Narrow escape from Death.

Last Tuesday evening about dusk Mr. Wm. Munshaw, of Langstaff, underwent a terrible experience with a bull. He was leading the animal by a chain, one end of which was fastened by a ring in the bull's nose, the other attacued to a piece of wood to keep him at a distance. The beast becoming infuriated broke the piece of wood and charged Mr. Munshaw with his horns. He carried the helpless man across the yard, through a gate, and endeavored to gore him against a post. Fortunatels Mr. David Boyle, who was brought to the scene by the angry bellowings, managed to get hold of the chain fasten it around the post, and pounded the bull away from his victim. Mr. Munshaw was taken in the house bruised and blesding but is likely to recover without any serious results, although yesterday he was unable to turn himself in his bed. No person dare untie the monster so he was shot where he stood.

Sherwood.

Considering the muddy state of the roads there was a good attendance at the Bazaar and Garden Party held at the residence of Mr. Thos. Jackson, on Monday evening, the 10th of June. A pleasant feature of the evening was the bazaar, where a number of fancy articles, principally aprons was disposed of. Some of the bachelors had their aprons made to order, and in all case got good fits. The entertainment which followed was first-class. Rev. C. H. Shortt, Incumbent, occupied the chair, and a few happy remarks were made by Rev. A, Mc-Laughlin. The performers were principally from Toronto and Woodbridge. The recitations of Miss Beatty, Toronto, were loudly encored, as well as those of Miss Elliott, Woodbridge. A quartette by ladies and gentlemen from Toronto gave excellent satisfaction. The singing of Miss Alexander, Woodbridge, and Miss Murphy, Toronto, is seldom excelled, and the audience thoroughly appreciated their efforts. The proceeds of the evening amounted to about $35 which will be in aid of St. Stephens Church. Many thanks are due Mr Jackson and family for the use of their residence, and courteous treatment to all who attended.

Victoria Square.

The anniversary in connection with the Sabbath School, Victoria Square, was held on Saturday and Sunday last. On Saturday, the annual Tea was given at the church, and was served commencing at 4 p. m. There was a good attendance, but the rain evidently kept many a way. Different kinds of sports were provided, but the football tournment drew the largest crowd of spectators, who seemed to be greatly interested in the play. The Annual Pic-Nic in connection with In the evening Rev.C. Langford, of Toronto, delivered his lecture "Why I left the church of Rome," and was listened to very attentively. Miss Ida Simpson sang several pieces in her pleasing manner, and the evening passed by very satisfactorily. On the Sunday following services were preached by Rev. C. Langford, when good collections were taken. Returning to the football tournament on Saturday afternoon four good teams entered for the ball which the committee of management had procured for the winning team. First Aurora played with Almira, the Intter winning by two straight games. Then Richmond Hill High School faced Markham Village, when the former defeated their opponents by one goal. The two victorious teams (Almira and Richmond Hill) then took the field, but at the end of the time allowed, forty minutes, neither side had scored, and the match was therefore a draw. Play might have been resumed, but as the Hill boys had played two matches in succession, and as the ground was very soft and muddy, they declined to play longer, and the ball was given to Almira. Our boys did ex cellent work, and with a little more practice will make a very strong team. Below we give their names and positions:-Goal, F. Harris; Backs, E. Hitchcock, T. Mortson; Half Backs, E. Frisby, G. Nixon; Right Wing, S. Robson, W. McDonald; Left Wing, A. Vanderburgh, H. Brown; Centre, E. Frisby, E. Vanderburgh, Captain.

The Almira club were:-J. Forester, W. Mustard, A. McKay, A. Smith, J. McKenzie, N. Ratcliffe, D. Hare, E. Forester, N. Mustard. W. McKay, J. Powers.
