Stallions at Oak Ridges.

TRINITY, imported thorough-bred. - A beautiful dark chestnut, 6 years old, stands 16 1/2 hands with great substance, bone, muscle and style. Very gentle disposition. Trinity is by Forester out of British Beauty, tracing back to Alice Hawthorne, Stockwell, Touchstone, &c. His pedigree is one of the best that England can supply. He has himself been a great race horse, winning a great number of races, defeating some of the fastest horses in the States, Dr. Hasbrouk and Raceland among them. $15 to insure.

ROMANOFF, by Hodgen, dam by Old Ric, the sire of so many celebrated horses. A dark bay 3 years old, remarkable for quality and style, immense power for his size, bone and muscle to spare. Without having ever been trained he gives promise of great speed. $10 to insure.

These two really superior horses will stand for the season at their own stable, where none but the very best were ever allowed to enter, and will, I trust, prove themselves worthy successors of Milesian, Oriole, Erin Chief, Ric and Charon.
