A QUIXOTIC EDITOR.

Perhaps it is not generally known that the editor of the Recorder, Deer Park, is an enthusiastic champion of the ladies. Last week's paper, however, should remove any doubt on that question. In reply to a correspondent who complains that some of the "so-called ladies" of Todmorden purchase bottled beer from pedlars, the editor buckles on his armour and rushes to the rescue of the accused by offering the following excuse:

"Unfortunately one effect of the intemperate Temperance agitation is to make it discreditable in this country for a woman, who may need a stimulant and not care to pay for a doctor's prescription, to be seen entering a licensed tavern; yet there may be no drug store or licensed shop convenient where she can, even in a dire case of emergency, purchase what she requires."

And again, in the same issue, our southern exponent of women's rights shows how one of the rate-payers of York, (who is the proud father of two daughters and a son, born on the 6th inst) is to make formal application to get the Queen's bounty for his good wife, even after the conundrum as to the mode of procedure, had been given up by the township Clerk. This is what the Recorder says about it:

"While Mr. Clarke is no mean authority on questions arising under the Municipal Act, he is evidently not well posted on the court etiquette observed in a case of the kind. If he will only forward to Sir Henry Ponsonby, at Windsor Castle, a certified extract from his register, accompanied by a copy of the Recorder, for her Majesty's information, we venture to predict with confidence that in due course he will receive, through the proper channel, three golden guineas from the good Queen for presentation to her loyal Canadian subject, Mrs. Fitkin."

Verily, the gallant captain, is a modern edition of Don Quixote, the celebrated Spanish hero.

Stop for tea to-night. I want you to taste the Kalala Ceylon Tea; it is the richest cup of Tea I ever tasted. You can only get it at Dilworth's Drug Store. You can buy it there at $1 a caddie, other stores charge you $1.50.

Toronto Notes.

Hon. W. Laurier and Sir John Thompson were in the city last week.

Bishop Turner dedicated the African Methodist Episcopal church on Edward street one week ago.

Mr. Claude F. Wright has been lecturing for the past week in Broadway Hall in the interests of the Theosophists of the city.

The exhibition is nearly here. All available space is taken up and everything will be ready for the opening on the 3rd of September.

At the Island, a few days ago G. F. Smith, 212 Queen street east, while over-heated, drank a glass of ice water and died from the result in five hours.

Mr. Jas. Ley, while driving into the city last week was struck by a C. P. R. engine; his horses were killed, his wagon destroyed and he was seriously injured.

R. W. Pittie was arraigned in the Police Court last Tuesday on a charge of arson. The alleged offence consisted of having set fire to his residence at 409 Dovercourt road on the 14th of May last.

No trace has been found of the body of Frank Woodley, the young man whose clothes were found on the crib work at the foot of Simcoe street, and who is supposed to have gone in bathing and been drowned.

Three months ago Mr. G. Clark, a butcher, was convicted at the general sessions of embezzling from his employer, Mr. Charles Steinhil, a King street butcher. He was sentenced to one year in the Central Prison. The unfortunate man died there on Sunday. His mother died shortly after he was convicted. A sad end.

Last Friday night burglars entered Mr. E. Caldwell's tailor shop and took therefrom a number of suits and a quantity of cloth to the value of about $200. No clue has yet been discovered. They got in by removing a pane of glass from the window.

The section men on the railroad have been kept busy lately putting out fires caused by sparks from passing engines. One day last week Mr. J. Watson had a hundred shocks of oats burned by one of these fires.

The senior department of our public school has not yet re-opened as Mr. E. Elliott, the teacher, is ill at his home in Toronto.

Mr. J. Hanna has commenced work at his new house and the walls will soon be completed.

Miss Lena Hodgins of Toronto is visiting at Mr. T. Dilworth's.

The Misses West of Toronto are spending their holidays at Mr. M. Robinson's.

Quite a number of young people from the village have started to attend the High School at Richmond Hill. Eight candidates from our school tried the recent entrance examination and all were successful.

Miss S. Jevins, of Allandale, who has been visiting friends here, returned home last week. Miss S. McDonald of this place went with her and intends remaining there a few weeks.

The third page of the Toronto Daily Mail is noted for "Wani" advertisements. If you want a situation, a mechanic, a business, machinery, lodging, if you have lost or found anything, or if you want to find out where anyone is, advertise in the Toronto Daily Mail, and read the advertisements on the third page of that paper. The charge is two cents a word each insertion, or ten cents a word for six insertions. Address The Mail, Toronto, Canada.
