Picnic at the Lake.

A large number drove through this village last Saturday afternoon from Maple, Thornhill, Concord, Weston and other places, bound for Bonds Lake, and spent a very enjoyable afternoon, although the recent rains and cold winds put a damper on the ardor of some, especially the ladies. However, all seemed satisfied, and passed through here homeward between 9 and 10 o'clock. Many of the picnickers called at our village ice cream parlors, and enlarged considerably the vendors' sales of the week.

A sad accident occurred at the Orillia station on Wednesday morning of last week. ing were elected officers for the ensuing The victim was brakesman Wm. High, brother of Mr. Geo. High, 2nd Deputy-Reeve of Vaughan. He had a short time before gone into the yard on a freight train, and was in the act of coupling cars when the accident happened. The engine with several cars attached backed up to attach another flat car, and High went between the cars to fix the link. The engineer stopped the train just before coupling on the flat car, and realizing that he had not backed far enough he backed suddenly without giving any warning. The unfortunate man was making the coupling when the cars were jammed together, and his right hip and part of his body were caught by the draw heads. He was carried into the baggage room, Dr. Shaw the Railway surgeon was summoned, but nothing could be done for him. He lived about an hour and was able to tell how the accident occurred. The body was taken to the residence of his brother, at Maple, from which place the funeral took place on Friday afternoon. Deceased was about 40 years of age and was unmarried.

Dominion Day in Richmond Hill.

The young people of the Methodist church congregation always give their patrons a treat on the 1st of July, and each succeeding celebration proves more interesting than its predecessor. This year they purpose holding a brilliant Kirmess and Strawberry Festival on the Park on a magnificent scale. The Park will be beautifully illuminated by Chinese lanterns and camp-fires, and will present a a pleasing sight. The graceful movements of the Indian Club-swingers, together with the fancy tripping of the Water Sprites will be an exhibition in itself. A good Band has been secured, and the committee feel confident that they will give an entertainment which will be unrivalled in its uniqueness, and which for enjoyment has never been surpassed. Ice-cream, Strawberries, and every variety of choice fruits will be served at the booths on different parts of the grounds. Tickets to grounds and supper 25 cts.; children 15 cts.; carringes 25 cts extra. Every effort should be made to attend as no person should miss the novelty of the Kirmess and other attractious. On the Sunday previous, June 30th, the Rev. C. O. Johnston will deliver in the Methodist church two of his popular sermons. Morning sermon at 10.30: "How to choose a Husband;" Evening sermon: "How to choose a Wife." Full musical service by the choir on each occasion. For full particulars relative to Dominion Day see large bills.

Headford.

Last Thursday being a fine day, a large crowd of people assembled on the grounds of Mr. S. Ritter to witness the contest for the valuable foot-ball given by the committee of management to the winning team. Four teams, Richmond Hill, Markham, the Fourth Rangers and Buttonville entered as competitors for the ball. The draw being made, the High School team faced their old opponents. Markham. After playing forty minutes the result was a draw. The Rangers and Buttonville then took the field, the former defeating the latter by one gosl. The High School and Markham again took the field, and during thirty minutes play each scored one goal. Time was called, and the decision was made by a toss, which the Hill won. The two winning teams, Richmond Hill and the Rangers, then played off, and when time was called the Hill boys were winners by two goals Throughout the whole tournament excellent play was shown by all teams, although it is thought that one good reliable captain would be a great improvement to the Markham team. The following played in the High School team :- Goal, F Harris; Backs, E Hitchcock, T Mortson; Half-backs, G Nixon, S Robson; Right wing W Trench, W McDonald; Left wing, E Forester, H Brown; Centre, E Frisby, E Vanderburg (Captain); Umpire, S Byers; Referee, R Frisby. The Hill team are to be congratulated on their success.
