Stealing from Churches.

When grave-yards are robbed it is some times claimed that the midnight act has 5.30 been committed in the interests of science. But when thieves break into sacred edifices and carry away the property no such excuse can be offered. A short time ago the Methodist church at Headford was entered, and the church dishes were taken away. Also some time between Wednesday and Saturday of last week another mean act was committed in the Concord Methodist church. Some party unknown took therefrom a large erm-chair, two other platform chairs and a table. The stolen articles had cost the church $25.

School Case Settled.

A case of considerable interest to teachers, trustees and ratepayers-McCuaig vs. Richmond Hill School Board-was heard at the court house here on Saturday last. The plaintiff, a former Principal in the High school sued for $91.19 which he claimed was owing him as salary for part of the summer holidays of 1888 As his engagement commenced on the 27th of August in that year the board contended they did not owe him for any holidays previous to that date. But previous to the trial the board, acting on the advice of their solicitor, Mr. A. G. F. Lawrence, paid into conrt $69.50 not for 1888, but for part of the summer vacation of 1890. His honor, Judge Morgan, had some difficulty in grasping the case, but after an explanation from Mr. Lawrence, who seemed to understand it thoroughly, he gave judgment for the amount paid into court, the plaintiff to pay costs. Mr. Clement acted for plaintiff.

Banquet to Warden Pugsley

On Friday evening last a complimentary banquet was tendered Mr. W. H. Pugsley, reeve of this village. It was held at the Clyde Hotel, and was given by the members of the County Council as a token of good will towards Mr. Pugsley as Warden of the county for the present year. It was a convivial and most happy affair and passed off The Band Boys met on Monday evening, with complete satisfaction to all concerned. The supper which consisted of oysters, fowl, meats, pastry and everything necessary to tempt the appetite, was served in Mr. Lemon's best style, and some seventy or eighty sat down to enjoy the meal. Mr. J. Richardson, reeve of Scarboro', sat at the head of one of the tables as chairman, and Mr. J.

D. Evans, reeve of Etobicoke, filled the vice-

The toast list was an interesting one, and lasted considerably after midnight. After "The Queen" was duly honored, "The Dominion Parliament and Local Legislature" was proposed. For the first Mr. Mulock, M. P. for North York, responded. He expressed his pleasure on being present, and complimented the Warden on the success which attended him and the County Council. Referring to Dominion matters he said that whilst he was not present to revise the Act of Confederation, he thought that changes were needed. In his opinion Canada was to much governed, and he failed to see the absolute necessity of the Governor General and Lieut. Governors. It would also be well if the power of the provinces were restricted with reference to the accumu lation of debt. Mr. G. B. Smith, M. P. P. for East York was the first to respond for the Ontario Legislature. He did not think it would be well to curtail the power of the provinces. The subsidy system should be abolished, as well as the second chambers in the provinces. He thought it rediculous that small provinces like P. E. I. should have a Senate. Dr. Gilmour, M. P. P. for West York complimented the Warden and the Council generally for the efficient way they did their business, and thought County Councils furnished a good training for higher positions. Toronto has a debt of eighteen million dollars, and the county should feel glad they are free from debt. Mr. Davis, North York's Local Member, was happy to renew former acquaintances. He expressed himself as being proud of the Municipal institutions. He spoke of the intelligence of Canadians, the great resources, and had great faith in the future of our country.

The chairman next proposed "Our Warden." He referred to the business ability and impartiality of Mr. Pugsley, and before sitting down presented him on behalf of his brethren in the Council, with a beautiful gold headed cane, suitably inscribed. Mr. Pugsley feelingly replied, thanking the members for the kindness they had shown towards him, and hoped he might always retain their confidence. As Warden he had endeavored to do his duty, and was pleased that his brethren had always upheld the dignity of the chair.

Many able speeches were made during the evening in response to toasts for various trades ond professions, but space will not permit a reference to them. A number of toasts were proposed and were drunk heartily, and responded to as follows :-The Learned Professions -- A. G. F. Lawrence, Ormiston, Cane, Woodcock, C. C. Robinson.

Education-T. F. Wallace. Agricultural Interests-Messrs, Wood, Mc-Donald, Lundy.

Manufactures-S. T. Humberstone, Mc-Cormack.

Transportation & Railway Communication -F. C. Cumberland. Mercantile Interests - P. G. Savage, Daley, Hagerman, Lloyd. Ex-Wardens-Mayor Jackson.

The Warden for 1892-A. Russell, S. T. Humberstone, A. Forster, Stevenson, Stokes, Scott, Woodcock, Hall.

The Ladies-Peterman, Hopkins, Jones. Slater. The Press-Representatives of The Empire

North York Reformer, THE LIBERAL. Host and Hostess -Mr. Woodcock. During the evening appropriate songs were sung by Mr. Elliott, of Scarboro', and were warmly applauded. After moving a vote of thanks to the chairman and vice-chairman a most pleasant gathering broke up.
