of a respectable man there might have been an excuse for leniency. But this was not the case, as his antecedents were of the blackest character, and nothing good could be advanced in his favor.

It is now evident that the Judge had not been made acquainted with his previous history, as the penalty has been since raised to fifteen years instead of five. By so doing His Honor has raised himself in the estimation of every person outside of the few who would palliate crime of every type. Had the first sentence been allowed to remain the danger to human life would have been greatly increased. But fifteen years is a long term to spend within the walls of a penitentiary, and during that time Buckley will have ample opportunity of reflecting on the past, and of looking forward into the future if he purposes becoming a better man and leading a truer life.

DR. MACKENZIE'S BOOK.

It is unfortunate that so much trouble has emanated from the medical treatment of the late Emperor Frederick of Germany. If the strife can be kept within the limits of the English and German physicians no harm will result. But it really looks as if the controversy so bitterly carried on might lead to serious difficulties between the two nations.

Dr. Mackenzie has written a book showing that the disease of which the Emperor died was not originally cancer, but that cancer was afterwards caused by the bungling operations of the German doctors. In defence the home physicians maintain that had certain operations been performed in the early stages of the disease the Emperor would have been a living man to-day.

We are not prepared to give an opinion on either side of the question, but from the fact that Bismarck has caused the seizure of Mr. MacKenzie's book on German territory, we would be inclined to think that the reasons advanced in the book must be conclusive. If the suppression of such a book were ordered in this country it would be looked upon as an act of the greatest tyranny. No person will deny that the Emperor died of cancer, therefore the majority will naturally think that he had cancer from the first. The book, however, is intended to disprove this, and if Germans were allowed to read both sides of the story they would feel better satisfied with their own conclusions. But the iron hand of Bismarck is upon his people, and what he commands is instantly made law.

Our Mail Order Department has a staff of ladies whose sole business is to purchase for our patrons who live at a distance and who by this means can have the advantages of this store's work in every clime just as good as they could by personal purchasing. Samples, prices and catalogues will be forwarded to any address when asked for.

Honesty is the policy for a merchant who means to be great. So is liberality. 'You can deceive some of the people all the time, or all of the people some of the time, but you can't deceive all the people all the time.' In conspicuous instances other houses occasionally meet our prices 'as leaders,' but it is a forced exaction, not a spontaneous tribute. Besides copying our mode of business and sailing under false colors (even the name 'Eaton.') Beware of imitators.

Makers nowadays can give such a deceptive finish to inferior goods that in the absence of comparison it's easy to pass them. Cashmeres are often among the wronged. But if your dress goods man can be depended upon the truth will come out. Here soft, glossy, all-wool cashmere, black 45c. to $1.00 per yard, every thread the purest, and finish, truth need have no hesitation in praising to the fullest. Every modest beauty that could be given to the warm, fashionable winter black dress wants. Prices bring them within easy grasp—Foule cloth 20c. to 35c. per yard, Black Soliel Cloth 35c. to 45c. per yard, Black Jersey Cloth 15c. to 25c., are three price-hints to guide need.

We have set hard at the work of getting specialties in foot-wear for Men and Boys. Boots and Shoes that the wearer needn't be careful about picking his steps in, and yet that will look neat and elegant anywhere and moderately priced. We seldom fail with our great resources backing effort. Proof lies at the shoe counters. Pick on our $1.85 Men's hand-made boot. Its make has received the attention we wanted—no seam at the sides to hurt the tender feet, or crack and let in the water, comfortably lined with easy duck, nailed or sewn, and with double sole. The wear-point can't be beaten by many a $2.50 boot. Just as true of the wear goodness of our boys' and youths' leather lined boots at $1.00—there everything wanted in easy-strength.

Warm Overcoats for boys, made to stand the tumbling and tossing of every boyish freak. Stylish no matter how worn. Prices $2.50 to $5.00. Boys' Tweed Suits from $2.25 to $5.00 Every warmth in Tweeds that the cold blasts bring thoughts of.

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEITS.—Counterfeits are always dangerous, more so that they always closely imitate the ORIGINAL IN APPEARANCE AND NAME. The remarkable success achieved by Nasal Balm as a positive cure for Catarrh and Cold in the Head has induced unprincipled parties to imitate it. The public are cautioned not to be deceived by nostrums imitating Nasal Balm in name and appearance, bearing such names as Nasal Cream, Nasal Balsam, etc. Ask for Nasal Balm and do not take imitation dealers may urge upon you.
