FOREWARNED.

Again has come the season of the year when boys are apt to get into trouble by paying visits to their neighbors' orchards without special invitations from the owners of the fruit. At present there lies in the Toronto General Hospital a young fellow, only 14 years of age, with a slug shot in his forehead and another in his neck, the contents of an old musket fired by a market gardener on Saturday last when a number of boys were raiding his trees. The man who fired the shot is now behind the bars, charged with shooting with intent to kill.

We again warn the parents in this village and section of country to keep a close watch on their boys. The habit of stealing fruit and robbing orchards is demoralizing to the rising generation, and is a great source of annoyance to those who often suffer an actual loss. We do not mean to say that men are justified in shooting intruders and trespassers, but the difficulty is that people are sometimes annoyed beyond the limits of their patience. Boys, beware! parents, beware!

The Empire a few days ago referred to an article in the Globe on the question of gerrymandering constituencies. The Empire says, "The suggestion comes after a general election and a gerrymander." Great Scott! The Empire must think its readers are fools if they can swallow such nonsense. There was no gerrymander before the general election, and no person but the editor of The Empire would have brass enough to make such an insinuation.

Carrville

It is quite a long time since we saw anything in THE LIBERAL from Carrville. Our correspondent being in the North West we miss him very much from our midst.

The topic of the day here is "Harvest Home," which the ladies have decided to hold on the 16th and 17th of September, and are preparing for a larger crowd than ever.

The crops are very fair in these parts; threshing machines are buzzing all around, so the money will soon have to change hands, and I hope it will be better times for some of us.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoover, of Altona, made a short visit here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cook and Mrs. M. Hoover are spending a week or ten days at Severn Bridge.

Mrs. W. Cook has gone to the Island (Haulan's Point) to get the refreshing breeze off the lake, not feeling first-class of late.

Mrs. Wiles, sr., of Toronto, has been spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. N. S. Reaman.

Mr. and Miss Baker, of Toronto, are visiting their uncle, Mr. Jas. Baker.

Master W. and Miss M. Leece, of Hillsdale, are visiting friends here.

Mr. Will Cherry and Mr. Charlie Cherry made a short visit at the post office on Saturday last. They are home for their vacation.

Mr. John Hamilton, of Toronto, has been stopping with his brother-in-law, Mr. A. S. Russell, for the purpose of consulting Dr. Sisley, of Maple, for some peculiar kind of rheumatism he has been troubled with for a long time, and has spent time and money in Toronto. We are glad to learn that Dr. Sisley is curing him up; he feels like a new man.

Miss C. Coombs met with what might have proved a serious accident. By some means she ran a needle through her hand. The needle broke off and there was fully an inch buried in the hand. She had it taken out by one in the village. It is well to have a doctor in every little town.

Joseph has his house nearly finished, and Mr. Mellish has been doing repairing on the roads in the line of bridges, &c.

Oh, it was so summery at church last Sunday evening!

Quite a number from Carrville attended the quarterly meeting at Maple last Sunday morning.

If you want to buy or sell a farm advertise in the Toronto Weekly Mail. That paper reaches 100,000 farmers homes every week, and your advertisement should meet the eye of some one who wants to purchase. Advertisements of this class are inserted in the Toronto Weekly Mail for five cents a word for each insertion. Twenty cents a word for five insertions. Address The Mail, Toronto, Canada.

Sherwood

The hum of the thresher is again heard, the harvest is progressing finely, and everything is moving briskly in this village.

On Saturday last an accident which might have proved fatal happened just north of this village. While riding on a milk wagon Master Roland White had the misfortune of falling off the rig. His foot caught in the iron on the side of the box and he was dragged about fifteen or twenty feet before the horses could be stopped, as they were going at a rapid rate. He escaped with a few bruises and a bad scaring. His injuries might have been worse had it not been for the heroic action of Mr. James G. Dunlap, who jumped from the wagon and rescued the boy from his perilous position while the wagon was yet going. Had the boy slipped and fell under the wheel his injuries might have been serious.

On Sunday last the remains of Miss Susan Keffler were interred in the St. Stephen's cemetery, 4th Con. Vaughan. The sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Heathcote, from the 17th and 18th verses of the cxviii Psalm, to a large concourse of people who gathered together to pay their last respects to the deceased. She was in her 58th year.

On Saturday afternoon next the Zion Lutheran S. S. intend holding a basket picnic in Mr. C. I. White's flats, lot 12, 4th Con. Vaughan.

Mrs. W. A. Clark and Miss Maggie Clark are visiting friends in Rainham.

Mr. G. W. C. Dunlap, manager print department at R. Simpson's, Toronto, is spending his vacation at the Lutheran parsonage.
