RICHMOND HILL, Thursday, Sept. 19, '89

Jubilee at Thornhill.

The Jubilee services held in the Methodist Church, Thornhill, in connection with the Sabbath School of that congregation, on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, were interesting, and will long be remembered with pleasure by those who attended. The programme at each session was well carried out, and reflected much credit not only on those who took part in the entertainment, but on the managers of the school, who laid the plans so successfully. The affair had an air of novelty about it from the fact that the people were brought together to celebrate an event fifty years after the organization of the school. Many prominent men and women formerly connected with the school were present at each meeting, and the memorable event seemed like a happy re-union of old friends who had become separated in different parts of the country.

The series of services opened on Saturday evening, when Rev. Mr. Bielby, of Brookholm, delivered an address, which was of a very interesting and practical nature. On Sunday four services were held. At 9.30 a. m. a testimony meeting, showing the advantages to be derived from attending Sabbath School proved of much value. Many testimonies were given, and all went to show that a good training at a Sabbath School was an essential which no boy or girl could afford to lose. Not only does such a school prove an educator to the rising generation, but impressions are made on the youthful mind which time will not obliterate. At 10.30 a. m. Rev. J. Rankin, of Unionville, preached an eloquent and earnest sermon on the subject of God's unchangeable and eternal love, taking as his text Jeremiah xxxi, 3: "I love thee with an everlasting love." The preacher dwelt on the proofs of God's love as seen in the phenomenal world—in sun and shower, in the beauty of world and the bounty of nature, in the fitness of the Divine arrangement and the provision of Providence for all. Then turning to revelation the attentive audience were reminded of the many proofs therein found of the love which moves the great heart of God for the children of men. The children's service in the afternoon was a live meeting from beginning to end. The lessons taught were good and were thoroughly enjoyed by both old and young. Mr. John Lane, ex-M. P. P., presided, and addresses appropriate to the occasion were delivered by Revs. W. M. Bielby and G. W. Calvert.

In the evening the regular service was proceeded with, Rev. G. W. Calvert being the preacher. He chose as his subject, "A plea for the children," which he founded on the words of Genesis, xlii, 22, "Sin not against the children." In an eloquent, stirring and practical sermon he showed many ways in which children may be hurt, physically, by style of clothing and by indifferent and unwholesome food; intellectually, by neglecting to give them educational advantages, etc.; morally and spiritually by bad example of parents or others, by pernicious literature to poison their minds, and by neglecting to bring them into living contact with spiritual privileges as found in Sunday School and Church services.

On Monday afternoon an excellent Tea was served in the school room at the rear of the church, followed by a platform meeting which commenced about eight o'clock.

Rev. J. Locke, pastor of the church, opened with prayer, after which the programme was placed in the hands of Mr. J. H. Ramsden, Warden of the County, who presided in a very efficient and pleasing manner. The church was decorated in good taste. Behind the altar was the word "Welcome," underneath which was the Horse-shoe, emblematic of good luck. On one side of the wall behind the platform was 1839 and on the opposite side 1889. Beautiful flowers and plants were placed here and there, and a delicate wreath stretched all the way round the gallery. After the chairman's address, Mr. D. James, Superintendent of the School, delivered an Address of Welcome. In a clear voice, in an impressive manner and in eloquent terms, he gave a warm welcome to all who attended. Dr. McLellan, Superintendent of Institutes and Normal Schools, responded, and being a pupil of the school in his young days, related many incidents which were interesting and amusing and clothed parts of his practical address with flowery eloquence. Mr. J. R. Miller, President of the York County Sabbath School Association, was called upon, and gave an impromptu address, which was well delivered and well received.

The chairman also called upon Dr. Gilmour, M. P. P. for West York, Mr. G. B. Smith, M. P. P. for East York, and Mr. John Gibson, Conservative nominee for the Legislature in East York, all of whom gave addresses. Many references were made to the historic Sunday School, and all were unanimous in congratulating the superintendent, the teachers and pupils on the success which had attended their efforts.

Besides appropriate selections by the choir, the musical part of the evening's entertainment was furnished by Mrs. J. E. Knox, Miss Purkiss, Miss Effie Wilson, Mr. F. R. James and Mr. Harry Reid, all of whom sang solos with good effect. The jubilee services were brought to a close by singing The National Anthem.

A DILEMMA.

Next year Manager Hill and the other directors of the Toronto Industrial Exhibition will be in a quandary to know what attractions to provide to interest the visitors at their great show. Worthy ministers such as Rev. Dr. Stone, President of the Methodist Conference, and Rev. Manly Benson, of the Queen Street Methodist Church, have visited the attractions and viewed with their own eyes the dancing of the Hungarian girls, which they condemn in unmistakable terms. The complaint against the girls is that in dancing they not only kick higher than is consistent with modesty, but that they wear their dresses too short. The venerable Globe takes issue against the rev. gentlemen, and beholds the various scenes and manoeuvres from the grand stand without even a blush. The Globe is also backed up by Sir John Macdonald, the head of the country, whose remarks at the opening of the Exhibition were that, in his opinion, nothing was more appropriate at an Agricultural Fair than "a good exhibition of calves." Among them be it.

FALL AND WINTER

For six months we have been searching the markets for goods of all descriptions suited to our trade, and which we could recommend for their serviceable qualities. While we have sought for the best possible value with regard to wear and durability we have not forgotten that color, style and neatness in pattern are essential. We have bought large lots of fall goods three, four and six months ahead, when by so doing we could save 40 or 50 per cent of which our customers shall have the benefit. We say (and challenge contradiction by comparison) that there is no man who buys goods in the ordinary way (in the city or out) who can show you such REAL VALUE in DRESS GOODS, HATS, TWEEDS, CLOTHING, BOOTS & SHOES as we now can.

We have DRESS GOODS for less than they cost to import. We have an immense pile of fine Tweeds and Coatings, which we will sell you for less than the wholesale price of the same goods today. We have cut from 25 to 40 cents per yard off Canadian Tweeds, and 40 to 60 cents per yard off Scotch Tweeds and Worsteds.

We have just bought a lot of Clothing (belonging to an estate in liquidation) manufactured by Shorey & Co. Montreal, and Lailey, Watson & Co, Toronto, which is a guarantee that the cut and make is first-class, all of which will be sold at 66 cents on the $.

Our Boots & Shoes are from the BEST MAKERS bought very cheap for spot cash, and sold as cheap as any in the city. We have a great variety of black and coloured Hats for men and boys in all the new and leading shapes.

Our Groceries are the best qualities with Close Cut prices. Don't forget that these goods are first-class in every way; that they will be sold far below their real value, in fact our old store (though neither large nor showy), is packed full of REAL DOWN RIGHT MONEY SAVING BARGAINS. Come and examine for yourselves. Goods shown with pleasure.
