You can buy Sugar at cost at the Concrete and Tea from 10 to 15 cts. per lb cheaper than Tea pedlars charge you for the same goods.

Memorial Service.

Instead of the usual sermon there will be a Memorial Service in the Methodist church next Sabbath morning in memory of the late Mrs. Munshaw, whose funeral to the village cemetery took place on Monday last. The public and friends are invited.

If you want cheap Hardware and Tinware go to Mason's Hardware Store.

Headford.

The concert given in the School House last Friday evening was well attended and an enjoyable time was spent. As might be supposed the principal attraction was the singing of Mr. W. E. Ramsay, of Toronto, who received encore after encore. His efficient accompanist, Miss Fowler, also came in for a good share of praise.

Special value in Tea on 5 or 10 lb lots at the Concrete.

Marriage at Belhaven.

An interesting event took place at the residence of Albert Defoe, Esq., of Belhaven, on Wednesday last, which was the marriage of his only daughter, Minnie, to Mr. H. M. Glancy, at one time a resident of Richmond Hill. Miss May Silver, of Sutton, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. J. Glancy was groomsmen. About fifty relatives and intimate friends attended the wedding, Rev. D. Cattenagh performing the ceremony. A large number of presents, both useful and handsome, was given the bride, who is a general favorite in that locality. The married couple left on the same day on a tour to Toronto and other places. THE LIBERAL is pleased to acknowledge a friendly call on their homeward drive.

You can buy the biggest 25 cents worth of Rolled Oats, Gold Dust Cornmeal, Soap, Raisins, Currants at the Concrete.

Credit Sale.
 Mr. Salem Eckardt will sell by Public Auction the household furniture, black-smith tools, waggon-makers' tools, buggies, waggons, paints, oils, varnishes, &c. &c., of Mr. James Johnson, Newton Brook, on Thursday, June 6th, 1889. Sale without reserve as the proprietor is moving to the North West. Sale at 1 o'clock sharp.

If you want a good job of Eave-troughing done get C. Mason to do it.

Public Challenge—The Richmond Hill Fair.

We shall exhibit at this Fair one of our excellent Double Blast Separators, and our "Conqueror" Traction Engine, and we are prepared to forfeit $500, if any Threshing Outfit can be produced that will equal it. INGERSOLL & Co., Engineers, Brantford.

F. Kirkby hopes all will read his advertisements and act accordingly as he most respectfully requests that you will give him one of the busiest days he has ever had in Richmond Hill for the 24th. Confectionery and Fruit of every description.

Going North.

The village was somewhat awakened on Friday morning by the appearance of a large Rocky Mountain Bear, accompanied by two able-bodied bipeds. One of the latter with the blushing modesty peculiar to that class of individuals, collected the necessary nickles, after which the other two gave an exhibition in front of the Dominion House. Altogether the duet was quite amusing. One of the cleverest feats performed by Bruin was climbing to the top of a telephone pole. The bear would weigh probably 400 lbs.

Mechanics Institute.

A meeting of the new Board of Directors of the above Institute was held on Monday evening. Directors present Messrs. A. R. Innes, (President), G. Newbery, W. Trench, H. M. McCuaig, R. E. Law, W. A. Sanderson, D. Boyle, and the Secretary. Besides other business including the reading of the Auditors' Report for the past year, the following Standing Committees were struck:—Re-union—Dr. Wilson, Nicholls, McMahon, Sanderson; Debate—McCuaig, Crosby, Newbery; Library—McCuaig, Clubine, Law; Finance—Boyle, Innes; Lecture—Trench, Pugsley, Wilson; Renting Piano—Law, Sanderson. Mr. R. E. Law was re-appointed Librarian and the meeting adjourned.

There has arrived this week at the Fire Proof a most beautiful range of Embroidered Flouncing one and one eighth yards wide from 50c. up, the cheapest and prettiest lot we have ever seen. Will D. Atkinson.

East York License Commissioners.

The Board of License Commissioners for East York met at the Clyde Hotel, Toronto, on Friday, the 10th inst. Present—Messrs. Wilson, (chairman) Richardson, Elliott, and the Inspector, James Eckardt. The inspector reported that Messrs. Palmer and Brillinger and Joseph Trebilcock, of East Toronto had complied with the law in erecting Fire Escapes, and the Board authorized him to issue their licenses. The following were also granted tavern licenses:—John Maxwell, Highland Creek; Andrew Bell, Coleman. The following application was refused—R. B. Popham, Milliken, Markham Township. Distribution papers No. 1 and 2 were then signed, and the board adjourned to meet at the call of the chairman.

Don't let the Barbed Wire Fence around the new Asphalt Pavement deter you from paying the Fire Proof a visit and seeing all the new goods that are there. Will D. Atkinson.

Oak Ridges.

The first pic-nic of the season took place last Friday at Bond's Lake. A bus load of pupils from Aurora High School drove down and spent the day in boating and enjoying themselves generally. They all were highly pleased with the outing. Mr. Bell has all his boats in order, and is prepared to accommodate pleasure-seekers and pic-nickers. On Sunday last, about noon, the inhabitants were startled to see flames from Mr. W. Thomas' house, on the pinnacle. Before many persons had arrived the fire had gained such headway that nothing could be done but stand helplessly by and look on. Mr. Thomas was away to church at the time. The house and wood-shed, which was also used as driving-house, were totally destroyed. The total loss is placed at $1,500. Mr. Thomas had some insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed that some boys had been around the premises smoking. Mr. M. Glancy, who formerly lived with Mr. P. Routledge, and subsequently ran the blacksmith shop at Jefferson, was visiting old friends in the burgh last week. We understand that he has lately been investing in matrimonial bonds. Our old friend has our heartiest congratulations.—Com.

Visitors to the Fair should not fail to inspect the magnificent stock of Dry Goods and Crockery at the Concrete.

BIRTHS.

Post—At the Methodist Parsonage, Richmond Hill, on the 16th inst. the wife of W. R. Post, of a daughter.
 TYNDALE—In Richmond Hill, on the 19th inst. the wife of Mr. George Tyndall, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

GLANCY—DEFOE—At the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. D. Cattenagh, on Wednesday, May 15th, 1889, H. M. Glancy, formerly of Oak Ridges, to Minnie, only daughter of Albert Defoe Esq., of Belhaven.

DEATHS.

MUNSHAW—On May 18th, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Williams, 410 Dovercourt Road, Hanna M. Anderson, relict of the late George Munshaw, of Richmond Hill, in her 88th year.

Courteous and attentive treatment are the characteristics of the Fire Proof and every one may depend on receiving our very best attention whether you buy from us or not. Will D. Atkinson.

PERSONALS.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Coulter, Mr. A. Coulter, Mr. C. Savage, and Mr. L. Congor, all of Toronto, spent last Sunday in the village.

Miss Mulcahy, of Orillia, was the guest of the Misses Teefy on Friday night and Saturday last.

Miss Gertie Barker, daughter of Rev. W. R. Barker, of Streetsville, is spending the week at the residence of Mr. Wm. Trench.

Mr. & Mrs. T. Hagerman, of Richmond Hill, were in town over Sunday.—Stouffville Tribune.

Mrs. Stephen Wallace, of Mount Pisgah, is spending a day or two with her daughter, Mrs. G. Tyndall.

Mrs. Riley, of St. Paul's City, has been the guest of Mrs. P. G. Savage during the week.

Rev. J. R. Teefy, M. A., will deliver a special sermon at St. Basil's Church next Sunday evening on "Womans' Work in the Catholic Church."

Mr. M. Harvey Wilson, of Toronto, a former clerk in the Central Bank here, was in the village on Friday, making inquiries as to the desirability of opening another branch bank in this place.

Mr. Hugh McConaghy, a former Young Canadian, is among the members of the Toronto Lacrosse team, for their match with the Shamrocks, on the Queen's Birth-day.

Herr Mark Mendelson, the practical phrenologist, is spending a week in the village. His office rooms are at the Dominion House, where he is prepared to make private examinations and give written charts.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Trench will be glad to learn that the latter are enjoying their new home in East Toronto, to which place they removed a few weeks ago. Mrs. Trench's amiable disposition endeared her to all with whom she came in contact, and our village sustained quite a loss in the removal of Mr. Trench. As a citizen he was always willing and active in endeavoring to promote everything that was calculated to forward the best interests of our village. The Mechanics' Institute, of which he was for the past year the efficient secretary; the British and Foreign Bible Society, of which he was also secretary and treasurer; the Fire Brigade, of which he was long a useful member, all these institutions will sadly miss his presence. He was also an active official, and worker in connection with the Presbyterian Church, and his place there will be difficult to fill. In fact in every way he was a most desirable and agreeable member of any committee of management. We trust that in their new home both Mr. and Mrs. Trench's brightest anticipations will be more than realized.

All canned goods at the Concrete at lowest figures.
