"WHAT DOES IT MEAN?"

Under the above caption last week our old friend, The Weston Times, formerly The York Herald, wanted to know the reason why West York's member for the Commons was not invited to the Toronto Board of Trade banquet. The Times looks upon it as a direct snub and is bound as far as the circulation of that paper goes that everybody shall know it. We must confess our ignorance of the slight, but now that it has been pointed out we gallantly buckle on our armour and join our worthy cotem. in heralding the alleged wrong to Hon. Mr. Wallace's many admirers. We are not quite sure, however, that the Comptroller of Customs will appreciate to the full the kindness of the riding newspapers in rushing in to avenge the supposed insult. The Times puts the case in a nut-shell as follows:

"Comment has been heard in reference to Hon. Clarke Wallace being not invited to the Board of Trade Banquet at Toronto, and not very favorable to the officials of the Board either. The gentlemen claim that they could not invite the whole government. No, but they could have left off the Hon. Mr. Daly if that was to have been an excuse. It is but a poor excuse, seeing that the hon. gentleman was connected with trade and commerce inasmuch as he is Comptroller of Customs. It looks as if Mr. Wallace is too plebeian in the estimation of the gentlemen who ran the banquet. Mr. Wallace's home is less than twenty miles from the city—in fact he is as much a city member as any of the gentlemen who represent in the Commons the city proper, and truly equal to Mr. Maclean, M. P. for East York, who was at the spread. The whole constituency must but feel the slight put upon their member be they of what politics they may. Sir John Thompson was invited, but did not go. Sir John Thompson is the son of a schoolmaster and Mr. Wallace was at one time a schoolmaster. It appears to us that some people in their eagerness to toady after aristocracy, lower themselves and the self-respect of the democracy of the country to which they belong."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

In future the Tribune, of Toronto Junction, which for some time has had a daily edition, will be published only as a weekly. It will be enlarged to a forty-eight column paper. The Tribune is well edited and is deserving of success.

Mr. E. J. Davis has been again selected by the Reformers of North York to carry the banner for the next local election in that constituency. Mr. Davis is one of the most highly respected as well as one of the most useful members in the House.

An exchange says that it has been often stated that the High Schools and Collegiate Institutes of Ontario are maintained for the benefit of the professional class. By the last report of the Minister of Education the pupils attending these various institutions throughout Ontario were composed as follows:—7,104 or 42 per cent. of the whole were children of farmers; 4,866 or 22 per cent. were children of mechanics; 4,107 or 25 per cent. were children of merchants; and 1,829 or only 11 per cent. were children of professional men.

The many friends of Mr. G. B. Smith, who has represented this riding in the Local Legislature with every success during the past eight years, will be pleased to learn that he is recovering from the illness which reduced him to prostration nearly a year ago. Mr. Smith a few weeks ago went to New York and consulted with a specialist of that city relative to his disease, with the result that he is now rapidly gaining strength. May he continue to improve is the wish of his East York constituents.

The Ontario Legislature will be called together for the transaction of business on the 14th of February. For some weeks past several Conservative newspapers have been prophesying that a dissolution of the House would take place, but now that the announcement has been made these same papers headed by The World say that the reason for holding another session is to give the members a chance to draw their sessional allowance. Some people are hard to please.

At Newmarket on Saturday last Dr. Coulter, of Aurora, son of Mr. John Coulter, of this place, was nominated for the position of M.P.P. for North York, but after delivering a stirring address on provincial politics, retired in favor of the present member, Mr. E. J. Davis. The latter in referring to the graceful way in which the Dr. retired said: "Dr. Coulter might at some future time be a candidate and when he did accept that honor he was sure the Liberals of North York would rally round him and elect him their representative."

Thornhill.

Court Union, No. 7772. A. O. F., held a very successful concert in Victoria Hall last evening. The very excellent programme as given in THE LIBERAL last week was carried out almost to the letter.

The programme was opened by an instrumental solo on the piano by Miss Shippe, and that young lady also acted as accompanist for the other singers during the evening.

Miss Lillian Carman appeared on the programme twice and gave two very pretty songs to the satisfaction of the audience.

Miss Kate Wallace delighted the audience with her readings. Her selections were well adapted to her hearers, who appreciated her efforts and encored her every time she appeared. She has a pleasing manner and easily wins the approval of her listeners, especially of the young men.

Mr. A. D. Sturrock rendered several vocal solos in a masterly manner. Scidom is a better baritone singer heard. His well cultivated voice filled the hall with ease. In fact this rich, well trained voice might have been distinctly heard had the hall been twice the size. His pieces were all well selected, and although there was nothing in the line of comic, the audience showed their good taste by encoring him once or twice.

Of course the great drawing card was Mr. James Fax. He has stood before Thornhill audiences perhaps a score of times, but never was he more rapturously encored than he last night. The people laughed when they saw him ascend the steps, even before he opened his mouth, they were convulsed when he sang, and they screamed for his return when he left the platform. When told in song of his trip to Chicago exhibition, his experience at D. Ho-Hannah's, and his Ju Jah as a cure for all ailments, many of the spectators fairly roared with laughter.

The Foresters are to be congratulated upon the success of their entertainment. The hall was filled to the doors, and all seemed to enjoy themselves. The proceeds amounted to about $80.00.
