Vaughan's Strong Man.
A YOUNG FARMER WHO AMUSES HIMSELF BY BREAKING UP THE CELLS AT POLICE HEADQUARTERS.

Some thirty five of the good people of Vaughan were up before Magistrate Wingfield on Tuesday charged with smashing the toll-gates in that township.
The affair has created much excitement, and a host of witnesses have been called on both sides. Messrs. Fullerton and Lawrence appeared for the defendants, and High Constable Jones is Crown prosecutor. The case was adjourned for a week. One of the young farmers, named Wm. Hillyard, from Linton, got a little too much liquor into him, and he began giving sauce to one of the policemen in the corridor of the Court-house. Finally County Constable Burns came along and ran Hillyard into the station. Hillyard is by no means a large man. He is about five feet nine inches, and will turn the scales at about 165 or 175 pounds. But the police at headquarters say he is the strongest and best natured man they ever had in the place. He began to cut up and smash things generally in the cells with the utmost good nature. The station duty man went down stairs and found him performing on the bars that run along the ceiling of the cell. He confessed he was a little lonesome, and told the constable he had a good notion to "pull down the whole shooting match," meaning the cell, and go up stairs and keep the sergeant company for the rest of the night. The constable then handcuffed him to the "bull ring," but he quickly snapped a new pair of cuffs and pulled the ring out as if the whole affair were made of pasteboard, laughing merrily all the while. They left him alone then, as he appeared to be a "bad man." A short time later on a crash was heard down stairs, and the policeman went down to see what was the matter. When he got to the "cage" he found that two large inch iron bars had been twisted as if they had been made of lead, one of them torn out of its socket in the concrete floor, and an iron cross piece between the bars, about two inches wide and half an inch thick, broken into pieces. The prisoner was gone. The constable looked for him, and found him curled up under a bench in another part of the basement, laughing heartily at the joke he had played. The sergeant and the constable then came to the conclusion that Hillyard was too big a man to keep in the station, and the sergeant expressed it as his opinion that they had no lock-up in Canada strong enough to keep him. At a late hour the sergeant was sitting up watching the station with a revolver, for fear Hillyard would walk off with it.—Mail.

Maple
On Monday evening a company of friends to the number of thirty assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Thomas, it being the tenth anniversary of their wedding day. The evening was spent very pleasantly. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas took the surprise quite agreeably. The tin presents were numerous and some quite costly. Speechifying was indulged in. At a seasonable hour the company dispersed wishing the host and hostess many long years of prosperity and plenty.

Mr. John Craddock, of Main St. has secured a lucrative position, having received the appointment of under foreman in the mill yard.

Trader Cousins has several new and also second-hand cutters on hand.

Dr. Noble has been spending a few days in Chicago, visiting Dr. John Orr.
Mrs. B. Lloyd, of Toronto, and Mrs.
Dodd, of Peterborough, spent Thursday evening with Mrs. Saigeon.

Our grain buyer is paying the highest prices for barley and wheat.

Mr. Wm. Wood, of Maple, has returned from the North West. He speaks in glowing terms of that country. It is his intention to return in the spring, accompanied by his family.

Mr. Hitchcock, school teacher, who has his leg broken, is doing well. He is now able to appear on the street with the aid of a crutch.

Andrews, our up town merchant has opened his oyster restaurant.

Mr. Townsend, who sustained a fracture of the arm, is progressing favorably under the treatment of Dr. Sisley.

Temperanceville.
(Special to THE LIBERAL.) SIR,—During the last week there has been a change in the programme of the weather. Up till a week ago we were enjoying fine sun-shining weather, but for the last few days rain, snow and sleet have been on the programme.

Mr. Archie McKinnon, of Detroit, (Mich.) has been visiting at his brother's Mr. John McKinnon's of this place.

The Patrons of Industry have succeeded in organizing quite a large lodge at this place. The Farming and laboring classes have begun to see that something must be done and unmindful of "party strife" have struck a blow for—as they state—"their freedom." Charlie is almost won over.

Feathered birds are getting a solemn warning to prepare for Christmas-tide, judging from the number of raffles in our neighborhood.

Miss Fleury, of Toronto is spending a few days with her grandfather, Mr. John Fleury, of this place.

Rumor is that a lodge of Good Templars or a Mechanics' Institute is to be organized in this village. We wish the people success in their undertaking.

Mr. Burke, our blacksmith, still continues a rushing biz.

Mr. Lonsdale has again begun work in his carpenter shop, having, since the threshing season commenced, spent a very prosperous season, as engineer for Mr. Wm. Lloyd's "Cleaner." We are glad to see his jovial face once more.

(Too late for last week.)
My grocer says I will pay you five cents a pound more for your butter if you will promise to use only the Yorkshire Golden Butter Color.
