The Newmarket Era of last week says: "A good many who take an interest in horseflesh were looking at Mr. H. G. St. George's 'Trinity' last Saturday, and expressed many complimentary remarks." What men in town weigh the most? Why Atkinson & Switzer, the grocers, of course; because they make the most sales.

Several of our citizens attended the Conservative meeting in Markham yesterday. Good speeches were made by Mr. W. F. McLean, M.P.; Mr. Marter, M.P.P.; Mr. Miller, Conservative nominee for South Ontario; Mr. Ryckman, and Mr. W. R. Meredith. The attendance was large. Money's Worth Grocery House would be an appropriate name for the firm of Atkinson & Switzer.

Corner Stone Laying. The Corner Stone of the new R.C. Church, Richmond Hill, will be laid by His Grace, Archbishop Walsh, on Sunday, June 17th, at 12 o'clock noon. The sermon will be preached by Rev. School Meeting. The School Board met on Monday afternoon. Present: Messrs. Newton, Switzer, Storey, Glass, McConaghy, Naughton, Lynet and Chibine. By resolution an account from L. Innes & Sons of $6.73 was ordered to be paid; also one day's teaching to Miss Miller, and 94 cents to Mr. Robertson for postage, &c. The Board appointed Mr. A. McLean as an examiner at the coming entrance examination, at 75 cents each candidate. A resolution was passed charging candidates at the entrance examination $1, which will, however, be deducted from their first quarter's fee, should they attend the High school here.

Death of Robert Price. Robert Price, an old and well-known ex-school teacher of this province, died at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. A. E. Pugsley, Richmond Avenue, Eglington, Saturday forenoon. Mr. Price's death was very sudden, and the result of an attack of apoplexy, which began at 4 o'clock in the morning. He died from its effects at 11.30. The late Mr. Price was school-master at Sutton and Queensville for over 20 years. He was born in Dublin, Ireland, and came to this country about 40 years ago. He is survived by three daughters, all of whom are married.—Empire.

Sherwood. A large number of people attended the reopening services of the Lutheran church on Sunday last. The church, though not finished, is a great improvement, and the ladies of the congregation are to be congratulated on their success in forwarding the work of beautifying. The services were conducted by Rev. J. A. Dunlap, Ph. D., pastor. On Sunday evening last Rev. C. A. Campbell, of Maple, occupied the pulpit and delivered an interesting address from Isaiah, lxxiii chapter, 6th verse... Milk-hauling has caused quite a sensation in our town, and some people wonder if this is the reason why the volunteers are not going out full fall... Mr. I. Koffer has repaired his verandah... Mr. H. Koffer has repainted his house and made improvements in general... Mr. Malcolm Watson spent Sunday in York.—Com.

East York Plowmen. The East York Plowmen's Association met at Brillinger's hotel on Tuesday, the 5th inst. President Miliken in the chair. Members present—Messrs. Quantz, Jackes, Stiver, Wehrick, Forester, Marsh, and T. Hood (secretary). The committee that interviewed the Agricultural and Arts Association reported that they had the promise of a grant of $150.00 from that association, which was received with pleasure by the members. Moved by Messrs. Quantz and Stiver that a committee consisting of Messrs. Reunie, Gormley, McDonald and T. Hood be instructed to select a field and report at next meeting of the Board. Any person having fields suitable for a match is kindly asked to communicate with the secretary, Miliken, P.O., by the 20th of July. Committees were appointed to solicit donations for the various districts in the riding. The Board adjourned to meet at the call of the President.

Band Serenade. The Teston Brass Band, under the able leadership of Mr. S. Walker, serenaded the genial proprietor of the Richardson House, Maple, on Tuesday evening of last week. After playing several selections in good style the members of the band were invited inside to share the hospitality of the host and hostess in the form of a sumptuous repast, after which a few speeches and songs were indulged in. The proprietor was not content with merely treating the boys in this way, but insisted on contributing handsomely to the funds of the band. The members were more than pleased with the hearty reception they received and promised to revisit the house in the near future. Those musicians, who have only been organized for a short time, are making good headway, and will soon rival many of the older bands.

Butter-Making. Under the auspices of the Farmer's Institute of West York, the Traveling Dairy from the Ontario Agricultural College will exhibit dairy utensils, make butter, test milk and deliver lectures on the management of milk and cream, the feeding of cows, churning, working and packing of butter, etc., at the following places: Kleinburg, Friday, June 8th, Temperance Hall. Woodbridge, Monday, June 11th, Orange Hall. Weston, Tuesday, June 12th, Eagle Hall. Islington, Wednesday, June 14th, Town Hall. Thornhill, Friday, June 15th, Victoria Hall. Richmond Hill, Monday, June 18th, Masonic Hall.

Each meeting will begin at 1.30 p.m. These meetings are free to all who may come, and all our cordially invited to attend. The ladies especially are urged to be present at these meetings. Go and see the Babcock Tester in operation and have its working explained to you. Make a special effort to go. You will get hints on Butter-making that will be worth very much to you. All are cordially invited.
