The south west quarter of lot 24, 3rd Con. Markbam, put up for sale by auction at The Palmer House on Saturday did not reach the reserve bid, the highest bid being $2,900. Mr. Jos. Gee, however, after the sale advanced another $50 and got the place. It contains 49 acres, and gives Mr. Gee a farm of 200 acres, almost in a square.

The day has gone by when you can make a customer believe that a dollar will buy two dollars' worth of goods; but Atkinson & Switzer demonstrate that a dollar at their store will buy as much of the best quality as can be purchased anywhere else in the county.

In the United States her successes have bee universal. No doubt the greater portion of that success is due, in a large measure, to her double attractions. As an elocutioist, she is established in the first rank, showing unusual ability in both light and heavy pieces. Her work in this line is faultless, and too much cannot be said of it. Expressing buman emotions or passions by statuesque posings, is one of the most at tractive and popular additions to public entertainment. Miss Hext, in her posings, has no equal, and in Greek costume, she expresses forty emotions in such a soulful and realistic manner as to hold an audience spell-bound."

Scotch "At Home."

A pleasant evening was spent in the School Room of the Methodist church on Friday evening last when a Scotch "At Home" was given by the members of the Epworth League. The room was neatly and appropriately draped with Scotch plaids, and behind the chairman was hung a beautiful steel engraving " Robert Burns and Highland Mary." Many mottoes and familiar quotations were also aisplayed such as "The We cap the following obituary notice from | Maple Leaf forever."
