The Y. C. B. A. Meet.

Mr. W. S. Walton, of Scarborough Junction, entertained the York County Bee-Keepers' Association at his residence on the 5th of June. Mr. Walton is a successful bee-keeper, and although his apiary is not large, numbering less than sixty colonies, he manages his bees so as to get good returns for the labor expended upon them. When the visitors arrived they were conducted to the bee-yard, over which floated a fine Union Jack. Evidently our president is loyal to our beloved sovereign as he is to his own beautiful Carniolian queens which he exhibited with much pride and contagious enthusiasm. He informed us that he intends dealing in these gentle beauties during this season, and as a start in the business he presented some, which had just emerged from their cells, to the visitors, which were eagerly stowed away in their pockets for safe-keeping until they could be introduced to their new subjects. He uses and recommends a very large hive, perhaps the largest one in use on the continent, having a capacity of 2400 inches of comb surface. After a survey of the apiary, the association gathered in the parlor, where they held an informal conversation on the best methods to produce the best results in bee-keeping. This was interspersed with choice music given by Mrs. J. G. Siza. Among her selections were two original songs, "The Swarm that Deserted the Hive," and "My Bees," both of which were well received. Shortly after tea the visitors left for home, and as we passed through to the front gate we could not help but feel that the inscription there, "Sweet Home Bee-Farm," was very applicable to Mr. Walton's home. This will be the last meeting of the association until September, as the bee-keepers, amateur and professional, declare themselves ready for a good harvest if the clover will only "give down." The next meeting will be held at Mr. P. Beyer's, of which further notice will be given. Those wishing to become members of the association may do so by sending a fee of 50 cents to the Sec'y-Treas., L. Mapes, Headford, when a member's ticket will be sent them.—Con.

On Thursday last, five teams drove to the city of Toronto to meet and bring the members and delegates of the Northern Conference of the Pittsburg Synod out to the Lutheran parsonage. On arriving at Toronto they found that there were thirty-eight of them, among whom was the Rev. Alex. McLaughlin, who acted as pilot and guide of the company. Travelling some by wagons and some by rail, they all reached the parsonage, where they were welcomed by Rev. J. A. Dunlap. They then proceeded to a church, where a reception was given and a bountiful repast laid before them. After doing justice to the feast of good things, speeches were made and responses given. They then assembled to listen to the Rev. H. E. Wicand, Sec'y of the Conference, who gave an address to a large audience from Revelations 5th chap., 10th verse. On Sunday last the mass-meeting of children was largely attended, not only by children, but by older persons also. The church was literally jammed, almost every available space being occupied. The Carrville Methodist Sabbath school turned out in a body, and other schools were well represented.

In the evening the church was filled to overflowing, and about one hundred were unable to enter the building, so the Rev. Mr. Shaner, assisted by Rev. Mr. Wonders, held an open-air meeting on the grounds in front of the church, while the Rev. Mr. Bucher gave an address to the audience inside the church. Never before has the church been overflowed; everybody expressed himself well pleased with the meeting.

On Monday last the members and friends of the Lutheran Church, Vaughan, took the members and friends of the Northern Conference of Pittsburg Synod, about thirty in numbers, to an outing at Bond's Lake. Arriving at the lake about 11.30 a. m., a table was spread and all enjoyed themselves at the expense of the lunch-baskets. Boating was the order of the day, and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves. About 4 p. m. the party broke up, and the American people expressed themselves as well pleased with the kind manner in which they were treated by their Canadian friends. On the same evening after the organization of a C. E. Society, the members and delegates tendered a vote of thanks to those who took part in making the outing at Bond's Lake a success and for the kind and hospitable way that they were treated during their sojourn here.

On Tuesday the Conference left for Toronto, from thence to Niagara, where they will spend a day at the Falls.

On Monday evening last a number of people met, and with the help of Rev. J. B. Starks, organized a Christian Endeavor Society, with officers as follows: President, Mr. H. Kaffer; Vice-President, Mr. C. White; Recording Secretary, Mr. H. Fisher; Corresponding Secretary, Mr. Wm. Clark; Treasurer, Mr. T. Kaffer. The Society will hold its first meeting on Monday evening next, and on that evening those who wish to join may join as charter members.
