"Cash and One Price."

Dry Goods, Carpets, Shoes.

TORONTO, June 26, 1890.

It takes all sorts of people to make up a world and all sorts of merchandise to make up this store. Such absurd relations as dry goods and tea, books and carpets, shoes and house-keeping supplies—drawing the trade of the entire country by reason of sheer merit.

It's nothing more or less than a combination of stores, all under one roof and management, with facilities such as no one could afford of itself. It means a responsible backing, a proportionate reduction of expenses, more direct buying, comparatively small profits and the goodwill of one department helping to advertise others. Nineteenth century enterprise tends more and more to such business concentration.

Is it right? It ought to be, when the people endorse this store and its methods to the extent they do.

There's a great deal to know about carpets—so much that nobody knows it. All we can possibly hope to do is to know where and how to get the latest, newest and best; how to buy and when. We know how to sell.

We don't think there's a single weak spot in the organization. The getting together has been all right. Here or abroad, wherever the best was to be found, whether the make was big or little, we found it out. Here it is, and whatever your thought may have been—we have anticipated it.

To realize the full story you must see. The styles are beyond our patience to count.

Upholsteries into the bargain. Just take a peep at the second floor, and you'll know what we mean.

Will you do it?

A postal card is enough to bring all the facilities of the store to your home, just as much as though we were located in your town.

Think of a clerk—educated to know fashion changes, merchandise, qualities, styles and colors—being at your beck and call whenever you wish.

That's shopping by mail. Samples of any kind of mailable merchandise can be had for the asking.

N. B.—In writing be careful to address your letters plainly—190 Yonge Street, or, if here in person, have a care that you get into the right store. 190 is the number, and T. Eaton & Co. the name.

The largest and best appointed Dry Goods House in the Dominion. 2½ acres of selling space over 50 different departments.

JUNE 26th, 1890.

This week we'll see some excitement in the Parasol. A delightful time for those who dearly love to find a bargain. We've made some big reductions among the Parasols. We've too many of some kinds, and the prices are reduced accordingly; 50 dozen, all colours, were $1.50, a beautiful quality, fancy handles, now reduced to $1 each; another lot of fancy colours, price 75 c. At 75c., $1, $1.50, $2 and $2.25 you'll find here some very choice qualities in black with novelty handles. Something new to-day is a waggon load of seersuckers, pink, blue, brown, and other colours, made to sell at 10c. a yard. We came to the rescue of the manufacturer with cash and can sell them to you at 5c. a yard.

The Bargain Tables are crowded with both bargains and customers.

Temperanceville.

Last Saturday the relatives of Mr. Henry Stewart, formerly of this place, received a telegram that the latter had suffered a severe accident, and later word came that he was dead. I have not learned the nature of the accident, but lock-jaw was the immediate cause of death. He died on Saturday and was buried in Orillia on Monday, the 23rd inst. He leaves a wife and four small children. Many will be pained to hear of poor Harry's untimely end.

Notwithstanding the heavy floods which washed this part of the country, the crops are looking remarkably well in this section.

The people in this vicinity continue to be loyal subjects, and are this week engaged in working for the Queen.

Among the improvements in the immediate vicinity I might say that Mr. Wm. Wells has had a new roof on his barn, and our enterprising store-keeper has had his store and dwelling overhauled. Besides other conveniences he has built a bay window in front and just above the store, which greatly adds to the former good appearance of the place.

Mr. J. Burk appears to be doing a rushing trade this summer. Besides his regular work in blacksmithing, he is agent for the Patterson agricultural firm, and has already sold several binders and a large quantity of binding twine.

Mr. Nelson Robinson, late of Aurora, now occupies the corner house recently vacated by Mr. Charles Patterson and family. The latter have removed to Springhill in their new home which they have purchased.

Mr. Thomas Legge has sent his driver to Toronto to undergo a complete system of training.

Messrs. Wm. Lonsdale and Archie Mitchell still hold the belt as champion quoit pitchers of Temperanceville. I understand they are open to challenges from more pretentious places.

Our foot ball club, although often defeated, are not yet discouraged. They are possessed of lots of pluck, and have no notion of giving "their last kick."

A meeting in the Methodist church is announced for this evening, the object being to get up some kind of entertainment in connection with the Sabbath school.

Mr. John Fleury has been in Toronto for two weeks visiting friends.

Miss Maggie Young, of White Rose, Whitchurch, returned home yesterday, after spending a week or two with Mr. Chas. Norman.

The only loss I have to report is that of Mr. Peter McMurchie—his chin whisker

Maple

Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of the Presbyterian congregations of Maple and the seventh concession it was decided to give a call to the Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Smith's Falls. Rev. Mr. Campbell is a graduate of Queen's University, Kingston.

Rev. Mr. Lee, the junior Methodist minister on Maple circuit during the past year, will preach his farewell sermon next Sabbath, the conference having deecided to allow him to attend college during the next conference year. Mr. Lee is deservedly popular, and will take with him the good wishes of the many friends he has won while laboring on this circuit.

Building operations are active in Maple this season. Mr. James McNeil is building a fine brick mansion on his farm south of Maple. The brick-work on Mr. L. Richardson's new house has reached the second story. Mr. D. Johnston, who has the contract for the masonry of these and other buildings, is very busy and has a large number of men in his employ.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Watson Johnston, who was for some days seriously ill, has recovered and is again able to handle the plumb-line and trowel.

Garden Parties are now all the rage. We have two in this neighborhood in the near future. The first to-morrow (Friday) evening on Mr. C. White's grounds, in aid of St. Stephen's Church, and the next on Dominion Day, in Mr. R. Rumbie's grove, in aid of Maple Methodist Church.

Mr. R. M. Curtis, of Trinity Medical College, spent Sunday and Monday in Maple, visiting at Mr. Jacob Smith's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clubine, of Richmond Hill, spent Sunday in Maple, the guests of J. C. McQuarrie, Esq.

What did I tell you two years ago? I told you the electric light might some of these fine mornings be shining in your windows all along the line of Yonge St., well the Electric Railway is O. K. so is the Rock Spring Coal Oil in the city.

Don't waste shoe leather trying to find out the cheapest and the best; go to Dilworth's Drug Store next Nipissing Hotel, King St. Toronto.

Headford.

The Anniversary picnic in connection with Headford Sabbath School passed off very nicely. There was a very good attendance which may be judged from the fact that $72.50 was taken during the afternoon. The Green River Band was in attendance and played plenty of choice and appropriate picnic music. The Ice Cream and other seasonable delicacies found a ready sale, and two cases of strawberries was found to be not enough.

The field games were interesting and brought together a large number of the local sports. Headford and Richmond Hill competed for a foot-ball which was offered to the winning team. In the first half-time the home team gained one goal. When the teams changed ends Richmond Hill captured three goals and were awarded the ball.

A cricket match also took place between Buttonville and Victoria Square, and it is needless to say the latter were victorious and carried home with them the prize cricket-ball. Any country team in need of practice in fielding cannot do better than play with the Vics.

On Sunday, June 22nd Rev. G. N. Rutledge as previously announced preached at 10.30 a. m., and in the absence of Rev. J. Locke, who was called away to attend the funeral of his brother's wife, Rev. J. M. Simpson preached. Fair collections were taken up at each service.

I want every lady in the County of York to use the Sunset Dyes. I believe every lady having used them says positively and distinctly that the Sunset Dyes at five cents a package are superior to all others sold at ten cents, and I say just as certain that if the above statement isn't true I will give them for nothing. I want you to call and get a package to try it, and pay for it after using. Dilworth's Drug Store next to the Nipissing Hotel, Toronto.
