Benefit Concert.

The concert on Friday night in aid of Mr. Riley, of Port Perry, proved what might be called a fizzle. When the hour arrived for openiug the programme the audience might well be said to be select, but unfortunately, for the person most interested, not by any means large. Besides, the performers failed of his new station at Sundridge this week to put in an appearance. Evidently there \ must have been some misunderstanding, or the connections would have been better. Next day some of the village boys wheeled Mr. Riley around in his little wagon, and in this way got a good sum of money. He had been advised to adopt this plan when he first came to the village, but thought the concert scheme was more genteel. The day has gone past when any person but a stranger would attempt to get up a concert in Richmond Hill with local talent. Not that the talent is not in the village, but the difficulty is in getting it trotted out,

Young People's Festival.

Every arrangement was made by the young people of the Methodist Church to have the 24th anniversary of the birth of our country pass by pleasantly. The Straw berry Festival and Lawn Party on the beautiful grounds of Mr. Crosby would have accomplished all they had anticipated had it not been for the heavy shower of rain which descended just as the first tables were nicely filled. As it was, there was an enjoyable time, but the surroundings were damp, and in consequence, the crowd was small compared to former years. The edibles were good, but much of the best was wet with the rain, and had to be thrown away The Amphion Orchestra played some of their best pieces, and were highly complimented Teston Lodge, No. 199, I. Brethren from sister lodges were also present including a number from Richmond Hill. The sermon was preached by Rev. W. W. Bates, rector of the church. In a very eloquent discourse the rev. gentleman referred to the antiquity of masonary, and spoke of the noble principles on which the order was founded. He gave a clear description of that wonderful structure-King Solomon's Temple -- and reminded the members that brotherly kindness, charity and sympathy were Masonic truths that should ever be foremost in their minds. A collection was taken up at the close for a charitable pur-

Headford.

The Annual Pic-Nic in connection with the Headford Sabbath School, on Saturday, was one of the most successful ever held in that place. The refreshments were all that could be desired, and no more need be said of the supper than that it was up to the standard of former years. The football match was very interesting.
