CASH & ONE PRICE ONLY

Some leather's mean. Some workmen are mean. Some bootsellers are mean.

That's how mean boots get made and sold.

Six out of every ten pairs of boots are shams—pasted stock, shoddy, "pancakes."
 Bits of useless leather are pressed and made into insoles, just as bits of useless wool are carded with long cotton and made into shoddy.

Never was a time when boots looked so well, and wore so badly, till the shoeing of a whole family has come to be a serious task.

There's no reason for mean boots. Some shopkeepers see a reason for them in their cheapness, but if that's so then the meaner they're made the better. (You wouldn't tolerate the reason for a moment put in that way.) The only room for them is the room they use up. And the saving is a saving at the spy-got to waste at the bung.

And the remedy?
 There's a store where you can't buy shoddy boots, because they don't sell them, where they have neither two prices nor two names for the same thing, where Paris kid doesn't masquerade as French and machine-sewed don't pass for hand-sewed.

That's T. Eaton & Co's.
 190 Yonge street.

They guarantee every pair of boots they sell that costs over $2.

And those under $2?
 Well, they keep them because you want them and they like to keep whatever is likely to be called for, but that's no reason why you should buy them.

Even the cheapest are the best to be had for the money.
 The only question is whether you or they shall take the risk and they draw the prick limit.

That's just like T. Eaton & Co's. storekeeping.
 The number, you'll note, is 190, and only for cash.

Mail Order Department.— As far as convenient you will of course always do your shopping in person, but we want to say when this can't be done you can write for anything you wish, and get it just as well as if you came to the store—any thing. We have a little army of people who do nothing but buy for those who write for things.

Farewell Words

TO MRS. (DR.) LLOYD.

'Tis the voice of duty calls you,
 In a distant land to dwell;
 Dear ones gladly wait to greet you,
 Others sadly say farewell.
 God will be your escort, leading In each new and untried way;
 Making plain each daily service,
 Lest your footsteps go astray.

Trust in Him, He'll surely guide you, Give you grace His will to do;
 And will bless, sustain and comfort,
 All earth's changeful journey through.
 With His help go meet life's battles, Though the conflict be severe,
 With His presence near to shield you,
 You have nothing else to fear.

In His mighty strength go forward,
 By your life His grace proclaim;
 Shedding o'er the lives around you, Rays of holy, heavenly flame.
 'Tis a mission high and holy,
 To extend Christ's kingdom here,
 A co-worker in His vineyard,
 With His promises to cheer.

May your presence be a comfort,
 Fill the home to which you go,
 With a bright domestic sweetness
 And a genial happy glow.
 Make the wheels of toil roll smoothly O'er life's rough uneven road, Making light the cares of others,
 Helping loved ones bear the load.

Carry in your hand the Bible,
 To the lonely miners' camp,
 Cheer them with the gospel message,
 For their life a guiding lamp.
 Tell them of a loving Saviour,
 Who stands waiting to bestow,
 All the treasures of redemption, Bought on Calvary's rugged brow.

Men who bravely face the dangers,
 Risk their lives for others' gain, Treasures bring from hearts of ages,
 Who in his old paths have lain.
 In the mountain caverns diving,
 Untold riches to secure,
 Haunts of men and home forsaking, Hardships for mankind endure.

Four the oil of joy and gladness,
 In the saddened sin-sick soul,
 Teach them where the "Balm of Gilead,
 May be found to make them whole.
 By the couch of pain and weakness,
 Bend to whisper words of love,
 Words of heavenly consolation, Passport to the world above.

Every cup of water given In the name of Christ our Lord,
 Will be treasure stored in heaven,
 Where you'll reap a rich reward.
 Though you may grow faint and weary,
 With the trials you endure, Earth is fleeting, heaven is nearing,
 And eternal bliss is sure.

Life is but a journey, stretching From the cradle to the tomb, Anxious cars our earthly portion,
 'Till we pass beyond the gloom.
 Safe from sorrow, our thanksgiving,
 Will be echoed through the skies,
 And we'll bless the hand that led us Up from earth to Paradise.

As far as the championship is concerned the last match of the five-club league was played on Saturday between the Cornwall and Montreal lacrosse club.
 The latter were victorious by five goals to two. This gives the Montrealers the flags and the championship for 1889. The last match of the series will be played between the Torontos and Shamrocks next Saturday, which, however, stand at the foot of the ladder.

Save a part of your fair by calling at Dilworth's Drug Store next Saturday

 Dilworth obliging and attentive to your

Victoria Square

The return cricket match between the married and single men took place on the grounds of Mr. Wm. Bruce on the 11th of September. A large crowd assembled to witness the match. Both sides put forth all the efforts possible, and played creditably. The bowlers for the single men were R. Frisby and H. J. Brown, who were dead on wicket, and it was hard for the opponents to do much with the balls. J. Gould and E. Frisby bowlers for the married men, also did excellent work. When the last wicket fell the score stood:—Single men, 62; married men 51.

On Saturday, September 14th, the Vics of this place went to Markham to play a friendly game on the grounds of the latter. The home team won the toss and went to the bat. It seemed like old times for the Vics to fell the wickets and make it interesting for their opponents, J. Gould and R. Frisby being bowlers.
 Excellent playing was put forth on both sides. When the game ended the score stood as follows:—
