The Delineator.

The February issue of The Delineator is called the "Mid-Winter Number," and its contents are as instructive and entertaining as usual. The fashions displayed are bandsome and becoming, and ladies who have not yet completed their winter wardrobes, cannot do better than follow the styles of this month. The wants of Misses, Girls and Little Folks are also fully considered. St Valentine is responsible for two novel diversions, one being a Valentine Tea, and the other A True-Love Card Party; while w third entertainment for the month is provided in A Poverty or Hard-Times Party. An article appropriare to the times is on Table and Bed Linen, and another equally seasonable is What to do for the Fair. In the Household Renovation series there is practical and valuable instruction on How to-Upholster, and the paper on Child Life treats of the Higher Education of Girls. Physical Culture continues the subject of Physical Expressions of the Emotious; in Around the Tea-Table various interesting matters are discussed, and the third contribution on Things that Should be Left Unsaid will be of general service. The articles on Dress Fabrics, Trimmings and Millinery are invaluable to Pressmakers and Milliners, and that on Fur Rugs and Robes gives the latest information about these luxuries. Lovers of Knitting, Crochetting, Tatting and Netting will find much that is new in the papers on there subjects. A subscription to The D-lineator is only One Dollar a year; Single Copies, 15 cents.
