In the morning the Maple Leafs won from Aberdeen by 13 shots, and Richmond Hill defeated Scarborough in the afternoon by four shots. Richmond Hill stayed to play the Maple Leafs in the evening but as the electric light failed to perform its function the match did not come off and Richmond Hill was not able to be present yesterday, when the Maple Leafs defeated Markham by 22 shots.

Visiting Patterson Lodge.

A load of Freemasons from Richmond Lodge and a few from other lodges went to Thornhill on Thursday evening last and had the pleasure of witnessing a candidate passed to the Second Degree by the W. M.—Rev. W. W. Bates—and his efficient officers in Patterson Lodge. At the close of the meeting all the brethren were invited to the Queen's Hotel, where an excellent spread was awaiting them. Everything to tempt the appetite had been prepared by the popular proprietor, Bro. Bert. Scott, and it is needless to say was thoroughly enjoyed. W. Bro. Bates sat at the head of the table, and opposite him was the Senior Warden, Bro. Dr. Langstaff. The usual toasts and responses followed, interspersed with songs. The brethren separated after having spent a most enjoyable evening together, with many thanks for the hospitality of Patterson Lodge. R. W. Bro. Tait, D. G. M., was expected to pay the lodge an official visit on that evening, but by a misunderstanding he was not present.

A. O. F. Resolution.

To MRS. ANDREWS AND FAMILY:

We, the undersigned Committee, appointed by Court Richmond, No. 7046, A. O. F., to tender a letter of condolence, desire to express our sincere sympathy with you in your sad bereavement. Though a great sufferer for many years the cheerfulness and resignation to the Divine Will with which your late husband bore his sufferings were such as to evoke the admiration of the brethren who attended him during his long illness. The impatience and fretfulness which usually accompany the loss of health and strength in his case were signally absent. His faith triumphed over his infirmities, and in this respect was an example to us all. We are sensible that nothing we can say will be adequate to express our sorrow, or console you in the loss of a sincere Christian husband and father. We can only commend you to the care of Him who has promised to be a father to the fatherless and a husband to the widow. Sincerely trusting that God will enable you to bear this affliction from His Hand, and that you will regard it as coming from Him whose chastisement is for our good.

Believe us to be, yours sincerely,
 C. McLEAN,
 J. E. CLUBINE,
 T. F. McMAHON, } Com.

Browne and T. E. E. Shore, of Maple; T. Edwards, of Thornhill, and Wesley Dean, of Richmond Hill. Music by the Richmond Hill Methodist Choir. Tickets for Dinner and Entertainment, 30 cents; Children, 20 cents. Entertainment alone, 20 cents.

Anniversary and Oyster Supper.

The members and friends of the Methodist church, Teston, intend celebrating their Anniversary on Sunday, Jan. 28th, 1894, when Sermons will be preached at 10.30 a. m. and 6.30 p. m. On Tuesday, January 30th, a grand oyster supper will be served in the Temperance Hall, from 4 to 7 p. m. Ample provision will also be made to supply the wants of those who do not care to partake of the delicious bivalves. After tea a choice literary and musical programme will be rendered, consisting of Addresses, Recitations, Music and Singing, in which the following ladies and gentlemen will take part: Rev J A Dunlap, address, subject, 'Soldier Life'; Mrs J P Ash, music; Rev T E E Shore, recitation; Mrs B Jackson, solo; Rev R J D Simpson, recitation; W L Brown, solo; Miss Large, Recitation (selected); Jerry Piercy and T J Wilson, duet; J Misses Large, music; S Walker and T J Wilson, instrumental music; also selections by the Teston Choir. Chair taken at 8 o'clock by Rev. R. Large, Superintendent. Tickets, adults, 30 cents; Children, 15 cents. Concert alone, 15 cents.

Resolution of Condolence.

At the last meeting of Ivy Lodge, No. 114, A. O. U. W., the following resolution was passed by the brethren present and directed to be forwarded to Mrs. Andrews of this village:

"Whereas it has pleased the Great Master Workman of the universe to remove from our lodge and from the bosom of his family our late highly esteemed brother, Albert Andrews, therefore be it resolved that the brother Workmen here assembled deeply sympathise with his bereaved widow and family in their sincere affliction. We will remember his familiar face and cheerful voice, and although he has been taken from our midst to the Grand Lodge above, his memory can never be effaced from our minds. As a lodge we mourn with you in your bereavement, knowing however, that you mourn as those having a hope beyond the grave. We commend you to him who has promised to be a father to the fatherless and the widow's God, and trust that he may be a shield and a comfort to you in your deep affliction.

Signed on behalf of the Lodge,
 T. F. McMAHON, M. W. } Com.
 R. E. LAW, Recorder.

Masonic.

A large number of Masonic brethren accepted an invitation from Richmond Lodge to attend Divine Service, and accompanied them on Sunday evening to the Presbyterian church to listen to a special sermon by Rev. Dr. Percival, a prominent member of the craft. The brethren appeared in Masonic clothing and occupied the four front rows of seats in the church. The following members were in the procession:

From Richmond Lodge, No. 23—J Crosby, H A Nicholls, J E Clubine, P G Savage, Thos Newton, Geo Leek, T F McMahon, Wm Troneh, A Moodie, A L Skoels, T H Trench, R E Law, F McConaghy, H F Hopper, J W Elliott.
 From Rising Sun, No. 129—Jas Tinline, John W Lloyd, R J Evans, F T Daville, Peter Routledge, J G Tinline, H J Charles, W J Knowles, Wm Hastings, A G H Andrews, J Dickier, B Grennan.
 From Patterson, No. 265—W U Lutbock, G A Langstaff, John Ellston, J E Francis, James McDonald, Wm Eley, Andrew Miller, Wm Richards, D A Nelles, R S Thomson, Bert Scott, D B Birrell.
 From Vaughan, No. 54—Leeds Richardson, C H Kaffer, G W High, Jas Kirby, Josh Kaiser, J T Saigeon.
 From Blackwood, No. 311—A B Haystead, E W Lawrence.
 From Ionic, No. 28—Alf Aubin.

The church was crowded, and the sermon was eloquent and appropriate. Rev. Dr. Percival read the 12th chapter of Ecclesiastes, and took his text from Jude, 1st clause of 20th verse: "Building up yourselves on your most holy faith." The preacher effectively showed the desirability of building up our characters saying that anything else may be taken from us, but a good character cannot be if we are true to ourselves and to our God. Returning to the hall Votes of Thanks were tendered Dr. Percival for his able sermon to the craft; also to the visiting brethren for their kindness in joining the members of Richmond Lodge.

In spite of hard times and the scarcity of money, our sales have increased wonderfully since last May, when the present firm started. This we believe shows that the people of Richmond Hill know where they are best served, where they can find the largest and best stock, and where they can find the cheapest goods. Our ad. is too long this week, but we have a great many other lines of goods upon which we have made sweeping reductions, that we are unable to crowd in this issue.
