A Suggestion.

Last week a correspondent in the Markham Sun devotes about two columns of space, in which he refers, in a very vague and indirect selves with beautiful cards at Mrs. Harrison's | manner, to some of the blunders of the present council. As a remedy for the various ills of the township he proposes the name of Mr. Robert Goodyear, of Victoria Square, as a councillor for next year. We do not doubt his ability as a "road-maker," to which the writer alludes, but believe that Mr. Goodyear is too modest to seek for bonor in the way pointed out by his eloquent pleader.

Inconsistent.

The York Herold in its last issue evidently insinuates that the trustees are moving too fast for the times, pointing out that the public school taxes next year will be increased by three-fourths of a mill on the dollar, owing to an increase in the salaries of the teachers. The salaries have only been raised $125 altogether, whereas a few months ago the Herald recommended that the principal's salary alone be increased from $400 to $600. Some men won't be satisfied.

In the latter place he took a very active interest in the Presbyterian Church, of which he was an elder. He also labored in the Sabbath school, his command to young and old being "Be ye also ready." Band of Hope.

The concert given Christmas night by the satisfied and were greatly surprised that the committee in such a short time should bring kind. The first part of programme was taken up by recitations, choruses, tableaux, You can buy at the Concrete etc.; the second was the hit of the evening, "The Temperance Picnic," and truly the children seemed to enjoy themselves as thoroughly as if they were verily in the woods under the blue canopy of heaven. The scenery was painted by the masterhand of W. A. Sanderson, and showed that this gentleman possesses great skill in this art. The parts executed were done so well by all that it is difficult to particularize and for us to do justice to all the performers space will not permit, so we will content ourselves by mentioning only a few. Miss Sadie Morgan recited the opening ode and displayed good elocutionary powers. Miss Edith Trevethan greeted the audience on behalf of the band, and delighted the hearers by the composure and easy manner of rendering the piece. Several other choruses and recitations were given and the scenery was changed for the picnic. The second part was opened by Miss May Simpson, who represented Old Mother Merry Heart, or the Old Woman who Lived in a Shoe, and she displayed a truly motherly feeling to all her adopted children, feeding them with sweetmeats and other dainties, and appearing to devote as much time to one as the other. She deplored the loss of her wandering bov. and sang very effectively "Where is My Wandering Boy To-night." Afterwards her boy returns, and very touching was the scepe between them. Master Reuben Glass represented the Wandering Boy, and did his part excellently. Mother Merry-Hearts' adopted children included all nations and races, such as negroes, Chinamen, Germans, etc. Master Percy Powell, as a negro, rendered a song in true negro style, and was loudly encored; he nobly sustained his part throughout. Master Will Trench, as Chinaman, could not be beaten, and if at any time Will gets lost he can easily assume the role of Chinaman and derive the benefits therefrom. Master Herbert Sanderson and Joe Keefler did well in their respective parts, as a German and an Irishman. We must not forget to make mention of the water spirits and wood nixes. who were respectively led by Miss Eva Jewel and Miss Susie Trench, who had each five followers dressed in suitable costumes and carrying wreaths of flowers for head movements with great precision, time with feet and voice being well kept by all. King A! ohol was hanged and Old Nick O' Time was buried Master Alfred Wiley, acting as haugman, and six boys of the band acting as grave-diggers. Miss Wiley acted as accompavist on the organ in her usually good siyle. W. D. Atkinson and J. H. Sanderson ac'ed as stage-managers, with Messrs. Wm. Trench and W. Atkinson, senior, ushers. Proceeds nearly $60.

Oh! my corns are the plague of my life. I don't intend to put in such auother week, if I know it. Thos. Johnson says he got a box of Chinese Corn Salve and it took them out in three applications without pain, he says it can be got at Dilworth's Drug Store, 170 King St. E., Toronto, for ten cents a box, and he will send it to you by mail without extra charge.
