THE LIBERAL will be sent to any address in Canada or the United States from this date until January 1st, 1894, for $1.00.

Division Court.

Judge Morgan spent the greater part of Tuesday in hearing cases at the Division Court here. A majority of the cases should have been settled out of court by the parties directly concerned, but the lawyers reaped the benefit by the folly. It seems that a number of men have a mania for being dragged, or for dragging other people into court. A synopsis next week.

Have you tried Chittagong Blend of Teas, only, at the Fire Proof. Will D. Atkinson.

The Weekly Globe or the Weekly Mail will be sent from this date to the end of 1893 for $1. Subscribe now and get the balance of the year free. Subscriptions taken at THE LIBERAL office.

It's quality that shows what a stove is. It's quality that has made the Concrete the leading house of its kind on Yonge Street.

Court of Revision.

Court of Revision, for the revision of the village Voters' List, was held here on Tuesday, His Honor Judge Morgan, presiding, and M. Teffy, Esq., acting as clerk. There were ten appeals all of which were allowed. The following were placed on the list: David Boyle, Rev. W. W. Percival, Jas. Robinson, Wm. Robinson, Henry Robinson, Edward Murphy, Thomas McTeaf, John Sims, Jr., James McConaghy and Edward Braithwaite were struck off Part III not being residents of the riding.

Double and single Berlin Wool, Zephyr, Andalusian, Saxony, and fingering Wools all colors at the Fire Proof.

To be Locked Up.

Judge Morgan has been so long annoyed here by boys shouting and tramping on the steps leading from the court room that he said on Tuesday he would hereafter appoint a special constable, and would put any offender in the lock-up for twenty-four hours. The committee appointed at the last council meeting to erect a lock-up had better "get a move on," otherwise his honor will have a white elephant on his hands. It would nevertheless, be well for parents to look after their children.

November! Everything seems "down" this month, the month of falling leaves and frosted fields and the only thing that, by being "down" gives happiness is the list of prices at the Concrete.

School Board Meeting.

The School Board met on Monday afternoon. The Board of Trustees was present, viz: W. Gies (chairman), J. Switzer (secretary), W. H. Cluhine, W. Storey, R. Marsh, A. Newton, W. Trench, J. Boyle, F. McConaghy, D. Lynet, M. Naughton, Dr. Wilson. The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. There were seven applicants for the position of Head Master for the High school. After carefully reading the applications Mr. Robertson, of Omamee, was selected for the position. Mr. Robertson is a Toronto University graduate, and is well recommended by Inspectors Seath and Hodgson, and other educationalists of high standing. On motion of Mr. Marsh, seconded by Mr. Lynet, Dr. Wilson, the chairman and the secretary were appointed a committee to draft a testimonial for Mr. Monroe. An account of $38 from L. Innes & Sons was ordered to be paid and the meeting adjourned.

Day after day the evidence accumulates that the Myrtle Navy is the people's favorite tobacco. The demand keeps increasing, and from every new circle of consumers who have been induced to try it, the evidence is emphatic in its favor. Its genuine qualities always hold the friends they have once made. These qualities will be kept up to their full standard by the manufacturers of it. It is these qualities and the reasonableness of the price that they attribute their marked success. To the quality they will adhere at all cost, and also to the price if that be possible.

Headford.

Mr. James Casely recently lost a valuable heifer by choking. Mr. Joseph Ogden, M. A., is the guest of Mr. Barker this week. Some of our citizens have contracted the bridge tearing fever. Mr. Munro who has been a resident of this place for a long time is about to remove to Toronto. He and his family have been highly respected here and their loss will be felt in the Church where they always did their part willingly and well. In connection with the coming elections for municipal honors in Markham township the name of Mr. Simeon Ritter is mentioned as being a probable candidate for councillor. Extensive butchering is going on here and will likely be continued throughout the incoming week. Mr. J. J. Lanna will wield the hammer as auctioneer next Tuesday at a sale of valuable property belonging to Mr. W. Munro at Headford. The long winter evenings are nearly here again and some amusement should be provided and no doubt a meeting will be held shortly for organization in the building formerly known as the museum.—Com.

Mr. C. A. Strathly, practical organ and piano tuner, will be here in a few days and any orders may be left at the Fire Proof and will receive prompt attention; satisfaction guaranteed. Will D. Atkinson.

Hamilton, April 20th, 1892. I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurfy affliction of the scalp, they told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snow flakes. Hearing of Anti-Dandruff I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years; when half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair-dressing Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

J. S. GRAHAM, Mgr. Hamilton Branch K-n-p, Jones & Peck, manufacturers of cider, Toronto.

A Grand Success.

The first meeting for the season of the Mutual Improvement Society of the Presbyterian Church was held in the basement of Church on Friday evening last, the 18th inst., when the following programme was very successfully carried out: Address by the President; Reading by Miss Sadie Palmer; Chorus, "Don't be in too much of a hurry"; Reading by Miss E. Moodie; Recitation by Master Miles Langstaff; Duet by Misses Beila McConaghy and Della Palmer; Reading by Mrs. A. Newton; A Round; Reading by Miss Ritchie. The meeting was then closed by all uniting in singing the 341st hymn and with prayer. The above pieces were so well rendered that they were applauded and encored to the very echo, and a pleased audience went home well satisfied with the entertainment. The next meeting will be held on Friday evening of this week in the same place, when papers on Bible reading, what do we go to church for, and kindred subjects, with singing and music will be on the programme. All are welcome.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. 3-12-6m.

Miss Phelps.

Seldom have lecturers made a more favorable impression on audiences here than did Miss Phelps in the Methodist church on Sunday afternoon, and in the Temperance Hall last evening. Her subject on each occasion might be called Gospel Temperance, and she handled it gracefully and with ability. She understands the question thoroughly, and presents her convincing arguments in a manner different to most lecturers. Though not sensational she is an animated speaker, and does not indulge in invectives against those directly engaged in the liquor-traffic. In fact her charges were principally directed against the government rather than the saloon, and against the nation more than the government, because as she pointed out the Government is only the agent of the people and the hotel-keeper the agent of the Government. On Sunday she stated that although the curse of strong drink was as ancient as the sphinx, it was only in the year 1552, in the reign of Edward VI., that the first license law was enacted in England, which was the first in the world. She claimed that although much had been done in the way of legislation during the last 300 years, the license system had been a failure, and people were therefore asked for the complete overthrow of strong drink. The continuance of the traffic, said the lecturer, was not mainly because people liked to drink, but on account of the money which it produced as revenue. This phase of the question she thought was a delusion, and quoted Mr. W. E. Gladstone who said, "Give me a clean electorate and I shall provide for the finances." Miss Phelps referred to the Woman's Crusade organized in Ohio in 1873, and paid a high compliment to the W. C. T. U., which, she said, was the largest organization of women in the world, and which was doing an excellent work for fallen humanity. She deprecated the idea of the Church going into partnership with the saloon for the purpose of endeavoring to purify the latter, and showed the danger of the attempt by relating the familiar story of the lady who went for a ride on the tiger. Concluding last evening she confidently expressed her belief that total prohibition would yet be an accomplished fact, the only way to cure the evil. The lecturer had large audiences on both occasions, and all present listened attentively to her sound reasoning.

Victoria Square.

On Thanksgiving Day a number of the young men who resided in this neighborhood previous to their departure for other places where they are pursuing their different callings, had expressed their intention of returning home for a visit, and at the same time to form themselves into a football team and play a friendly game with the home team. Everything was arranged and all were looking forward to a first-class game, but the snow storm spoiled the sport. However, on Thursday morning, the 10th inst., several of "The Prodigals," as they termed themselves, arrived. Those who came were Mr. W. McDonald, of the Imperial Bank, St. Thomas; Mr. A. Smith, Hamilton; and Messrs. C. Forrester, N. Bell, K. Cherry, and Geo. Clifford, of Toronto. Others were to have been present but did not come. Of course the home team turned out, and as quite a number of people had come to see the match, teams were chosen and a game played. The Prodigals filled up their ranks with local men, and the game commenced. For the first half-time the Prodigals had the best of the game, but the Vics making a determined rush secured a goal. Play was resumed and in short order the Prodigals evened up by scoring a goal, and when time was called the score was still even. After the game was over you may be sure the Prodigals feasted on the fatted calf, which, of course, could not be left out on such an important occasion. We hope to see the Prodigals return some other time and give us an exhibition of their powers. The teams lined up as follows:

Miss Lillian M. Phelps, B. O., of St. Catharines, delivered a temperance address in the Temperance Hall on Saturday evening last. The hall was filled to near this distinguished lady. She spoke for over an hour and held her audience in close attention. Her address is original, fluent and logical. She has something to say and she knows how to say it. She does not make a statement she cannot prove and backs up by convincing arguments, and we feel convinced that the temperance sentiment will be aroused by the stirring address of Miss Phelps. In fact she stands pre-eminently ahead of most of our temperance orators in that there is no gainsaying her arguments, and we may safely predict that a star of no small magnitude has risen above the horizon of temperance work. Mr. J. C. Jenkins has engaged Miss Hoover, of Toronto, as dressmaker for his establishment. A lamp post has been placed at the corner, and now our village defies darkness. Miss Sarah Gee has returned home after visiting friends. Miss Jessie Brown, of Newmarket Model School, spent Thanksgiving Day under the paternal roof. Mr. Henry Jennings, of Thornton Cottage, is very ill.
