Disgraceful.

We have received correspondence both from Sherwood and Teston, relative to disgreeful conduct of certain people at the recent S. S. Convention at Sherwood. While of the Presbyterian church on Thursday we do not doubt the correctness of our corticles in The LIBERAL, as they are exceedingly personal. The church authorities have Another successful week of the Clearing | the law on their side, and they can severely punish those who misbehave themselves in relative to the work under consideration. the house of God. We fully agree with our correspondents that those who forgot that they were ladies and gentlemen should feel thoroughly ashamed of themselves.

Wedding Bells.

On Thursday, the 17th inst., Miss Nellie Anuis, daughter of A. Anuis Esq., of Port Union, was united in marriage to Mr. J. Purdie, of Scarboro. Besides Mr. Annis' large family connection, a number of invited guests from the city and surrounding counthe celebration, about 100 sat down to a sumptuous repast. Afterwards the evening was spent by a voluntary concert of music, recitations, etc., finished with the Maple Leaf and National Anthem. The bride looked lovely, and the presents were numerous and costly.

Maple.

Rev J. H. Hector, the Black Knight Hon N. C. Wallace, M. P., while driving | preached in the Methodist church, on Sunday morning, and lectured on Monday night on 'The Story of His Early Life." His 1 cture was very humorous, and some parts of it were quite touching ... It is purposed to organize a Mechanics' Institute in this village. At a meeting on Tuesday night a board of directors was appointed, and the name "Maple Mechanics' Institute" was decided upon for the corporation ... Quite a number attended the Sabbath School Convention in the Lutheran church last week. The delegates from here are expected to give a report of the convention . . . . Last Friday Mr. J. Kirby had a number of men engaged in hauling brick for his new residence which he purposes erecting this summer .... Mr. E. Baker, of Flecherton, was the guest of Mr.E. Bush over Sunday .... Mr. L. Richardson has been elected trustee in place of Mr. C. White, who has resigned."

Teston.

The Methodist church of this village will bold their anniversary services and oyster supper on Tuesday, January 29th, with the village band in attendance, and first class talent will be present. Supper to be served from 4 till 7 p. m.; entertainment to commence at 8 o'clock sharp .... Mr. J. Kirby, of Maple, is going to erect a large pressed brick residence in Maple .... On Friday of last week two sleigh loads of young people of the neighboring district in company with the village string band, drove to the residence of Mr Samuel Line, where they spent a sociable and pleasant time until midnight when they partook of a good supper and left for their homes .... We hope the Chief of Police, of Sherwood, will look after the " Alderman ' and not spend his time in watching for burglars .... Mr. Marsh is doing a rushing business in the saw-log line. He has a great many teams engaged, a number from the city. If the sleighting will last for a while longer he will have his yard at Maple well filled .- Com.
