Powell was greatly admired by the spectators especially the fair sex." "Shorty" always does play a good game of lacrosse, but he can't resist throwing those side glances at the girls.

This popular play which gives an illustration of life in the Southern States before the American war was given last evening under a large pavilion on the Fair Grounds. We will not attempt a description of the drama, but will merely say that notwithstanding the very unfavorable weather, every available seat was taken up, and that the cast of characters was very good. Although many of the listeners might say they have seen it acted better, it was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience, and none would regret having seen it again.

Directors Meeting.

The directors of the Richmond Hill and Yonge St. Agricultural Society met at the Dominion House on Tuesday evening. Directors present, Messrs. Trench, Lloyd, P. Boynton, T. Boynton, Legge, Russell, Clark, Playter, Johnston, Nicholls, Redditt and Pugsley. All the returns had not yet been handed in, but the report read by the secretary was very encouraging. Quite a neat sum will be netted from the Fair after paying all prizes and expenses. The secretary read a protest which had been handed in by Mr. E. Gall-nough, who claimed 2nd prize in the open trot at the Fair. Evidence was taken when it was finally decided not to interfere with the decision of the judges. A discussion then took place relative to the advisability of erecting a permanent building for Fair purposes. It was afterwards moved by A. Russell, seconded by T. Boynton, that Messrs. Trench, Redditt and McMahon be a committee to wait on the village Council and ascertain on what terms the said council would be willing to enter into an arrangement by which a suitable Agricultural Building might be erected, and to report at the next meeting of the society.

Covered stone ware, butter crocks all sizes, at the Concrete, cheap.

Anti-Jesuit Meeting.

Last Friday evening a meeting was held in the Masonic Hall for the purpose of discussing the Jesuit Estate Bill and to appoint delegates to attend the Convention which will meet in Toronto this month. Rev. G. N. Rutledge occupied the chair. After a few introductory remarks he called upon Rev. W. W. Percival, who explained that the meeting did not represent any party or creed, but was purely a citizens' meeting. He objected to the government of Quebec discriminating in favor of a certain church and particularly in recognizing the power of the Pope of Rome in civil affairs of any British province. In speaking of the $400,000 to the Catholic Church, he said it was given wholly to that church,—principal and all—whereas only the interest on the $60,000 was given to the protestants of Quebec, and that to be purely for educational purposes. Rev. J. M. Simpson followed. He said he was in sympathy with those opposed to the Jesuits Estate Act, and thought that all denominations, including Roman Catholics, should join in the protest. The following resolutions moved by Rev. W. W. Percival and seconded by James M. Lawrence Esq., were then put to the meeting and carried unanimously:—"That this meeting composed of the electors of Richmond Hill village and vicinity, being impressed with the great importance of maintaining throughout the entire Dominion the principle of religious liberty and equality, hereby enters its solemn protest against the endowment of any religious bodies from the public funds as being in direct violation of the principles of religious equality as recognized by the British North America Act. That we express our astonishment at and enter our protest against the recognition of the authority of the Pope in any civil affairs in any British Province. That we record our emphatic protest against the action of the Dominion Parliament in refusing to disallow the said Act. That while we desire to live in peace and harmony with all, and claim no greater privileges than we are willing to allow, yet we believe that this can only be successfully accomplished by contending earnestly for civil and religious liberty and equality." Before the resolutions were put to the meeting, Mr. J. Duncan suggested that the protest against the action of the Dominion Government in refusing to disallow the Act, should also include the Mowat government. Rev. Mr. Percival explained that the protest was against the Parliament, after which the resolutions were put and carried unanimously. Revs. Messrs. Percival and Rutledge were appointed delegates to attend the Convention, and the meeting adjourned after singing the National Anthem.

Our stock of Worsteds, Scotch and Canadian Tweeds, Trouserings etc. at the Fire Proof is still large and well assorted, notwithstanding the heavy sales of the past month and intending purchasers should see them before placing their order.
