Gent's Felt and Straw Hats, Ties and Scarfs at the Concrete, the noblest to be found.

The Churches

Dinner and Tea in both the Methodist and Presbyterian churches were well patronized on the 24th of May. At the former, including the previous Sunday collection, the amount was about $100, and at the latter the exact sum, including the proceeds of a social held the following evening, was $122.65.

The correct place to bring your Butter, Eggs, Bacon and all farm produce is the Fire Proof, highest market prices paid.

Credit Sale.

Mr. Salem Eckardt will sell by Public Auction the household furniture, blacksmith tools, wagon-makers' tools, buggies, waggons, paints, oils, varnishes, &c. &c. of Mr. James Johnson, Newton Brook, on Thursday, June 6th, 1889. Sale without reserve as the proprietor is moving to the North West. Sale at 1 o'clock sharp.

The Concrete will sell you Tea 25 per cent. cheaper than Tea pedlars, and will sell you sugar at cost.

Springhill

A shooting accident occurred to Allie Hall, of this place, on the 24th of May. In company with one of his companions he went to the Eversley pond to fish, and carried a revolver in his pocket. The fishes not being in "biting" humor, the boys thought they might have better luck by shooting the finny swimmers. The revolver not working properly, the boys endeavored to adjust the cartridge with a chip, when it exploded, the ball entering the calf of Allie's leg. The assistance of Dr. Norman was called, and the bullet was extracted with considerable difficulty. The patient is now making satisfactory progress to recovery.

Fruit, Confectionery, and Groceries of every description at Lorne Store.

Tea Meeting.

A Tea-Meeting will be held in the Methodist Church, Teston, on Tuesday evening, the 11th of June. Tea will be served from 5 to 7, after which a choice programme will be rendered. The Vellore Cornet Band will enliven the proceedings at intervals with appropriate music, and the Teston Choir will furnish the singing. Mr. E. J. Davis, M. P. P. North York is expected to occupy the chair. Tickets 25 cents; Children 15 cents. Proceeds in aid of church funds. See bills.

Memorial Service

Last Sunday morning a service was held in the Methodist church in memory of the late Mrs. Munshaw, a notice of whose death appeared in last issue. Rev. J. H. Starr, a former pastor here, made some very feeling remarks relative to the life and habits of the christian sister. He was followed by Mr. W. Harrison and Rev. J. M. Simpson. The latter in referring to her christian example stated that though her memory of late years had faded her so that she could scarcely ever remember her ministers' names, she never forgot the name of God, of whom she ever loved to talk. The choir sang pieces suitable for the occasion, and the entire service was very enjoyable.

Get a Washing Machine. You can do your work in quarter of the time, you can save money by buying one, sold everywhere. Lorne Store.

Special Announcement

We have made arrangements with Dr. B. J. Kendall Co., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," which will enable all our subscribers to obtain a copy of that valuable work free by sending their address (enclosing a two-cent stamp for mailing same) to Dr. B. J. Kendall Co., ENOSBURGH FALLS, VT. This book is now recognized as standard authority upon all diseases of the horse, as its phenomenal sale attests, over four million copies having been sold in the past ten years, a sale never before reached by any publication in the same period of time. We feel confident that our patrons will appreciate the work, and be glad to avail themselves of this opportunity of obtaining a valuable book. It is necessary that you mention this paper in sending for the "Treatise." This offer will remain open for only a short time. 52

Ladies, if you want the newest style and neatest things in Flowers, Feathers, Plumes, Hats, Bounnets, Ribbons, Mantles and Coats, order at the Concrete.

Vellore Celebration.

The bright anticipations of the celebration held at Vellore on the Queen's Birth-day, under the auspices of the Cornet Band, were more than realized. Everything passed off pleasantly, and the committee after paying all expenses will have netted fully $140. The weather being cool the dancing was all the more enjoyable, and upwards of seventy couples glided at once in graceful movements, to the sweet strains of music furnished by the string band. On behalf of the Vellore band, Messrs. J. J. Cameron, A. Carley and Arch Cameron, have asked us to convey through THE LIBERAL, their sincere thanks to the many friends who rendered their valuable assistance in preparing and carrying out the programme of the day; also to the public for their patronage and good behavior. The following is a list of the prize-winners in the sports:—Farmer's race—1st, Eb Smith; 2nd, Sam Hilliard. Foot race, 100 yards—1st, Joe Smith; 2nd, Ab McBride. Hop, step and jump—1st, John McEachern, 39 ft. 11 in.; 2nd, Andrew McClure, 38 ft. 5 in. Standing jump—1st, Jerome Campbell, 12 ft.; 2nd, J. McEachern, 11 ft. 11 in.

The Concert.

The concert given in the Masonic Hall on the evening of the 24th of May, under the auspices of the Agricultural Society, was a success in every particular. Before the time for commencing the programme had arrived, the hall was packed to its utmost capacity, every foot of the aisle and platform was taken up, and scores, probably hundreds, were forced to leave, not being able to gain admission. Were it not that we are crowded with matter such as the prize list and several lengthy communications this week, we would feel justified in referring to each performer's selections, as not a single piece was given which is not worthy of praise. Mr. Chas. Munro and his bag-pipes were in their best form, and many a heart beat faster as the national airs of "Auld Scotia" were struck up. The step-dancing of Mandie Saunderson and Jamie Burry proved a treat, and the sword dance of the former and the sailor's hornpipe of the latter could not fail in receiving encores. Miss Ida Simpson's songs, as usual, were well received. Her selections were good, and her sweet and well cultivated voice drew forth those tones which are always pleasing to the admirers of Gottschalk, Beschoff and Ardit. The readings of Mr. J. H. Shepard, of Willowdale, were equally good in both humor and pathos, but, as might be expected from an enthusiastic Queen's Birthday audience, the humorous were more in demand. His rendition of "Saunders McGlashan's Courtship," "The Old Maid," &c., brought down the house, and he was loudly applauded. But the appearance of Mr. W. E. Ramsay in his various costumes was an indication that a rich treat was in store for the excited crowd. He appeared nine times and each performance was received, if possible, with more favor than the preceding one. Mr. W. Trench discharged the duties of chairman with his accustomed ability, and Miss Simpson and Miss Fowler, as accompanists on the piano, left nothing to be desired. About $110 was taken at the door, and with the exception of some inconvenience caused by overcrowding, a pleasanter evening could not well be spent.

We have a few of those beautiful Embroidery Flouncings at the Fire Proof, selling rapidly notwithstanding the extremely cold weather of the past week. Will D. Atkinson.
