HAVE YOU BEEN AT MORPHY'S

I met a youth on our townline, With Watch and Chain he looked so fine; Says I my boy, you cut a shine! And must have been at MORPHY'S.

Yes, that's the house, well-known by all, For handsome things, both large and small; Who next in town give them a call— Fair dealing is at MORPHY'S.

Fit these good Watches you will find— In Gold and Silver, all "Stem Wind," In kind of every kind— Both good and cheap at MORPHY'S.

Gold Watches, Pins and Diamond Rings, And lots of other lovely things, With costly Jewels fit for Kings— Fine Gold Sets are at MORPHY'S.

Young men about to throw the loop, Or maidens fair they'd like to "scoop," Select at once the "engagement hoop"— Real gems you'll find at MORPHY'S.

So when "The Lily" you have caught, And lovely presents are all bought; Then comes "The Ring to tie the knot"— Fine Gold you'll find at MORPHY'S.

The next in order is a "Trip"— In railroad car or fine steamship, Then find your Watch, don't let it slip— Gold Guard Chains are at MORPHY'S.

Then comes the time of "settling down," The old folks slyly come to town— "I want a watch" have a good look round— For needful things at MORPHY'S.

They choose a Clock, that's always right, And strikes the hours both day and night, And raises all at morning light— Real beauties find at MORPHY'S.

The well-worn purse is soon cut loose, To purchase silverware for use, And silver knives to carve the goose— Good Spoons and Forks at MORPHY'S.

A word to persons growing old, Get Fabrics Spex and some in Gold, The essential for a will never hold— When night's renewed at MORPHY'S.

So now my song is at an end, I don't doubt your word, but come or send; Our wares are good, you can depend— You'll be well used at MORPHY'S.

P. S.—Gold Watches from $15; Silver, $5. Clocks, $1.50. Pebble Spex, $1.50 up.

GREATEST .: PROPOSITION

EVER OFFERED.

THE RICHMOND HILL "LIBERAL"

—AND—

THE ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA

REVISED AND AMENDED

A WORD TO MINISTERS.

Our ministers find it necessary to purchase many books, but only few of them feel that they can afford to pay from $1.50 to $200 for an expensive Encyclopædia. This is a progressive age. THE LIBERAL offers the "Encyclopædia Britannica, Revised and Amended," which is acknowledged to be the very best work ever published, in connection with a year's subscription to the paper, for the small sum of 50 cents per week for one year. This great work is recommended by the leading clergymen in the Dominion. You cannot afford to do without it. Call at our office and see it, or write us and we will send you a descriptive circular.

A WORD TO LAWYERS.

Now is the opportunity to make the valuable edition to your library that you have long been contemplating. The Encyclopædia Britannica, Revised and Amended, is a necessity to every lawyer. Questions are coming up every day which make an Encyclopædia indispensable to you. Fifty cents per week for one year will purchase this mammoth publication and get you a yearly subscription to one of the best newspapers published in the Dominion, in the bargain.

A WORD TO MEDICAL MEN.

Doctor, you may have your shelves filled with medical books, but your library is incomplete without the Encyclopædia Britannica, Revised and Amended. Do not think because you have got along so far without an Encyclopædia that you can continue to do so, and can borrow from your neighbor, or put off getting the information that you require until some future day. As you know, this great publication treats of every conceivable subject, and you should lose no time in getting possession of it. Fifty cents a week for one year will make you the owner of the work and give you a first-class newspaper for a year besides.

A WORD TO TEACHERS.

Ten years ago not one teacher in five hundred had an Encyclopædia. To-day there is hardly one in five hundred, but that either owns an Encyclopædia or has access to one. Free Libraries and Mechanics' Institutes have accomplished great things for the teachers and others in this Dominion of ours, but the time has now come when teachers require books for every day use. THE LIBERAL offers teachers a chance to get a library of their own in one great publication, viz.: "The Encyclopædia Britannica, Revised and Amended." The information contained in this colossal work represents the careful labor of over 1,000 of the ablest writers of the nineteenth century, and is complete up to 1891. Fifty cents per week for one year makes you the happy possessor of this vast storehouse of knowledge.

This great proposition will not last always and you should take advantage of it at once. The books can be seen at THE LIBERAL Office.
