Dominion Day in Richmond Hill. The young ladies of the Methodist Church always give something new and original on the 1st of July. This year they are getting nearer the climax than ever. For a description of what the programme will be we cannot do better than reproduce the description as taken from their full sheet posters:— Dominion Day at Richmond Hill will be celebrated by the Young Ladies of the Methodist Church in a manner stupendously brilliant and gorgeously magnificent on the New Park Grounds. The festivities this year will take a form entirely distinct from anything ever presented to the patrons of this popular symposium of gaieties, and will consist of attractions, which, for unique originality, will run off with the bun. Proceeding to the enumeration of the specialties incidental to the occasion there will be a Rainbow Social, held in the spacious Agricultural Hall contiguous to the grounds. The building will be resplendently illuminated and artistically adorned with symbolic decorations in all the colors of the rainbow. The pleasures of the evening will be further enhanced by a Promenade Concert given by that admirable coterie of musicians the Richmond Hill Fire Brigade Band, who will over and anon discourse dulcet symphonies which will wake responsive echoes in the breasts of all present. Booths, tastefully embellished with evergreens, where toothsome delicacies and refreshing and invigorating beverages will be dispensed by charming representatives of the fair sex, will be erected at convenient points of the promenade. Admission to the grounds, Rainbow Social, Promenade Concert and Supper, including Strawberries and Cream: 25 cents adults; 15 cents children. For further particulars apply on the grounds from 5 o'clock until 11. The pecuniary emoluments derived from this superb aggregation of zygomatics will be applied to the elimination of the church debt. On Sunday, June 29th, farewell sermons will be preached in the Methodist church by Rev. G. N. Rutledge, at 10:30 a. m., and by Rev. J. M. Simpson, at 6:30 p. m. Collections in aid of church fund.

It would appear from town talk that Mr. Dilworth, the Toronto Druggist, is the only man that can furnish a suitable and rapid cure for the La Grippe or Influenza. Don't fail to call and see him when visiting the city and be convinced.

Annual Pic-Nic.

Saturday afternoon last was chosen as the time for the annual summer outing of the Presbyterian Sunday school, and Bond's Lake, as in former years, was selected as the most suitable place for an afternoon's enjoyment. The weather, though somewhat threatening during the early part of the day, was what might truly be called "pic-nic weather." As the hour of 1 o'clock—the time announced for starting—approached, the smiling faces of the children, and the no less pleased look of many of the older ones, as with basket in hand they wended their way towards the Presbyterian church, betokened to the casual observer that something more than ordinary was agitating the minds of the people of our quiet village. Four buses, three waggons and several private conveyances were scarcely sufficient to convey all to the lake. Shortly before two o'clock a start was made, and after a short and pleasant drive the lake was reached, where all at once proceeded to enjoy themselves in true pic-nic fashion. The boats of course were the main attraction and were kept in constant use until the hour for leaving. While some were boating others were seated in groups on the grass in social conclave, others were swinging, others were strolling by twos under the sombre shades of the evergreens, while others were to be found here and there around the lake with pole in hand eagerly watching for a massive bass or perch to be tempted by the beguiling fly. We do not know the number nor size of the spoil, but suffice it to say that the fishing was so good that two of the anglers could not be prevailed upon to come home with the others, but stayed to get more of the spoil. We have not since heard them relate their fish stories, but no doubt they will be forthcoming in true Scotch style. After several hours had been spent in the various amusements, the musical call of Mr. Bell was the means of gathering all to a shady place on the grass, where, all being seated, the good things provided by the ladies were passed around, until the inner cravings of all were satisfied, when all again hastened forth to further enjoy themselves. All returned to the village shortly after dark, somewhat tired, but well pleased with the afternoon's outing. NOTES—A collection, amounting to over $11, was taken up to defray current expenses. No accidents happened to mar the day's enjoyment, but some of the ladies say that the way one boat was seen rocking once was enough to give nervous prostration to either a doctor or a vet-erinary. Among the pic-nickers were observed residents from Toronto, Thornhill, Maple and Aurora. Professional men were well represented by the following:—Lawyers, doctors, Parsons, editors, and last, but not least (in numbers), pedagogues. A small wharf over by the woods would fill a much felt want to pic-nic parties in the habit of visiting the lake.
