Langstaff

Its rather hard work gleaning, but here goes for a sheaf or two, hardly enough to shock.

Mr. H. E. Carr has sold his farm, and intends moving to Stouffville this week, when he will engage in the butchering business. In view of this fact several young people met at his residence last Wednesday evening, when an enjoyable time was spent. Nations, Euchre and other games were indulged in, also a little dancing, till a rather early hour, when the party dispersed, well pleased and wishing "mine host" and family every success in the future.

While Mr. W. Shell and a friend were returning to Toronto on their wheels last Sunday evening the former had his tire punctured a short distance north of the toll gate. They called at Mr. R. Drury's, where they made the necessary repairs, but darkness coming on they were forced to remain and teft for the city early Monday morning. Many of our citizens are enquiring when our Debating Society is to be reerganized. Wake up boys, Markham is ready. Mr. Edgar Richardson, our energetic school teacher is leaving this section, having secured a better position in a school at Edmonton, N. W. T. Mr. E. A.James, who has been attending the Model School at Newmarket this term, returned home last Thursday. Rather cold weather for angling, but it is reported on good authority that an enterprising fisherman walks some three or four miles Sunday evenings expecting to be rewarded for his labor.
