THE BEST ECONOMY.

THE best economy is that which receives a full measure of value for expended dollars. Some dealers are constantly on the alert to catch buyers, irrespective of method or principle. It may be necessary for some firms to resort to "suspicious" movements to secure business during a temporary lull in trade. "Honesty, however, is the best policy in the end," at least it's been our experience during nearly HALF A CENTURY of business here. We allow no misrepresentation of goods by our salesmen—every garment warranted as represented.

Mantle Department.

While at all times the superiority of the assortment we show in this department, the advantages to be secured at this season of the year are fully manifest.
