An Orange Resolution.

A RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE ORANGE LODGES AT LEAMINGTON—THE POSITION OF MR. CLARKE WALLACE.

Leamington, Jan. 4th.—The following resolution signed by John F. Bell, W. M., and Caleb P. Simpson, secretary, is sent out by the Leamington Orange Lodge for publication:—

Moved by Bro. Walter Herman, seconded by Bro. Geo. Tighe, and unanimously resolved:—

(1) That this lodge views with strong disapprobation the acceptance by our Grand Master of a subordinate position, where he has neither vote nor voice, in the Dominion Cabinet under Sir John Thompson, a Roman Catholic and the champion of the Jesuits in Canada.

(2) That such a position is a degradation and unworthy of the talents, ability and position of our Grand Master, and the dignity he should maintain, and affords an opportunity to our enemies to scoff at our servile condition in the body politic.

(3) That we regard the sending of our Past Grand Master, Mackenzie Bowell, to the senate as a shift to get him out of the way of Quebec bigotry, his refuge from responsibility at the polls at future elections and his shewing the white feather on the field of battle.

(4) We ask our brethren throughout the Dominion to no longer support any man or any government that may be called by a mere party name, but only such men and such governments as are decidedly outspoken Protestant and British in their politics and policy.

(5) That we view with alarm section seven of the criminal law bill, 1892, of Sir John Thompson, which is only awaiting its third reading next Parliament, having already passed two readings unchallenged, and which will legalize the Jesuits in Canada, and allow appeals and references to the Pope at Rome, contrary to the laws of England.

(6) That we deprecate the false, cowardly and sickly sentimentalism that betrays our country into the hands of so-called "our Roman Catholic friends" (?) under the guise of liberality, and especially as such acts are treason, and their actors traitors to our Protestant and British civilization.

(7) That we regard God's Book, the Bible, as the only book out of which to best teach all noble, manly, patriotic and virtuous principles, and we demand that it be put into its proper place as a text book in all our schools, public, separate and private, without exception, and that no teacher be authorized to teach without first passing a proper examination of its contents.

That the above resolutions be sent to The Sentinel, Globe, Mail, Empire and Leamington Post, with a respectful request for insertion.

Victoria Square.

The friends of the Methodist Church in this place held their anniversary on Sunday and Monday, the 1st and 2nd of January. On Sunday sermons were preached by Rev. J. H. Oliver and Rev.
J. C. Speer, and the attendance was good although the weather was unfavorable.

Monday being a fine day and the sleighing fair, a large number of people partook of the sumptuous dinner served by the ladies, and did ample justice to the choice viands spread before them. After dinner an entertainment was held and a very interesting programme was rendered consisting of music by the Victoria Square orchestra, and speeches by Rev.
J. H. Oliver (chairman), and Rev. J. C.
Speer. The chairman in presenting the programme made some very happy remarks and pleased everybody by his pleasant witticisms. After a selection by the orchestra the chairman introduced the speaker of the evening, Rev. J. C.
Speer, to deliver his lecture on "Music; its Might and Mystery." In speaking of this lecture the chairman predicted that a rare treat was in store for the audience, and this prediction was in every point fulfilled. Rev. Mr. Speer then rose amidst the applause of the audience and for the first part of his lecture held the audience in rapt attention. Music was then given by the orchestra, after which Mr. Speer resumed his address and it is needless to say that he secured the attention of his audience, as it would be impossible not to give attention under the magnetism of this eloquent speaker, for his lecture is original and sparkles with wit and humor, as well as bringing out plain, practical points and giving a sketch of this wonderful art. At various stages of the lecture Mr. Speer illustrated his points by singing, to the delight of the audience, as he possesses a very fine voice. After the lecture the orchestra gave a selection which was encored. A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Speer, who replied in suitable language. Then the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem. On Tuesday evening a social was held to dispose of the eat-ables left and it was well attended. Financially this anniversary was a success, the proceeds being $146.

An interesting game of parlor croquet took place the other evening at Mr. W.
H. Lever's. It was agreed that the victorious players should be treated to an oyster supper by the defeated players.
The following are the names of the players:—Messrs. E. L. Forester and W. H.
Lever vs. Lambert Carver and John Forester. After quite an earnest contest the former two won the game. On the following evening a few of their friends and themselves gathered together and enjoyed the repast to the full.

We think the hen thieves who have been visiting this locality have stopped proceedings for the present. The reason we suppose is because there are scarcely any fowls to be had. But the thieves are now taking up another line of proceedings, as they visited the barn of Mr.
T. Klinck and helped themselves to several bushels of clover seed. He would like if the parties who took the seed would return the bag as he had borrowed it from one of his neighbors. These midnight prowlers ought to be run down, and it would be well for them not to come in range of J. C. J's bull dog.

Mr. R. J. Daley, ex-Reeve of Stouffville, visited Rising Star Lodge on Saturday night, and gave an address bearing on Temperance. W. Bro. Smith, of Gornley, has promised to address the Lodge on the evening of the 21st. We expect a full attendance.

Miss McCallum, of King, is visiting her cousin, Miss Kate Dixon.

Mr. J. C. Jenkins was taken suddenly ill on Sunday by an attack of inflammation, but is now recovering.

The Patrons' meeting, which should have taken place on the 3rd inst., was postponed until the 17th. Among others Mr. Rogers, of Guelph, will address the meeting.

Mr. John McDonald, who has been in our midst for about eight years, has removed to Toronto where he is engaged on the street railway. John will be missed, "Faithful John," as we might call him. Rising Star has lost one of its brightest stars, and in the church he was a willing worker and a liberal supporter.
We wish him success in the future as he had in the past.

Mr. John Hilts has had several teams engaged in drawing brick. He intends building a house here next summer.

Mr. Albert Harman has recovered from the injury that he received a short time ago in the city while endeavoring to stop a team of run away horses.

We are pleased to see Mr. Henry Jennings able to be out to church again after his severe illness.

Mr. S. M. Brown is suffering from a severe cold. He was not able to attend the choir services Sunday last.

Miss T. McDonald, of Richmond Hill, formerly of Gornley, spent Sunday last amongst her friends here.

Misses Ada Bond, Annie Harland and Maggie McCague were the guests of the Misses Gee on Sunday last.

Miss Alice Hopper was the guest of Miss M. Trudgeon on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. Reade, of Toronto, are spending a few days at the Commercial.

Mrs. E. Frisby, accompanied by her daughter, of Aurora, has been visiting her sisters and friends here.

Mr. W. Helukay was a guest at Mr.
Dixon's on Sunday.

Thornhill.

At his residence, Thornhill, Jan. 9th, 1893, at 9 25 p. m., there passed over to the majority, Edward Cogswell, aged 75 years, after a painful illness borne with great Christian fortitude. The deceased had been a resident of the aforesaid place for over fifty years, during which time he established a successful carriage and wagon business, and accumulated sufficient to retire in comfort in his old days.
As this is the third death in the same family within two years, Mrs. Cogswell has the deepest sympathy of the community. A daughter and son preceded him to that sphere from which no traveller returns. Funeral to Thornhill cemtery, Wednesday at 2 p. m.

On Sunday evening, at 9 30 p. m., there passed away Michael Kelly, jr., a young man of great promise in our midst, but a year ago that fell disease consumption claimed him an early victim. The family have the sincere sympathy of the entire community. "Mike," as he was famously called, drove the mail to and from the village to Toronto for many a year, and was a general favorite along the route. Funeral took place on Wednesday to R. C. cemetery.

A beautiful light is very much to be appreciated and more so when you can get the Coal Oil that will do it at less cost than you pay for an inferior article.
You can only get the Rock Spring Coal Oil at Dilworth's drug store, Toronto.

School Board Meeting

The monthly meeting of the School Board was held on Monday last.

Members present—W. H. Glass (chairman), W. T. Storey, F. McConaghy, D. Lynet, J. N. Boyle, A. Newton and the secretary, J. A. E. Switzer.

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

The secretary presented a report of the schools which he had prepared for the County Council. The financial part of the report showed that the receipts for the High School during the year 1892 had been $2,038.63; expenditure $1, 947.78, leaving a balance on hand of $90.89. For the Public School, receipts $1735.38; expenditure $1339.55, leaving a balance of hand of $395.83.

The following bills were presented, and on motion ordered to be paid:

M. Teffy, for advertising in the city papers for teachers $11.74; T. F. Mc-Mahon, for printing, advertising, and school supplies $24.34.

Mr. Robertson, Head Master of the High School was present and addressed the Board. He spoke of the well equipped library in connection with the school and recommended the Board to purchase a few more books of reference.

The Board requested him to make a list of the books needed and they would be procured by the committee of management.

The meeting then adjourned.

A good stable light is very much required and you can't get it with poor oil.
I say now, and don't you forget it, that Dilworth's Rock Spring Coal Oil will please you to a dot, both in price and quality. I sell it at the same price you pay others for bad oil. Dilworth, the drug man. You know where to find him.
