The Problem of Humanity.

When it comes to be considered that only about three men in a hundred accumulate competencies, and that in his old age a man may be absolutely destitute through no fault of his own, and, when he sees an investment that is exempt from contingencies arising from business depression, taxation, reverse, failures, sickness and death, prudence prompts him to protect himself and family, if he has one, by that means, which is Life Insurance only.

The Spirit of Frugality.

When there is more or less compulsion attached to it, it is a matter of no great difficulty for a man to save money if he has any to spare for that purpose, but when he is governed solely by the impulse of a flitting of frugality, he perhaps acts upon the resolution by placing a small sum in a savings bank. But the amount so deposited is seldom increased; he has no obligation to meet its banking his money; the bank officials do not run after him to increase his deposit, and, sooner or later, dollar by dollar, the whole amount is withdrawn, and used to satisfy some trifling whim.

Insure in the Manufacturers.

A policy in the Manufacturers creates a fund upon which a man is not required to pay taxes, which does not need to be insured against loss, which cannot be seized by creditors, and which is paid directly either to himself or to his beneficiaries without the delay and expense of administration.

A LIFE OR ENDOWMENT POLICY THE BEST INVESTMENT.
