CANDIES! Yes, we said Candies. The best we can get; none but the good, the pure. Quite an idea to sell them where the women are the most plentiful.

Candies and Tea! Howbeit, we're not going into the Grocery business.

You can get a pound of sweets for 10 cents or 50 cents —according to your taste.
Half a dozen prices in between —all hitched to the smallest profit we can afford to take.
The assortment includes

Cream Caramels, Bon Bons, Eaton's Mixtures, Gum Drops, Chocolates, Butter Tarts, and the cream of Harry Webb's experience in the making. He is one man who knows how to make eatable candy, and so we sell most of his.

Ground floor, near Tea.

A word about hand-made Shoes. What does it mean?
Just this—that upper and sole are sewed together by shoemaker's awl and waxed end.
Hand-work is imitated.

There's no harm in that. Machine work that looks like hand-work is said to be handwork sometimes. That's a matter of opinion, but we never heard of hand-work said to be as good as machine work.
Have you?

Boots and shoes sold to us with a guarantee needs little advertising. Making good shoes popular is part of our business. And you needn't linger over the price. That's patent to the increasing throng of purchasers ever since we hung out the motto: Shoes at dry goods prices.

And what we have we mean to hold.

Queen Street entrance, ground floor.

Closing prices have been put on a bigish lot of heavyweight dress goods, and the inference is they won't be here long. Quality and color are right. The only trouble is—they belong to winter.
New stuffs are opening up every day. For months we've been gathering them. Time you were thinking about them, too.

A postal card is enough to bring all the facilities of the store to your home, just as much as though we were located in your town.
Think of a clerk—educated to know fashion changes, merchandise, qualities, styles and colors—being at your beck and call whenever you wish.
That's shopping by mail. Samples of any kind of mailable merchandise can be had for the asking.
N. B.—In writing be careful to address your letters plainly—190 Yonge Street, or, if here in person, have a care that you get into the right store. 190 is the number, and T. Eaton & Co. the name.

Masonic.
The friendly feeling which generally characterizes the Masonic fraternity was made practically manifest in Thornhill last Thursday evening. The occasion was the Regular Meeting of Patterson Lodge followed by a banquet at the Queen's Hotel. The brethren first met in the lodge room where, besides the transaction of the general business, a brother was raised to the sublime degree of a master mason. The work was satisfactorily exemplified and reflected much credit on those who filled the official chairs.

The following were present:—Patterson Lodge—W Bro J E Knox, J T B Lindsay, I P M, J O Steele, Secretary, J Cherry, J McDonald, Perry, H B Schmidt, A A Knox, Geo Howell. St John's Lodge, Toronto—R W Bro Wm

B C—Bro Rev W W Percival.

Leaving the lodge room the members of Patterson Lodge and the invited guests repaired to the spacious dining room of the Queens, where the tables were laid out in Mr. Skarden's best style. After the tables had been disposed of a well-arranged toast list was commenced.

Bro J E Knox was in the chair, which he filled in the happiest manner. After welcoming the brethren on behalf of Patterson Lodge, he proposed "The Queen and the Craft," which met with the enthusiasm that Masons are always prepared to give it. The hall then rang with the National Anthem. "The Grand Lodge of Canada" was next proposed, and promptly responded to. "Our Visiting Brethren" brought forth magnificent speeches from W. Bros. Inwood, Patton, Smith, Lovell, and others from all parts of the room. W Bro Knox responded on behalf of Patterson Lodge, after it had been cordially received. He thanked those present for assisting so cheerfully and ably in the entertainment of the evening, and hoped it would not be the last time they would meet under such pleasant circumstances.

And entertaining as were the responses to the toasts, they were only a portion of the evening's programme. Many of those present were accomplished musicians, and song after song was called for, and given by gentlemen present to the enjoyment of the audience. The company dispersed at an early hour, every one being loud in his praise of the enjoyable evening spent together.

Presentation.
On Monday evening, Feb. 3rd, about 200 members and friends of the Methodist Church and Sabbath School, Victoria Square, assembled at the Temperance Hall, to do honor to a respected citizen and fellow laborer in the Sabbath School, Mr. Geo. Querrie, who is about to remove to Parkdale.
At 7 o'clock the chair was taken by Mr.
Thomas Brown, who called the meeting to order and gave a short and suitable address.
After a programme of music and short and pithy addresses by Messrs. S. Woodard, J. Ellarby and W. Scott, Mr.
Querrie was presented with a purse containing $45 and an address, as a small token of the regard with which he is held in that neighborhood.

Mr. Querrie was much taken by surprise but managed to collect his thoughts together and made a very feeling and suitable reply.
The following is a copy of the address:
Mr. Geo. QUERRIE,— Dear Friend:—We, the members and friends of the Methodist Church and Sabbath School, Victoria Square, have learned with regret, that you are about to remove from our midst, and as you have for so many years taken a deep interest in the work of the Sabbath School, and been such a faithful and consistent worker we know your absence will be greatly missed.

Your urbanity and kindness of heart have won the affection of all, and we had hoped that the ties of friendship that bound us together would not so soon have been severed, and that we would have for some time at least been spared the painful duty of saying "Farewell."

As a neighbor you have been kind, courteous and obliging; as a friend, your friendship has been of that genuine kind that lives and lasts.

We could not therefore allow one who has labored so faithfully and long to leave without some mark of our gratitude and esteem.

We ask you therefore, in behalf of the Church and Sabbath School to accept of this purse, as a slight token of our regard for you, and also our regret at your departure.

In parting with you we desire that every blessing both spiritual and temporal may be enjoyed by you and your family, and amid all the various changes in your life we trust you may be prosperous and happy, and should any sorrow embitter your future life may you and Mrs.
Querrie be supported by the presence and consolation of Him who has been your Helper and Guide during the past.

And when you are settled in your new home may you occasionally look back on your sojourn in this neighborhood, with feelings of kindly remembrance, and not forget those, who, with all their shortcomings and inconsistencies, will still be your friends.

Signed in behalf of the Church and Sabbath School by

GEORGE GEE,
JOSEPH PEAKINS.

What did I tell you two years ago? I told you the electric light might some of these fine mornings be shining in your windows all along the line of Yonge St., well the Electric Railway is O. K. so is the Rock Spring Coal Oil in the city.
Don't waste shoe leather trying to find out the cheapest and the best; go to Dilworth's Drug Store next Nipissing Hotel,

A THREE CORNERED MATCH AT NEWTON BROOK.

The third match in the series of eight to be shot by the clubs of the O. H. R.
A. was shot by Scarborough, King City and Newton Brook, over the range of the latter, on Tuesday, Feb. 4th. The day was very unfavorable to good shooting, being rainy in the fore part and towards the last becoming so foggy as to completely obscure the target at 200 yards.

every lady having used them says positively and distinctly that the Sunset Dyes
