Why am I so happy? Because I do all my trading with Atkinson & Switzer the square merchants of Richmond Hill.

Thanksgiving Day falling on our regular publishing day THE LIBERAL will appear on Wednesday of next week.

Blankets! Blankets! Cold nights are here and colds in the head are all the rage. Blankets warm as mustard are what you need. Atkinson & Switzer have them—special value.

A special meeting will be held by the Village Council in the Council Chamber this (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock.

For Sale.
 Four Second Hand Stoves for sale—1 coal, 1 cook, and 2 parlor wood stoves. Apply to ATKINSON & SWITZER, Concrete House.

The great fire at Milwaukee on Friday night caused four deaths and rendered 3,000 people homeless. The loss is estimated at about $6,000,000.

At the Annual Convention of the Ontario W. C. T. U. held at Belleville last week Mrs. G. Wiley was re-elected Corresponding Secretary.

For want of a better place the engine-room was used as a lock-up on Monday, also on Tuesday. Each time it was occupied by non-residents, under the influence of liquor.

All who are favorable to the formation of a prohibition club in this municipality will kindly meet the organizer, Mr. W. G. Fee, in Temperance Hall next Saturday forenoon at 10 1/2 o'clock.

Hallowe'en passed by quietly Monday night. A number of the "witches" were out, of course, but gates and other movables are not apt to change places so magically on wet nights.

Next Tuesday evening, Nov. 8th, commencing at 8 o'clock, Dr. W. J. Wilson will deliver a lecture in the Temperance Hall, Richmond Hill, on the Effects of Alcoholic Beverages on the Human System.

The Prodigals, of Toronto, will play a football match with the Victoria Square team on the grounds of the latter on Thursday next, Thanksgiving Day. Admission 10 cents. A warm contest is expected.

The plant and fixtures of the Reporter office, Toronto Junction, have been again sold, the purchaser being a Mr. Brocklebank, of Arthur. It would seem this office is destined to change hands frequently.

Dr. Wilson and Mr. Joseph Hall were elected by the members of the congregation of the Methodist church to represent them at the Quarterly Board to be held here next Monday at 2:30 o'clock p. m.

On Friday last in a sod field opposite to that in which the East York Plowmen were at work, a football match was played between teams from Richmond Hill and Headford. The former were victors by 2 goals to 0.

Suda gave his second entertainment on Tuesday evening, and was assisted by his sister, as piano accompanist and vocalist, Mr. Smedley on the guitar and mandolin, and Mr. McGee, as singer. The night was dark and wet and the audience was small.

The northern sky was quite illuminated on Friday night last, which showed that a fire of considerable capacity was in progress. It turned out to be nothing more serious than the burning of a pea stack on the farm of Mr. Wm. Wright, a mile and a half north of this village.

Mr. Thos. Rumble lost three geese out of a flock of nine one night last week. The mid-night prowlers picked the geese on the hill-side a short distance from the buildings. More might have been taken, but as Mr. Rumble's sons got up that morning about one o'clock, it is thought the thieves may have been startled and fled.

November 10th Thanksgiving.
 The Ontario Government has issued an order closing all public offices on Thursday, November 10th, which has been set apart by the Governor-General-in-Council as a day for public thanksgiving.

Oh, What a Cough.
 Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. 3-12-6m.

Presbyterian Church.
 Don't forget the Thanksgiving tea and entertainment in the lecture room of the Presbyterian church in this village on Thursday next, 10th inst. Tickets 25 cents; children under 12 years 15 cents. There will be a lecture in the church in the evening by Rev. J. C. Speer, subject, "Angels without Wings," but the 25 cents will admit to both. The rev. gentleman's popularity and his known ability as a lecturer will, we believe, be sufficient to draw a full house. For full particulars see hand bills.

When the kidneys are clogged, good health is an impossibility; but when working properly the reverse is the case. That dull back-ache is the kidney's cry for relief. If Dodd's Kidney Pills are used the result will be marvellous. We emphatically state that we have never known a case of kidney disease that a persistent use of Dodd's Kidney Pills will not cure.

Runaway.
 Mr. Geo. Leek, of Headford, hitched his horse on Monday evening to drive to this village. Before he had got half the distance the horse ran away, upset the buggy, threw out the driver, and breaking the shafts from the rig, started back towards home. George was considerably shaken up, his clothes were muddy, his pantaloons torn, but a couple of friends coming along shortly after the mishap, he came with them to the village and attended to his business. We have not heard where he found his fractious steed. The horse appears to be an adept at the business as she ran away a couple of weeks ago with another driver.

The reason why Myrtle Navy tobacco has taken so strong a hold upon the smoking community is because it is the genuine article. No man has a desire to smoke anything else than tobacco. Even opium is not smoked for the pleasure of smoking it but for its soporific effects. The desire for tobacco is, of course, best satisfied by getting the pure article, and when to this is added the finest quality the satisfaction is complete. These two things are combined in the Myrtle Navy.

It's a Daisy.
 The neatest prize we have seen this fall is a silver tilting pitcher and cup won at the East York Plowmen's Association match by Mr. Robt. G. McLean, of Thordcliffe Stock Farm, Todmorden. The prize was presented by Mr. B. Brillinger, proprietor of the Dominion House, and before it will be handed over to the successful plowman it will be beautifully engraved. The trophy is a credit both to the donor and the winner.

F. B. C. Concert.
 The football club, of Maple, purpose giving a grand concert in the Masonic Hall, Maple, on the evening of Wednesday, the 9th of November. Excellent talent has been secured including Mr. Jas. Fax, serio-comic; Mr. Herman Brown, solo Violinist; Mr. J. W. Crossley, comic singer; Mr. J. O'Brien, elocutionist. Miss McGraw, of Toronto, will act as piano accompanist, and Dr. Sisley will occupy the chair. Admission 25 cents; children 15 cents. Doors open at 7:30; concert at 8. Proceeds in aid of Expense Fund. It is to be hoped the boys will have a full house.

St. Stephen's Church.
 The annual Thanksgiving service in connection with St. Stephen's church, Vaughan, was held on Sunday last. In the evening at 7 o'clock Rev. Mr. Swallow, of Woodbridge, preached a good sermon to a large congregation, the church being crowded. The friends of this place always decorate the church neatly on such occasions, but this year they surpassed their previous efforts, and the building looked elegant. The service was full choral, and it is needless to say, was well rendered. A good collection was taken up on behalf of Home Missions.

Thanksgiving at Thornhill.
 A Tea and Entertainment under the auspices of the Willing Workers' society, will be held in the Methodist church, Thornhill, on the evening of Thursday, November 10th (Thanksgiving Day). Rev. G. K. Adams, of Newton Brook, will deliver an address which will be both profitable and interesting to all. Subject—"Character Building." Miss May Wadsworth, elocutionist, Toronto, will also take part in the programme, and there will be vocal selections by Miss Conter, of Toronto, Rev. H. J. Miller, of Victoria University, Mr. Harry Bates, and others. Tea served from 6 to 8. Tickets 25 and 15 cents.

Sudden Death.

Rev. James Gray, an old and respected minister of the Methodist church, and treasurer of the superannuation fund, died suddenly while seated at his desk in the Wesley Buildings, Toronto, on Saturday morning. Strange to say, one of our village ministers tells us that he met Rev. Mr. Gray, the day before he died, just stepping off an electric car in north Toronto, when the latter told him he was on his way to Mount Pleasant cemetery to select a burial plot. To all appearances deceased was at that time in the best of health.

Epworth League.

A most enjoyable time was spent at the Epworth League last Friday evening. The entertainment given by the junior department was well received. The following is the programme:—Chorus by the girls, Out in the Life Boat; song, The Maid of Dunee, Miss Beatrice Elliott; essay, Christopher Columbus, Miss Annie Sheppard; piccolo solo, Mr. Harry Sanderson; duet, The light far out at Sea, Miss Ethel Switzer and Miss Jennie Palmer; song, The Grape Vine Swing, Miss Annie Mason; essay, Queen Elizabeth, Mr. Walker Hall; song, The Songs my Mother used to Sing; song, Love comes like a Summer's Dream, Miss Jennie Wiley; address to the junior league, Rev. J. C. Speer; chorus, The Rusty Sickle, junior league. Miss Edith Switzer acted as accompanist. The meeting to-morrow (Friday) evening, Prayer meeting and Roll Call. All are welcome.

Burned.

A destructive fire took place on Lot 13, 4th concession of Vaughan, near Sherwood, on Monday morning about 1 o'clock. The tenant is Mr. Moses Boddy, and the buildings belonged to Mr. John Campbell. The barn and outbuildings were destroyed, and, horrible to relate, Mr. Boddy had burned five head of horses, several pigs, all his implements and grain, in fact everything of any value about the buildings. How the fire originated is a mystery, the only theory advanced being that chicken thieves may have been prowling around and fired the barn. The reason for the supposition is that the fire was first noticed at the hen house, and hens were found outside, which were supposed to have been shut up the night before. There was $1000 insurance on the buildings and $700 on contents. Mr. Boddy is a heavy loser, and no doubt the neighbors will render him all the assistance possible, as he is known as an honest, industrious man.

Thornhill.

Mr. J. Tait, M. L. A., Toronto, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church last Sunday morning. Next Sunday, Rev. Dr. Shaw will preach morning and evening.

The Willing Workers Society of the Methodist church are making extensive preparations for their annual social on Thanksgiving Day.

The members and adherents of the Presbyterian church spent a very pleasant evening at the "At Home" in this church Tuesday evening.

Mr. H. M. Brown awoke Monday to find himself almost a prey to asphyxia, caused by escaping coal gas. Fortunately he was able to call assistance, and by the aid of medical skill was saved from what might have been death by suffocation.

Mr. F. J. Gallanough, V. S., of this place, was called to Toronto as a veterinary expert to give his opinion on the cases of supposed glanders, which has been in the courts the last two weeks and which is now pending judgment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hill, of Thornton, spent Sunday with Mrs. J. Wilson.

Mrs. J. Bowman, of Toronto, was the guest of Mrs. A. Miller last week.

Miss Wadsworth, of Toronto, is visiting with Miss Ethel Reid, who has returned from Rochester.
