

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Brillinger, of Urban, Michigan, is visiting at the Dominion House.

Mr. Alfred Wright returned from the North West on Friday. He speaks highly of that country.

Mr. W. C. Hiddell, of Weston, spent Saturday night and Sunday in the village, and called on many of his old friends.

Mr. Charles Desmond, of New York, and Miss Schofield, of Toronto, were the guests of Mrs. J. Palmer on Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Wright and Miss Morden, of Oakville, have been making a visit with Mrs. Watkins, a sister of the former, and aunt of the latter.

Mr. James Bain, Librarian of the Toronto Public Library, in company with Mr. J. R. Miller, of the firm of Miller & Duncan, barristers, paid Mr. Teffy Esq. a visit on Tuesday. Mr. Bain spent a good part of the day looking over Mr. Teffy's books, magazines, newspapers &c., and was highly pleased with his large and valuable collection.

Temperanceville.

And now that the threshing season is nearly over we see the jovial face of our waggon-maker here again. His shop has been closed for a month past, but now we may expect to hear the sound of hammer and saw once more.

Our school Board met last week and engaged Mr. A. Gillies, school teacher, for another year at a considerable advance of salary, which he certainly is deserving of.

Mr. Kent's lecture drew quite a large crowd to the hall on Tuesday night. Our young men pride themselves in being able to draw apart some plates Mr. Kent placed together and pumped the air out of them. He says that two span of horses cannot draw them apart, and yet six of our young men came prepared to do some heavy tug of war work, and drew the plates apart every time.

Should the weather continue fine for a few days, the potatoes and apples will be gathered, and the pumpkins harvested.

Mr. John Fleury has returned home again after a couple of weeks' visit in the city.
