An exchange thinks there is something wrong with the "eternal fitness of things," when a minister gets $5 and a fine supper for performing a marriage coremony which takes five minutes while the editor who takes two hours to set up the list of presents only gets a piece of cake. Here is a striking necessity for reform.

The new school law provides that High School pupils shall pay their fees in advance. Burglars at Markham.

Burglars paid a visit to Markham Village on Tuesday night of last week. They broke into the railway station, the post office and some private places, but only succeeded in gatting a few tools and 25 cents in eash. It is sometimes said that although it is inconvenient to be poor it is no disgrace. In the above case it was just as well not to have been rich.

Wedding at Eghnton.

A very pleasing event took place on Tuesday of last week, when Miss Mary Miller. eldest daughter of Mr. J. R. Miller, of the firm of Miller & Duncan, Toronto, was united in marriage to Mr. C. H. Firth, of London, Out. The ceremony, which took place at Castlefield, Eglinton, the residence of the bride's father, was performed by the Rev. R. M. Hamilton, B. A., assisted by Rev. J. A. Turnbuil, A. M., LL. B., and was witnessed by a large number of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride was supported by Misses Wilkinson (Goderich), Smith and Netta Miller, sister of the bride; and the groom was assisted by Dr. Piper, Leamington, and Mesers. Firth, London, brother of the groom, and W. J. Miller, Chicago, brother of the bride. The presents were numerous and costly, and included a very handsome Bible and address from the Presbyterian Church, Eglinton, of which the bride was organist, and a diamond set and watch chain, the gift of the groom, who also presented the bridesmaids with handsome diamond pius. After the breakfast the happy couple left for Buffalo, Albany and New York City

Demonstration at Maple.

Fisticuffs.

A young man who lives in the suburbs of our town, who is old enough to know better, last Saturday imbibed a little too much "tangle leg." In his vivacity he entertained the villagers by giving a promenade dance exhibition, interspersed with sundry gymnastics not specified in books of etiquette. To vary the programme he undertook the citizens, to which said citizen strongly objected. When neither words of admonition nor threats of chastisement would avert the demolition of the premises, resort was had to muscle. A running fight ensued, the ex-Warden W. H. Pugsley presided at a | asperated guardian of the property, who is special meeting of the County Council held | capable of extra wide geographical strides, rapidly gained on the culprit, whose lococalled for the purpose of passing a hy-law, motive extremities were sadly impeded by the extra quantity of spirits in the "tender," and to the amusement of the spectators landed him in the ditch. A County Constable here appeared upon the scene, which did away with the necessity of reading the Riot Act. Unlike some ecclesiastical gentlemen, whose motious are somewhat slow, complying with the constable's suggestion our hero "moved on." In the course of his preachers. Mr. Leaf supplied for Rev. J. C. Beards, but must not be less than those of ises of one of our handsome villas and tumbled into a hammock. When the proprietress returned he was discovered with his legs forty-five degrees skyward, studying astronomy and making geometrical calculations of the distance of the sun from our planet during this heated term. His head was in juxtaposition with the earth's surface as if he hoped that by breaking through its crust and burrowing down into its geological depths to find its centre where he could sit in the shade and cool his fevered brow. After so many uncermonious interruptions to his investigations the unfortunate young man, with sad reflections on "man's inhumanity to man," "headed" for home, minus his shirt and collar.
