Trust in Providence, and buy your provisions of Atkinson & Switzer is an excellent motto for the New Year.

Mr. C. P. Wiley, of Bracebridge, spent New Year's with his relatives here, and started for his northern home to-day. Charlie kindly assisted the band at the Firemen's concert on Tuesday evening.

It will be a colder day than Richmond Hill has ever seen when Atkinson & Switzer will be undersold.

Mrs. J. Harris happened with a severe accident yesterday, having fallen on the ice, and fractured the left arm near the wrist. The doctor reduced the fracture, but Mrs. Harris has since suffered considerable pain.

Go to the Concrete for the biggest 25 cts. worth of Rolled Oats, Flake Wheat, or Gold Dust Cornmeal.

On Christmas day the congregation of St. John's Church, Oak Ridges, presented Miss Libbie Legge, who has for some years past been the organist of the church, with a well filled purse and an address. The presentation was made by the Incumbent.

Begin the year right by trading with Atkinson & Switzer, and hold fast to that which is good.

The old council of Markham township were all re-elected by acclamation on Monday. The five are as follows: Reeve, Jonathan Slater; 1st Deputy Reeve, Walter Scott; 2nd Deputy Reeve, F. R. Reesor; 3rd Deputy Reeve, Jas. Lawrie; Councillor, Arthur Quantz.

A pretty woman always looks prettier in a stylish and becoming hat such as Atkinson & Switzer are renowned for.

One of the salesmen of the Wrought Iron Range Co. has been found guilty of trespassing on the premises of Mr. L. Strothers, Pine Orchard. There was a notice on the gate warning all peddlars and agents to keep away, but the notice was unheeded. We understand that lawyer Lennox, who defended the salesman, has given notice of appeal against the decision of the magistrates.

Lazarns' and Laurance's Spectacles, the best in the market, for sale at THE LIBERAL store. The prices correspond with the hard times.

The Christmas number issued last week by the Presbyterian Review, Toronto, claims in addition to its other merits, to be the largest religious paper ever published in Canada. It contains 40 pages, gotten up in extra good paper, with excellent press work and well printed illustrations. The cover is a special design of elegance and appropriateness. The contents are of more than passing interest, preserving the ordinary outline of the journal, but with each department emphasized. We congratulate the Presbyterian Church on the great success attained by one of its leading journals.

Competitors say we can't; we say we can; customers say we do—sell cheaper than any others in town. Atkinson & Switzer.

York township nominations took place in Eglinton hall and resulted in this way:—Reeve, W. J. Hill, (the present reeve); first deputy-reeve, John Goulding (acclamation); second deputy-reeve, Wm. Sylvester and Harry Welsh; third deputy-reeve, John Heslop and Henry Welsh (Mr. Welsh being twice nominated, either the third or fourth deputy will be returned by acclamation); fourth deputy-reeve, W. H. Lucas (acclamation). Mr. S. T. Humberstone was nominated as reeve, but he retired.

The King Plowmen's Association will hold their annual oyster supper, at Hogan's Hall, King City, next Thursday evening, the 10th inst. supper to be served at 8 o'clock. A large number of invitations have been sent out.

Watch Meeting.

Midnight services were held in the Methodist Church, commencing at half past ten on Monday night, to see the old year pass away, and to usher the new year in. The church bell tolled sadly the departure of 1894, but its tones enlivened as the hands of the clock passed the hour of 12. Cordial greetings followed among the members and friends of the congregation.

"The Cat Came Back."

Two or three weeks ago, some person took from the pockets of Mr. Geo. Stewart, Aurora, while the owner was in bed, $177. The strange part of it is that a few days ago $130 of it was returned, with a note promising to pay the balance as soon as possible. Evidently there is a nigger in the fence somewhere.

Father McMahon, is expecting a full church on Sunday evening.

Re-elected.

At the Vaughan nomination for reeve, deputy-reeves and councillors on Monday last, last year's reeve and deputy-reeves were returned by acclamation, but Mr. Robert Watson, of Kleinburg, formerly a member of the council, being nominated, it was expected there would be a contest for councillor. Mr. Watson since withdrew, and the council is now the same as last year, viz:—G. W. High, reeve; S. J. Arnold, 1st deputy-reeve; Alex. Bryson, 2nd deputy-reeve; Jas. H. Kirby and Wm. Watson jr., councillors.

All by Acclamation.

Seldom is there an election for municipal officers or school trustees in this village, and this year is no exception to the rule. At the nominations in the council chamber on Monday, Mr. Thomas Palmer, for school trustee, was the only new name proposed. Mr. Palmer will take the place of Mr. Robert Marsh, who has been a member of the Board of Education continuously for many years, but who is now compelled to retire on account of ill-health. The following are those elected by acclamation:—
