RICHMOND HILL, Thursday, Feb. 1, '94

LOCALS.

Mr. T. Herbert Lennox will be at Kelly's Hotel every Wednesday.

Fire Brigade Meeting on Monday evening. Miss Jennie Spalding, of Toronto, is making a visit with Mrs. G. Wiley and family.

Miss Pollock, of Woodstock, arrived last evening and is the guest of the Misses Trench.

Quarterly Services will be held in the Methodist church on Sunday next. Sermons will be preached at the usual time.

As announced last week a great Prohibition Convention will be held in Toronto on Tuesday of next week. Every church and society are requested to send delegates.

Don't miss the Recital next Thursday evening by Sara Lord Bailey, assisted by the Richmond Hill Orchestra. Non members, 25 cents; members, 15 cents; children, 15c.

A cordial invitation is given by the members and friends of the Methodist church, Headford, to attend the Social and Entertainment in their church to-morrow (Friday) evening.

Mr. W. H. Sibley, organizer for York Co., set up an enthusiastic association of the Patrons of Industry at Highland Creek 1st Friday evening. The president is Chas. A. Annis, Port Union; Secretary, Wm. Giosson, Highland Creek.

As Quarterly Meeting will be held in the Methodist Church next Sunday, the regular lessons in the Sabbath School will be changed to a Service of Song, to commence at 3 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

Mr. J. A. E. Switzer was appointed by the Richmond Hill Council of the R. T. of T. as their representative at the Temperance Convention to be held next Tuesday in the Pavilion, Toronto.

A fireman's belt was picked up early on Thursday morning last, and has been left at THE LIBERAL Office for identification. The supposition is that one of the hosemen lost the article in hurrying to the scene of the blazing chimney on the previous evening.

The Richmond Hill Branch Bible Society will hold the Annual Meeting on Wednesday evening, Feb. 7th, in the Methodist church school room. Services to begin at 8.00. Addresses will be given by Rev. J. G. Manly and resident ministers.

A Bradford correspondent to the Beeton World says that Mr. W. W. Ellis, of the Queen's hotel, will offer a silver cup for competition in Bradford between the curling clubs of Barris, Churchill, Bradford, Newmarket and Richmond Hill.

Rev. Father Morris entertained the choir and officials of St. John's Church very sumptuously at the Presbytery last Tuesday evening and a very enjoyable time is reported. Dean Egan, of Barris, and Father McMahon, of Thornhill, were also present.—Newmarket Era.

Parties having horses, cattle and other stock or articles to dispose of should communicate with the auctioneer, Mr. J. T. Seigson, of Maple, previous to the Monthly Sale to be held at the Richardson House, Maple, on Friday, at the 23rd of February.

Press Meeting.

The Annual Meeting of the Canadian Press Association will be held in the Board of Trade rooms, Toronto, on Thursday and Friday, the 8th and 9th of February. Papers have been specially prepared by members of the Association, as well as by others, full of interest to the craft generally.

First Meeting.

In accordance with the statute governing school boards in Towns and Villages the Annual Meeting of the School Board will be held here on Wednesday of next week, being the first Wednesday in February. At this meeting the election of Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer and other officers will take place.

Sherwood. On Wednesday, the 24th inst., the members of Zion Lutheran church, 4th Con. Vaughan, held their Annual Reception at the Lutheran Marise in honor of their popular pastor, Rev. J. A. Dunlop, Ph. D. A very fine dinner was given on the occasion, followed by an interesting programme of singing, music and speeches. There was a large number present, and all spent a pleasant evening together.

For the Medal.

The first draw for the Smith Medal resulted as follows: Pugsley v. Patnor, Nichols v. Atkinson, jr., M. Royle v. " jr., Morgan v. D. Boyle. The matches will probably be played on Friday and Saturday.

Fox Hunt.

The Fox Hunt on Thursday afternoon last proved quite an attractive affair. As one of the foxes broke its leg a day or two before the event, it was not allowed to start. The other was let loose at the park and made tolerably good time in getting outside the enclosure. Reynard was eventually run down and caught on the sideline in Markham by Mr. Alf Powell's grey-hound. The crowd was as large as is often seen at a horse race.

The Sluggers.

In one of the southern states on Thursday last Mitchell was completely "knocked out" in three rounds by his opponent, Jim Corbett, who now has the honor(?) of wearing the belt as the champion prize fighter of the world. With a large class of citizens the American who unmercifully thrashed the Englishman in a few minutes is looked upon as the hero of the day. American newspapers are proudly pointing out the fact that a few years ago he was looked upon as a common bank clerk.

Another Fire.

The fire alarm was again rung on Saturday afternoon about 1.30. The engine was speedily got out and started for the residence of Mr. W. R. Proctor where it was learned a fire had broken out in the wood-shed. A large volume of water had been thrown before the engine arrived. But it was difficult to smother the flames as they started at the bottom of a small back woodshed which was packed with dry kindling wood. A steady stream through the hose, however, soon worked its way to the source of the trouble, and the fire was extinguished. The fire originated from a pair of hot ashes which a neighbor's children had placed near the building. It was most fortunate that the fire broke out in the day-time.

Grand Oyster Supper.

A grand Oyster Supper will be given in connection with the Methodist S. S. Edgely, on Friday, February 9, 1894. After the supper the Rev. G. K. Adams, of Newton Brook, will give his amusing and instructive lecture on "Grip and Get." Also singing, readings and recitations, will be given by the following:—Messrs. Prentiss and McClure, and Miss M. Burkholder, of Woodbridge; Rev. T. E. E. Shore, Mrs. J. M. Peterman, and others. There will be other provisions provided for those who do not relish oysters. Oysters served in the school house from 5 to 7.30. Lecture and Concert in the church, commencing at 8 o'clock. Admission to supper, lecture and concert, adults 25 cents; children under 12, 15 cents. All are cordially invited.

Fire at Hagerman.

Wednesday night of last week, about 9 o'clock, many of our citizens noticed a blaze to the south east, but were at a loss to locate the fire. Next morning, however, it was learned that Mr. James Vanderburgh, of Hagerman, formerly of Vaughan, was burned out. The fire originated in an outbuilding, and was first observed by Mrs. Vanderburgh on her return from an evening service in the church. The store and dwelling house were burned to the ground as well as most of the outbuildings. The contents of the store and dwelling were insured in the Fire Insurance Association by Mr. B. Redditt, and the buildings were also insured. A quantity of hay and other feed as well as many articles in the stables were burned on which there was no insurance. The cause of the fire is not known.

February 8th.

PART II
7—Orchestra.
8—Prompt Obedience.
9—The Song of the Drum.
10—Orchestra.
11—Widow Gummissy's Courtship.
12—Experience of a Genius.

Testimonials.

The following are a few of the hundreds of testimonials relative to the ability and attractiveness of Sara Lord Bailey, who will give one of her grand Dramatic Recitals in the Masonic Hall next Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Mechanics' Institute:

Miss Sara Lord Bailey made a decided hit with her recitations. Miss Bailey's elocutionary efforts were a revelation, and she proved herself the ablest elocutionist who has visited Canada since the days of Mrs. Scott-Siddons.—Toronto News.

The auditorium was crowded last night to hear the concert given by the management. Seldom, if ever, has Miss Sara Lord Bailey's rendering of "Life for Life" been equalled in this city. This lady possesses a voice of great range, and is especially clear in dramatic recital.—Toronto Express.

Bond street Congregational church was crowded to the doors last night to hear Miss Sara Lord Bailey, the Boston elocutionist. Miss Bailey's elocutionary efforts were exceedingly fine. She has seldom, or ever, been excelled in Toronto. Bond street people were more than delighted, and showed it by their frequent encores.—Toronto Globe.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. W. R. Proctor desires, through THE LIBERAL, to thank the Fire Brigade and citizens generally who so promptly responded to the call of "Fire" on Saturday afternoon last, and worked so faithfully until the fire was extinguished.

Cut his Own Throat.

On Monday evening an unknown man well advanced in years called at a house in King City and got his supper. Afterwards he went to Hogan's Hotel and asked to remain all night. He was shown to his bed, but it was soon perceived that the man was wandering in his mind. He returned to the bar-room and became quite excited. His actions went to show that he had been drinking hard, but this he denied. Mr. Hogan remained up with him a good part of the night and then called another of the inmates. Towards morning he became worse and imagined that his enemies were pursuing him. He got out a razor and threatened to take the life of any one who dared to approach him. At last he made a terrible gash in his own throat, almost severing the jugular vein. The bar-tender, Mr. John Thompson, seeing that the man meant self destruction knocked him down with a chair, and succeeded in wresting the razor from him. Dr. Norman was called in and stitched the wounds in his throat after which he was committed by J. C. Stokes, Esq., and taken down on the morning train to the Toronto Jail in charge of Bailiff Crossley and Constable Egan. He gave his name Albert Standing and said he came from Milton.

A Dangerous Upset.

The Methodist church choir had an experience on Monday evening which they will not soon forget. As they were being driven to the Headford church, between 6 and 7 o'clock, to furnish the music at the Dinner, they got a severe shaking up. The driver who could not see for the blinding snow storm drove a little to one side when the wheels began to slip and the heavy van tipped over to the north side of the road throwing the occupants, about sixteen in number, into a ditch fully three feet below the level of the road. Most of those on the north side of the van were rendered unconscious for some time and are still suffering from the effects of the fall. Mrs. Switzer Miss May Storey and Miss Mary Trench were badly stunned, their heads coming in contact with the ground with tremendous force. Rev. G. Browne, of Maple, was rendered insensible with the heavy fall. Miss. H. H. Wiley suffered from a swollen wrist, and a sprain of the muscles of the neck, but her fall was not so severe as the four previously mentioned. Miss Lewis was also on the north side of the rig, but she escaped with a few bruises. Mr. J. H. Sanderson sprained his shoulder, and Mr. C. McLean got several bruises. The horses were both thrown down and nearly half an hour elapsed before they could be got on their feet again. Meanwhile, one after another of the injured party began to revive, and eventually walked on to the church about 3 quarters of a mile, and fulfilled their contract. Although several of the load were severely hurt, it is almost a miracle that some one was not killed. The accident happened about half a mile from the third concession line.

The Delineator.

The issue of the Delineator for March is the great "Spring Announcement Number," and its artistic display of New Styles and general attractiveness is superior to any former number of this popular magazine. In addition to the usual entertaining reading there are several new features noticed this month, one being an original and decidedly fascinating Scarf Drill that will be immensely popular. Another is the resumption of the articles on the Uses of Crepe and Tissue Papers, with illustrations; and the third is the first of a promised series of papers on Hygienic Living. The housekeeper is specially considered in Some Dainty Cookery, Hints to Housewives, and the article on Household Renovation which treats of the Repairing and Polishing of the Woodwork and Furniture; while the mother of marriageable daughters will find food for serious thought in the concluding chapter of Child Life. The second instalment of gesture in Elocution continues the subject in a masterly way. Novel and interesting forms for entertainments that are agreeable and inexpensive are discussed in A Social Club. Around the Tea-Table is as bright and chatty as usual, and Things That Ought Not to be said is practically and suggestively valuable. There is also Flower Culture for the month, and new and interesting designs in Knitting, Tatting, Netting, Crocheting, etc., etc. The March number is one of the best of the year with which to begin a subscription, which costs One Dollar; Single Copies, 15 cents. Address orders to The Delineator Publishing Co. of Toronto (Ltd.), 33 Richmond St. West, Toronto.

THE - CONCRETE - HOUSE STOCK-TAKING CLEAR :: UP

BARGAIN DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEB. 7th.

We commence taking stock next week and we make an especial effort to clear up as much of our Winter Stock as possible before we start. We do not take the cost of any article into consideration when we want them to move out, but we set the price down so low that the most inexperienced buyer will see at a glance that any thing we call a bargain is a bargain. You have only to look at the subjoined list and then at the goods to see that we know what we are talking about. Don't miss a line of it.

Table listing various goods and prices. Columns include item names (e.g., Dress Trimmings, Alma Caps, Household Goods, Fancy Goods) and prices (e.g., regular price, current price).

We cannot begin to crowd a quarter of what we would like to tell you about in this column, but come and see us next Wednesday, Feb. 7th.
