

Stallions at Oak Ridges.

TRINITY, imported thorough-bred.—A beautiful dark chestnut, 6 years old, stands 16 1/2 hands with great substance, bone, muscle and style. Very gentle disposition. Trinity is by Forester, out of British Beauty, tracing back to Alice Hawthorne, Stockwell, Touchstone, Ac. His pedigree is one of the best that England can supply. He has himself been a great racehorse, winning a great number of races, defeating some of the fastest horses in the States, Dr. Hasbrouk and Raceland—among them. $15 to insure. ROMANOFF, by Hodgen, dam by Old Rurie, the sire of so many celebrated horses. A dark bay, 3 years old, remarkable for quality and style, immense power for his size, bone and muscle to spare. Without having ever been trained he gives promise of great speed. $10 to insure.

These two really superior horses will stand for the season at their own stable, where none but the very best were ever allowed to enter, and will, I trust, prove themselves worthy successors of Milesian, Oriole, Erin Chief, Rurie and Charon.
