Narrow Escape. On Thursday afternoon last when Mr. Espey's barn was on fire, the sparks and cinders were carried to a long distance. Some of them ignited in Mr. George Legge's barn-yard, and were only discovered in time to save his buildings. The distance is over a quarter of a mile. "When your neighbor's house is on fire look out for your own," is a saying worth keeping in remembrance.

Open Air Sermon.

A currier from Elgin Mills made the welkin ring on Sunday night immediately at the close of the service in the Methodist Church by expounding scripture in front of Councillor Savage's store. A large audience listened attentively to what he had to say. Some of his hearers pronounced him a "Plymouth Rock."

Came a Long Way.

A valuable horse belonging to Mr. R. J. Hill, of Thornhill, passed through the village on Saturday on his way to Thornhill, where he was left in the hands of Mr. F. J. Gallanough, V. S. The horse had been troubled with Poll Evil, and had been under treatment for about three months, without good results. The horse is already much improved, and Mr. Gallanough feels confident he can effect a speedy cure.

A certain bishop was taken to task for being egotistical beyond what was consistent with the humility of his profession. "It's not egotism brethren," he cried, "it's the consciousness of superiority." Same here. We brag of our stock and prices but it's not egotism. It's conscious superiority. Atkinson & Switzer.

Barn Burnt.

Mr. Jos. Espey's barn, containing the season's crop, was burned Thursday afternoon. The Campbell Bros., of Bond's Lake, also lost their thresher at the same fire. A spark from the engine ignited in a pea stack close to the barn doors, and was not noticed in time to extinguish the flames. It spread so rapidly that the threshers were unable to remove their machine. The buildings belonged to Mrs. John Welsh, of this village. The contents were partly covered by insurance.

A Prize Filly.

Mr. William Miliken of Markham, is the owner of a filly. The reason is that his filly got first prize in the 2-year old heavy draft class, and also the silver medal for the best filly of any age in her class at the Industrial Exhibition. The winner was sired by Richmond, the property of John Palmer, of Richmond Hill, and is a handsome bay. She has three white feet and a stripe. "She is," remarked a well known horseman, "one of the best fillies I ever saw, and I have yet been unable to find a bad point in her."—World.

Undertaker's Diploma.

At the Annual Convention of the Ontario Undertakers' Association held in Toronto last week, five candidates were presented with diplomas, having passed the examination successfully. Among that number we were pleased to notice the name of Mr. W. A. Wright, of Richmond Hill. The examinations were on arterial and cavity embalming, anatomical signs and proofs of death, the laws of decomposition, and the treatment of subjects from various diseases. There were also questions on funeral etiquette, followed by a practical demonstration on a cadaver.

An Incendiary Act.

Sunday last a German Jew named Adam Singer burned the barns of his late employer, Mr. J. C. Snider, near Edgely, in the township of Vaughan. About $3,000 worth of property was destroyed including the season's crop and some valuable stock. It appears that the farm laborer had a dispute with Mr. Snider about wages, left the place, and then returned and fired the buildings which he lay in during Saturday night. Strange to say he then returned to the city and told the whole story of his fiendish act to detective Slemm, who immediately locked him up. Shortly afterwards Snider also arrived and laid the case before Slemm. The prisoner was taken before J. M. Wingfield, J. P., and committed for trial.

Another Pica.

Thomas Howarth, alias Brownlow, the young English swell who figured here a couple of weeks ago bargaining for farm property, has been again up in the police court for stealing $20 from Lancelot Strothers, of Pine Orchard, and a horse and rig from A. M. Bowman. After hearing the evidence in the horse stealing case the magistrate ordered a discharge. Strange to say that although the prisoner first pleaded guilty to having stolen the money, he now through his counsel, Mr. J. G. Holmes, says he is not guilty. It will now be in order for him to prove how the purse and money came into his pocket. It would seem that he felt certain he took the wallet until his lawyer told him he must have mistaken.

Honest Billy.

Honest Billy, owned by Palmer and Proctor, is proving himself to be a great trotter. At Port Huron on Wednesday he won the 2:40 race, trotting a heat in 2:27 1/2.

Two-Furrow Sulky Plow.

Messrs. Savage & Nicholls, agricultural agents, had a trial of a two-furrow sulky plow manufactured by the well-known firm of J. Fleury's Sons, Aurora, on the farm of Mr. Robert Smith, just north of the village, last Wednesday afternoon when quite a number of interested farmers were present to view the operation. The operator, Mr. William Ross, struck out the rig with the plow and made very commendable work although the land was not in the best condition. This is the coming plow for all level and cleared farms, being operated by three horses and one man, doing the work of two teams and two men, thereby saving one horse and one man. Any further particulars will be gladly given on applying to Messrs. Savage & Nicholls.

Sudden Death.

Mr. Nelson Playter received word a few days ago that his youngest brother Arthur had died suddenly in Montana territory, where he had resided for several years. Just a year ago deceased paid a visit to his relatives in this place. His many friends will regret to learn of the sad news. We copy the following respecting his death from the Globe of Saturday:—"A. T. Playter, formerly of this city, died at Anaconda, Montana, on the 12th inst., after an illness of ten days. He had not been well for some time, but being a man of great energy, did not give up until nature completely gave way. At first the doctors did not have the least doubt but that they could bring him back to health, but he took a sudden change on Friday, the 11th, and grew rapidly worse. He lingered till Saturday afternoon when he passed calmly away, surrounded by a number of friends. A telegram was at once sent to his friends in Toronto. Word was sent back to have the body embalmed, placed in a metallic casket and interred there. Deceased graduated from the Ontario College of Pharmacy, in Toronto, when he was eighteen years of age. Mr. Playter was carrying on a large and successful drug business in Anaconda at the time of his death. He was a Mason and a member of the Mystic Shrine, and possessed the highest degree in the gift of the order to which he belonged. The body was placed in the Masonic Hall, and on Saturday evening crowds of the dead man's friends passed quietly through the hall to where the coffin lay and took a farewell look at the remains. He leaves an aged mother, five brothers and two sisters to mourn his loss."
