South York Teachers.
 The next half-yearly meeting of the South York Teachers' Institute will be held in the town hall, Markham, on Thursday and Friday, October 11th and 12th. There will be three sessions on Thursday, commencing at 10 a. m., 2 and 8 p. m., at the latter of which Hon. G. W. Ross will deliver a lecture. On Friday there will be two sessions commencing at 9 a. m. and 1.30 p. m. respectively. The papers on the programme embrace one by Mr. Jas. Hand, principal of Stouffville Public School, on "Individuality," and a discussion on "Promotion and Entrance Examinations" led by Principal Jones, of Markham Public School. The public are cordially invited.

Married.
 On Monday morning last in the R. C. church of this place, Mr. Wm. Siney and Miss Mary O'Leary were united in the indissoluble bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McMahon, pastor of the congregation, at 9 a. m., after which was offered the holy sacrifice of the Mass. A number of the friends of the contracting parties witnessed the interesting ceremony, and offered their congratulations to the newly-married couple, wishing them a continuation of the joy and happiness that surrounded them. Leaving the church they proceeded to the Kelly House where, with a number of relatives and a few intimate friends, they partook of an excellent wedding breakfast, prepared by Mrs. Kelly, sister of the bride. The couple then started on a short tour previous to settling in their home a short distance north of this village.

School Meeting.

The School Board met on Monday, the 1st of October. Present—Messrs. Newton, McConaghy, Naughton, Trench, Glass, Storey, Switzer. Minutes read and adopted. The Principal of the Public School reported the average attendance of the three divisions as follows:—1st, 38 7-10; 2nd, 42 68-100; 3rd, 57 1-10. Mrs. Wiley asked leave of absence for one week commencing October 29th, agreeing to supply a substitute. On motion the request was granted. Mr. Clabine drew the attention of the Board to some crowding in one of the departments. The classification was left in his hands to use his best judgment.

Harvest Home.
 The annual harvest home festival of the Zion Evan. Lutheran church, 4th Con. Vaughan, will be held on Monday, October 8, 1894. A supper consisting of pressed chicken and other delicacies will be served from 4 to 7 p. m. An entertainment will be given after supper consisting of music by Mrs. (Dr.) Sisley, Maple; Miss Laura Eakin, Unionville; and Miss Maggie Burkholder, Woodbridge; also recitations by Miss Ina Fenwick, Toronto. Addresses by the following rev. gentlemen will be given:—J. F. Brauch, C. A. Campbell and A. Bedford. The chair will be occupied by J. K. McDonald, Esq., of Toronto. On Sunday, October 7th, Thanksgiving Sermons will be preached at 10.30 a. m. and 7 p. m. The church will be suitably decorated on the occasion. All are cordially invited. Admission to supper:—Adults, 25 cents; children, 15 cents.

Lacrosse on Saturday.
 The two lacrosse matches in the Park on Saturday last served to awaken remembrance of the national game as played here in days gone by. Both matches were well contested, and both resulted in victories for the home teams. Commencing at about 2 p. m. the juniors defeated a junior team from Newmarket by 4 games to 0. Then the Elms, a fast team from Toronto, faced our 1st twelve, and put up an excellent game. The sides were well matched, but the visitors were finally forced to succumb to the home team by 4 games to 3. The play on both sides was free from roughness, and the best of feeling was shown throughout—just the way the game should always be. In the first game, Mr. Wootten, of Newmarket, and Mr. W. E. Wiley acted as umpires, and Mr. Little, of Newmarket, was referee. For the senior match Messrs. Bastow and C. McLean were umpires, W. E. Wiley and F. Soules were field captains respectively for the home and visiting teams, and Mr. Hugh McConaghy refereed the match.

Next!
 Our popular tonsorial artist has had erected during the past week a very neat sign in front of his fashionable shaving parlor in the Lorne Block. The workmanship was executed in two of the largest shops in the town, the wood being turned by lathes in the factory of L. Innes & Sons, while the elegant painting was the labor of skilled hands in Trench's Steam Works. The pole bears the three characteristic colors—red, white and blue—symbolical of the proprietor's profession, as well as emblematical of his adherence of the British ensign. Now that he has everything arranged to suit the most fastidious, he is pleased to inform the public and private, friends and foes, of both sexes and all sizes, that he will be found six days of every week at his avocation of shaving beards, dressing heads, in the latest style, together with all the many mysteries belonging to his artistic employment. He will make no charges for anecdotes, and guarantees to confine himself as much to the truth as is compatible with a barber's profession; and as it is one of his legitimate prerogatives to take even the gentleman by the nose, he assures all whom it may concern, from the Premier of the Dominion down to the sawyer of wood, that he possesses the accomplishment of handling this peevish organ with the greatest delicacy and politeness. He powders heads, attends to the cultivation of whiskers, dyes moustaches, combs the hair and brushes the coats with all taste and accuracy. Don't fail to call on him as he is always found with water hot, scissors sharp and razors keen.

Wedding Bells.
 A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. J. E. Brown, Eglington, sister of the bride, last evening. The contracting parties were Mr. Jas. S. McConaghy, clerk in the Post Office Department, Toronto, son of our fellow townsman, Mr. Francis McConaghy, and well-known throughout the Dominion as goal-keeper of the Young Canadian lacrosse club, and afterwards of the Ottawa team; the bride being Miss Agnes E. Pugsley, youngest daughter of the late — Pugsley, and sister of Reese Pugsley, Mrs. L. Gaby, and Mrs. W. H. Glass, of this village. The ceremony was performed about 7.30 p. m., before about 40 of the relatives of both families, and a few very intimate friends, Rev. Mr. Bartley officiating. The bride was attended by Miss McConaghy, sister of the groom, and Misses Annie Glass and Gertie Brown, the bride's nieces. The groom was supported by Mr. Fred Pugsley, as best man, and by Messrs. Hugh McConaghy and Albert Glass. The bride and bridesmaids were very handsomely attired, the four making a pretty group. After the ceremony the happy company sat down to an excellent supper, the choicest edibles being served without stint by the hostess and her attendants who were most assiduous in their attention on each and all the guests. Afterwards a toast was proposed by Mr. Armstrong in honor of the bride and groom, which was ably and wittily responded to by Mr. Hugh McConaghy, brother of the groom. A look at the large number of presents showed that they had been selected with particularly good taste. After warmest congratulations the happy couple were driven to their neatly furnished and comfortable home in the city.
