RICHMOND HILL, Thursday, Nov. 22, '88

LOCALS.

Robert Elsmere and other late novels for sale at THE LIBERAL store.

7 Boxes of Matches for 25 cents at the Concrete.

Subscriptions taken for all the Toronto papers at THE LIBERAL store.

The Dog Question was fully discussed at the Council meeting on Monday night.

All Wool Hose from 8c. at Atkinsons.

The Band practised at the Dominion House on Saturday night.

18 lbs of good Sugar for $1.00, at the Concrete.

The W. C. T. U. of this village will meet at the residence of Mrs. G. Wiley next Monday evening, November 26th, at 8 o'clock.

Curtain Poles with Trimmings complete, at the Concrete.

New stock of LEZARUS' Spectacles at THE LIBERAL store. Those in need of a pair should call and make a good choice.

New Raisins 8c. lb., New Currants 8c. lb., Vostizza Currants 10c. lb., at the Concrete.

Mr. A. Moodie comes out this week with his Christmas ad., and asks his patrons to call and inspect his stock.

Going West.
 Mr. E. H. Clubine, four lots above Elgin Mills, has rented his farm to Mr. J. Grainger, of Scarborough. We understand Mr. Clubine purposes removing to Manitoba in the spring.

To-Morrow.
 The Band of Hope will meet in the Temperance Hall, on Friday, at 4 p. m. A full attendance is desired as practise will be commenced for Christmas Concert.

Thanks.
 THE LIBERAL staff have to thank Mr. N. Playter for a jug of excellent cider fresh from the mill. Mr. Playter does not possess the faculty of passing through the village without treating his friends whenever an opportunity presents itself.

Cleaning Up.
 Road-boss Michael and his assistants have been working in the village during the past week, and Yonge St. now has a much neater and cleaner appearance. We imagine the soil will in course of time become sterile on this road, as Mr. Michael will not allow even so much as a leaf to lie on the ground and act as a fertilizer.

A magnificent assortment of Ladies' Wool Goods in Clouds, Scarfs, Shawls, in honey comb and open work, Children's Hoods, Mitts, Cuffs, Bootees splendid value, at the Concrete.

Annual Meeting.
 The annual meeting of the Vaughan Reform Association will be held in the Town Hall, Vellore, on Monday, Dec. 3rd, 1888, at one o'clock p. m. In addition to the election of officers for the ensuing year, other important matters will be considered. Every Reformer in the township is respectfully invited to be present and take part in the proceedings.

Band of Hope Concert.
 The annual concert of the Richmond Hill Band of Hope will be given on the evening of Christmas Day. As the renowned Mother Goose, whose presence contributed so largely to the success of the last concert, is unable to assist on this occasion, on account of numerous calls for her services elsewhere, the Band has been successful in securing the assistance of one of the old lady's most talented children, who will no doubt prove a very acceptable substitute.

worth Knowing.

At the Council meeting on Monday evening a point came up which people, especially, should remember. Some two years ago Mr. J. Palmer had sheep killed by dogs, to the value of $27. Nothing was ever recovered for them as the owner was a few days late in presenting his bill to the Council. The Statute requires the claim to be presented within three months after the killing of the sheep. Mr. Palmer lost the amount by not being able to take an affidavit to that effect.

This season has been a most unusually successful one in the Millinery Department of the Concrete House, and the Milliners find considerable trouble in keeping the supply equal to the demand, and satisfied people who usually purchase their hats in Toney Toronto Houses say that half the money buys the same hat as stylishly trimmed at Atkinsons.

Worthy of Example.

At Division Court held here last Saturday, His Honor, Judge Morgan, had a man put out of the hall for having the presumption to smoke in the audience. If the presiding officer of the Fire Brigade possessed similar scruples of propriety they could add dignity to their meetings, as it is no uncommon thing to see a dozen or more of the members smoking at the same time. Where the Judge has the bulge on the officers of the Brigade, he does not smoke himself during business hours. Example is more impressive than precept.

Bible Society Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Richmond Hill Branch Bible Society was held in the basement of the Presbyterian Church last evening. The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed, and officers appointed for the ensuing year. Mr. J. B. Dunnean, agent for the Society, was present and gave an excellent address, with a number of amusing anecdotes thrown in. The resident ministers, Messrs. Percival, Simpson and Rutledge, also gave good addresses. The meeting was poorly attended, partly, no doubt, from the fact that it was not properly advertised.

Christmas Number

Present prospects would indicate a very large demand for the "Christmas Number of The Globe," to be issued about 5th December next. The matter contained in this issue will be of unusual interest, being entirely of Canadian origin, and will provide holiday literature newsy and wholesome. For excellence and artistic splendor it is expected it will supercede anything of its kind heretofore published in this country. Those who order it can rely upon this paper being everything represented. The price is 25 cents. Orders taken at this office.

Saturday Night.

The special Christmas Number of Toronto Saturday Night will be ready about the first of December. It will contain twenty-four pages of the size of our regular issue, 14 1/2 x 21 inches. The cover is the handsomest piece of illuminated engraving ever made in Canada. The contents will be of the most popular kind, largely original and composed mostly of stories, poems and engravings. The presentation plates, 18x24 in., are very handsome, being views of summer and winter pastimes—one a boating, the other a sliding-down-hill scene. Price 25 cents. Orders received at The Liberal Office.

A Great Bargain.

We have made arrangements with the great agricultural weekly, Farm and Fireside, by which we are able to supply our subscribers with that paper to the end of 1889, and the Weekly Mail to the end of 1889, and our own paper for one year for Two dollars. Farm and Fireside is a large 7 column, 4 page weekly, two pages being devoted to agricultural matters and two pages to stories by the best authors. It is well illustrated throughout and has a large circulation at 75 cents a year. The low price at which we give it and the Weekly Mail is a special arrangement.

Although the Concrete man has not been advertising his Tweeds and Worsteds lately they have been going off very fast and any person desiring a suit or Overcoat before Christmas would do well to leave their order as soon as possible. The stock is still well assorted and you may have your choice of about 500 different designs in Tweeds, Worsteds, Black and Fancy Meltons, Beavers, Naps, and in fact everything usually to be found in first-class tailoring establishments. A perfect fit guaranteed and only first-class trimmings used.

Bus Accident.

Quite a serious accident happened to the occupants of Thompson's bus on Wednesday morning of last week. Going down grade a short distance below Mr. R. Lemon's hotel, Davisville, the front axle broke, and immediately the bus capsized. The vehicle was nearly full at the time, and several of the passengers were more or less injured. Mr. J. Outcote, proprietor of the Eglinton hotel, who sat with four others on the front seat, was the most unfortunate. When he fell he struck the street railway track, when the heavy vehicle came on top of him. For some time it was feared he was killed, but he is slowly recovering, though his back and spine are severely injured. Mrs. Kelly, of Thornhill, also got her wrist broken, and her face greatly bruised. Bad as the accident was, it was a mercy some of the passengers did not lose their lives.

The third page of the Toronto DAILY MAIL is noted for "Want" advertisement. If you want a situation, a mechanic, a business, machinery, lodgings, if you have lost or found anything, or if you want to find out where anyone is, advertise in the Toronto DAILY MAIL and read the advertisements on the Third page of that paper. The charge is Two Cents a word each insertion. Address THE MAIL, Toronto, Canada.

Thanksgiving Services

A Union Thanksgiving Service of the Presbyterian and Methodist congregations of this place was held in the Methodist Church last Thursday. Rev. W. W. Percival, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, delivered an excellent sermon from a very appropriate text, the 4th verse of the 100th Psalm:—"Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise; be thankful unto Him and bless His name." Gratitude for the mercies and blessings of the past year was the subject of the discourse. To whom thanksgiving should be offered, and how, when and where it should be rendered were so instructively dwelt on that the speaker was listened to with the greatest attention. Other parts of the service were conducted by the Revs. Messrs. Simpson and Rutledge. The congregation composed a fair-sized audience, but as the Rev. gentleman remarked, they comprised but a tenth part of our village who should have presented themselves in the Lord's house with thanksgiving. Without intending to do so they had illustrated the story of the ten lepers, all of whom were benefited but one only returned to give praise to God.

Attacked by a Bear.

Last Sunday night as Mr. John Shaw, a resident of Parkdale, was returning to his home between 11 and 12 o'clock he had a serious encounter with a bear which was being fattened by a butcher, but which had broken loose and found its way on to the street. The savage animal knocked his victim down and clawed and bit him fearfully. One of his legs and his arm were terribly lacerated, and the flesh torn from the shoulder. A policeman who witnessed the attack fired three shots into Mr. Bruin, but this did not prevent the continuance of the attack. Another constable fired five shots into the monster, but he did not desist till a number of men from the Parkdale Fire Hall arrived and killed him with axes. Medical aid was at once procured for the injured man, and he now lies in a dangerous condition. Though the affair itself is too serious to turn to ridicule, the following account of it and its surroundings, which is supposed to have been given in an English paper, is too good not to be repeated:—

From The Times, London.

We have just received intelligence of another terrible bear catastrophe in one Colony of Canada. The sad affair occurred on Monday last in a small village called Toronto, a few miles from Winnipeg on the main line of the Union Pacific Railway, and not far from the main station at Hudson's Bay. It appears that a settler named John Shaw, who was President of the village Fire, Water and Gas Club, was on his way home from one of its meetings, and when almost at his own door, a huge grizzly bear sprang upon him from the adjoining forest. The snow at the time was about 8 feet deep and the thermometer 50 below zero, and the unfortunate man being on snowshoes and only armed with an ordinary shotgun was unable to cope with the savage beast, and consequently was fearfully mangled. His cries, however, brought to the spot some half-breeds who lived in wigwams near the edge of the bush and these with the assistance of the members of the Fire club, who had also been attracted by the cries, soon dispatched the brute. The bear was found to measure 18 feet from snout to tip of his tail. The town has since the commencement of the winter been overrun with bears and it is not safe to venture out at night without a good rifle and a lantern. The unfortunate settler was carried to the hospital at New York the nearest town, and we are glad to say is doing as well as can be expected.

"Cr zy Tea."

The Tea and Entertainment held in the Presbyterian Church on the evening of Thanksgiving-Day was a success in every particular. The ladies of the congregation had promised a good programme, and the affair was carried out to the satisfaction of all. The tea was gotten up in first-class style and was thoroughly enjoyed by the hundreds who crowded the tables for several hours. Had the edibles been served in accordance with the usual custom they would have been considered up to the standard, but from the fact that everything was carried out on altogether new principles, the novelty had the effect of bringing many to the scene who would not otherwise have attended. The decorations on the tables were generally speaking, fantastic and very elaborate. Instead of china-ware or porcelain the patrons ate their meats and delicacies from tin dishes confectionery was passed around in saucers, dustpans, miniature cradles and other utensils, and sugar &c. were served with wooden spoons. Nearly every thing used for dishes was new, and everything without exception looked scrupulously clean. The ornaments could not fail to embellish the surroundings, among which might be mentioned as specimens a high boot of giant dimensions used as a flower receptacle, and a carved pumpkin illuminated from the interior. But what most added grace, beauty and elegance to the festival was the motley attire of the lady waiters, many of whom were decked for the occasion regardless of pain. Judging from the apparel and taste displayed some wished to look pretty, whereas it seemed the ambition of others to be ludicrous. The tea being over about Eight o'clock, all in the best of humor, repaired to the body of the church,—in other words, to the sublime form of the ridiculous, where an intellectual treat followed. The choir furnished good music and Rev. Mr. Percival acted as chairman. Rev. G. M. Milligan, B. A., of St. Andrew's Church, Toronto, gave an excellent address, particularly appropriate for thanksgiving, and which is worthy of more space than is at our disposal in this issue. Mr. Milligan is a clear and forcible speaker, and it would be difficult for a minister to make a better impression before a Richmond Hill audience. Mr. J. Scott late of Glasgow, Scotland, gave at intervals two vocal selections in a rich, bass voice, which were highly appreciated. Rev. J. M. Simpson, who was invited to a seat on the platform, made a few choice and complimentary remarks, shortly after which the evening's entertainment was brought to a close. Taking the tea and entertainment either separately or as a whole the evening was most enjoyably spent, and the ladies are to be congratulated on their novel venture. The proceeds amounted to something over $82.

A PYRAMID of FACTS

Why Gough, the Wonderful Cheap Man, is on the top of the heap. Why the Giant Clothier knocks the sox off the combined Twelve Triflers with the Clothing Trade.

Note the following Facts:

First.—Buying for Spot Cash, thereby convincing the wholesale men that I command the market.

Second.—Selling Goods cheaper retail than the handicap dealers, who are under the thumb of wholesale men, can buy for.

Third.—Gough sells Fine Worsted Suits for $6.90, worth $13. He sells All-Wool Waterloo Tweed Suits for $3.80, worth $8. He sells Boys' Suits for 58 c., $1.10, $2 and up. Elegant Goods. He sells Boys' Coats for 19c. A customer remarked the other day, when shown the goods, "Well, really, Gough, you are, without doubt, the King of Low Prices, and the Only and Original Wonderful Cheap Man."

Fourth.—Men's Working Pants, 17c.

Fifth.—Do we offer baits? Some dealers say my prices quoted are only baits thrown out to catch! Why, bless them! Gough's the original agitator for Small Profits; goods are all baits. He does not fish with a bare hook. He knows the value of good value. His offers touch bottom in Clothing Prices, and that's what makes the High-Priced Clothing sharks wriggle and squirm.

Mothers, save 50 per cent. and buy your Boys' School Suits from

GOUGH, the Wonderful Cheap Man, 128 KING STREET EAST

Consumption

that dread terror, a disease so long baffling science and the most skilled physicians, who knew of nothing to arrest, nothing to alleviate, nothing to cure. Now it is no longer an incurable malady even when given up by physicians, health can yet be found in OUR REMEDY, it heals and soothes the membrane of the Lungs, inflamed and poisoned by the ravages of this fell disease, and prevents the night sweats and tightness across the chest which accompany it.
