A Narrow Escape.

On Tuesday morning last, Thomas Savage, second son of Mr. John Savage, had a narrow escape from being gored by a bull. While putting the cows into their pasture a yearling bull, one of the herd, rushed at him, knocked him down and was in the act of goring him when their little dog came to the rescue and reizing the animal by the nose drove him away. However Tommy was severely bruised.

Sprained his Thumb.

As Mr. W. Trench was returning home a few evenings ago after delivering a number of carts and waggons, his team of horses became frightened on the hill above Oak Ridges, and thought seriously of running away. The vehicle in which he was riding was completely turned round by striking against a guard post on the side of the road, but he managed to stop his horses before further damage was done. Mr. Trench, however, is now going around with a badly sprained thumb.

Twenty Years of Success.

The Sentinel, of Toronto, has entered on its twentieth year of publication and is the oldest and largest purely Protestant paper published on this continent, being the official organ of the Loyal Orange Association of British America. During the past two years many important improvements have been made in the paper, which renders | to be levied for the purposes mentioned it invaluable to all who are interested in the cause of civil and religious liberty. The Sentinel is absolutely free from all political partizanship and unsparingly opposes both parties in their dealings with Rome. The price of the paper is only one dollar per year, sent weekly to any part of Canada or the United States.

Cut Prices at this time of year keep everybody guessing where to go and get their money's worth. A visit to Atkinson & Switzer will convince you that you have struck the right place.
