Times being rather stirring, we again note a few events in connection with this neighborhood.

The crop prospects of the surrounding country seem to have improved, and farmers, although not anticipating a superabundance of farm and garden products, are somewhat more encouraged since our late rains, and hope to have a comparatively good yield to what was some time ago expected. It appeared at one time that we were well nigh having a famine visitation, for the showers, though passing on all sides of us, appeared to shun this locality, or, by the Divine Will these beneficent visitations seem to have been withheld for a season.

Our sturdy road boss, Mr. Robt. Hollingshead, has, on behalf of the officers of Her Majesty's civil administration, given official notice to the residents of his beat that they shall present themselves into his presence on the 29th of June, and each successive day thereafter, until he shall have liberated them from subserviency to his custodianship, to perform certain manual, boden duties. In performing these, the apprentices will be instructed in the art of locating, constructing and repairing the public high ways. We hope to see a large attendance, as all are welcome whether invited or not. Full instructions will be given without charge, as the tutor has decided to devote his time and experience to public interests during the session. This may appear in print too late to be of any consequence as an announcement, but it will at any rate serve to stimulate like benevolence in other districts. Encourage it!

On the evening of Sunday, 21st ult., Rev. Mr. Scott, of Toronto, delivered an interesting sermon in the Methodist Church.

On the following Monday evening, the Rev. Mr. Wright who, about ten years ago, labored on the Methodist circuit here, according to previous announcement should have given a lecture on the Mexican Dominions, which, for the good of his health, he had been visiting during the last three years. The lecturer appeared, but the audience being so small, he decided not to speak on the subject. The rev. gentleman is credited as being an excellent speaker, and those present would gladly have heard him. He was announced to address the Coleraine section the next evening.

The 23rd ult., witnessed a fire at the residence of Mr. John Watkins. The flames were quickly extinguished.

In the evening a meeting was held in connection with the Methodist Sabbath School, the object being an endeavor to make preparations for an anniversary festival. It was decided to have a strawberry festival and entertainment on the 7th of July. Posters will be issued shortly.

The garden party of Mt. Lebanon Sabbath School was held on the 24th ult. Extensive preparations had been made on Mr. Edwin Hambly's lawn, and everything placed in readiness for a large turnout. The day opened like the budding flower. Nature apparently was rejoicing over the "good time coming" when a multitude should enter upon the fascinating scene, and having feasted upon the pleasures of the breezy shade, should joyously seat themselves by tables heavily laden with the choicest, daintiest, most delicious and enticing viands that the people with her assistance were capable of producing for this anniversary celebration. Bright and early the buxom youth might have been seen wending their way toward "beauty's haunt," and later on the older people swarmed forth from their several abodes eager to participate in the enjoyments of the day. An immense crowd was soon on hand. Nobleton band furnished music during the afternoon and evening. After tea had been served a pleasant entertainment was given, in which the Revs. Messrs. McLaughlin and Edwards, and Mr. Hambly, S. S. superintendent; Mrs. McLaughlin, the Misses McLaughlin, McCutcheon and M. Agar assisted. Especially shall we notice Rev. Mr. McLaughlin's onslaught upon the old bachelors and maids. So strongly did he urge, by persuasion, that they should forsake celibacy, that we need not be surprised if we should have a wholesale desertion from the old established ranks of bachelorism and maidenhood. The rev. gentleman evidently has exceedingly great faith in the "twain shall be one flesh" system, and is, therefore, a hearty advocate of it. The Rev. Mr. Edwards favored his hearers with a good general address. Mr. Edwin Hambly, superintendent, spoke for some time, giving an account of the working of the school, which, though organized only about fifteen months ago, has grown to such immense proportions that those who formerly regarded the movement with suspicion, have been forced to acknowledge their misconception, and to exclaim, "Keep it going and we will liberally assist!" During the speech some remarkably lofty flights were made. The institution was ranked amongst the highest in the province, and otherwise eulogized. Mrs. and Miss McLaughlin acquitted themselves well. Miss L. McCutcheon assisted in vocal music. Miss Maria Agar treated the audience to a solo. Some very complimentary remarks were made about her attainments as a songster. After an enjoyable day the crowd dispersed, with the hearty thanks of the Sabbath School for assistance given them. The day was fine throughout, and the net proceeds, which will be applied towards defraying the expenses of the school, amounted to about $35.00. A social was held at Mr. Hambly's on Saturday evening.

We are glad to know that Mr. David Jardine, who was reported as injured in THE LIBERAL, is recovering nicely. He, with wife and daughter, started for their home in Goderich on Saturday.

It is sad to relate that on the 24th ult., Mr. Wm. Jardine, of King, from whom the horses ran away when his brother David was hurt a few days ago, again met with a very painful accident. It appears that he went to a neighbor to borrow a wagon, and that while returning home the team took fright and ran away, throwing him out and breaking his collar bone, besides leaving a severe gash on his forehead. He will have to keep quiet for some time.

A lecture with a view to organizing an Association of the Order of Patrons of Industry, is to be given in the Temperance Hall on the evening of June 30th.

Weston vs. Richmond Hill.

The championship lacrosse match in the park on Dominion Day between the Weston and Richmond Hill teams was well contested, and proved very interesting. The Weston men played well but were overmatched and finally defeated by 4 games to 0. The following are the names and positions of the players:—

WESTON.	RICHMOND HILL.
S. Hill	Goal.....G. Glover
J. Burke	Point.....W. E. Wiley
J. Blaney	Cove Point.....J. Glass
E. ElleryA. Wiley
T. Watson	Defence Field.....A. Powell
W. C. MitchellC. Lyons
J. Ailey	Centre.....C. Lyons
W. Owens	Home Field.....R. Glass
A. FrazierC. Wiley
A. Monkman	Outside Home.....A. E. Pugsley
A. ReidJ. Piper
L. E. Lemaire	Inside Home.....W. Powell
M. Homan	Field Captain.....W. D. Atkinson
W. C. Caldwell	Umpire.....H. A. Nicholls
Referee—R. Manning, of Newmarket.

The visitors were a well-built, good looking lot of young fellows, and were neatly dressed in white pants and blue shirts. In the matter of dress their costumes compared strangely with the thread bare, weather beaten suits of the Hill boys, several of the latter's garments having done signal service years ago when the young Canadians were at their zenith. On the whole probably the Weston players were faster runners, but their opponents eclipsed them in picking up the ball, sharp checking and particularly in what is known as pass play. There was only one foul allowed during the match, and there was very little wild throwing, which was evident from the fact that the ball was not once outside of the field. The Weston centre was an expert in making the draw, but the slight advantage gained in this way was generally counterbalanced by the rubber being returned in the opposite direction. There was scarcely a weak point in the Hill team, and the home players led by Arthur Pugsley—who seemed to lend inspiration to his comrades—were particularly strong. The first game lasted only 1/4 of a minute and was captured by J. Piper. In the second C. Wiley scored after 10 minutes' play. In the third the ball was put through by W. Powell, after 23 minutes' play, and Arthur Pugsley finished the match by sending the ball between the flags after it had been flying up and down for 5 minutes. The usual cheers were given and players and spectators left the field.

Aurora.

The funeral of the late John Ashton took place on Friday last.

On Monday the remains of the late Seth Ashton, uncle of the above mentioned John Ashton, were brought from West Toronto Junction where he had been living for the last four or five years, and had died on Saturday morning the 20th. Mr. Ashton was well known in Aurora and vicinity, having spent his life-time here previous to his removal to the Junction and having taken a prominent part in civic affairs. The funeral was conducted by the Masons, of which order deceased was a member.

Miss Libbie Dimsdale preached in the Methodist church last Sunday morning and evening, to large congregations. (Too late for last week.)
