 If you hear of lower prices than ours let us know about it. Atkinson & Switzer.
 We understand that the farmers of this vicinity are forming a beef ring. No doubt it will remind our butchers of "the boys and the frogs."

Good Lard for 9c. per lb at the Concrete.

We had run off a few dozen copies of THE LIBERAL last week before we detected that we had inserted Judge Morgan's name as revising barrister at the court of revision here, instead of Judge Boyd's. We regret the error.

"Revenge is sweet," but it won't sweeten Coffee. It takes Atkinson & Switzer's Sugar to do that. A big dollar's worth this week.

It is generally safer to use the best first, then you will always have the best. Our esteemed citizen, Joseph Hall, however, thought he would keep his best roasts of meat for the last. The consequence was that, a few nights ago, some person relieved him of about 50 lbs. of his very best roasts.

Cash—We encourage cash buyers. For prompt Cash you can have the following: 30 lbs. Granulated Sugar for $1.00, 34 lbs. Light Brown Sugar for $1.00, 12 bottles good Pickles for $1.00. Naughton Bros, Elgin Mills.

License Board.

The government have decided to give the position of License Inspector for West York to Mr. Wm. Pears, ex-mayor of Toronto Junction. The license commissioners for the year will be Dr. Clendenan, of Toronto Junction, Mr. James Duggan, of Weston, and Mr. Frank Smith, of Edgely.

A Good Move.

Judge Boyd has reduced the number of polling districts in the village, for the Dominion election, from 3 to 2, Centre street to be the dividing line. This really looks as if the government were commencing to practice economy, as it will save a polling booth, a deputy returning officer, a poli clerk, and a constable. While they were about it they should have cut off another, as one polling booth is all that is required for this village.

West York Sabbath Schools.

The fifth annual convention of the West York Sabbath School Association was opened at the Methodist church, Islington, on Thursday morning, and was well attended. The president, Mr. J. E. Francis, made an interesting address, and the secretary, Mr. W. J. Conron, reported progress for the year. Rev. J. A. Dunlop read a paper on "The True Aim of the Sunday School Teacher." Mr. A. Day, general secretary of the Provincial Sunday School Association, addressed the children in the afternoon.

Epworth League.

The Epworth League will give an entertainment on Friday evening in the school room of the Methodist church. The Junior League, which has recently been organized, will furnish the programme. Mr. A. J. Hume, the president, will address the juniors.

Hear Them.

The Misses Webbing, who have given entertainments in the principal cities and towns in Canada and the United States, have everywhere met with the greatest enthusiasm, and the programme presented is said to be most enjoyable. Professor John Ruskin and James Russell Lowell have written in the warmest terms of their abilities to entertain. It is said that Miss Webbing has no equal. Miss Lucy, who has taken the part of Little Lord Fauntleroy over 500 times, is the most talented child actress and society entertainer before the public, while Miss Peggy has no rival in stage play and idyllic personation. The New York Herald says: "This trio of clever sisters is a tireless original and unique. Nothing for a long time has been seen in New York at once so brightly novel, so fresh and so attractive, as the selections they give from the English comedies, the Shakespearean and other old-time dramas."

Headford.

On Wednesday, 13th inst., a very sad occurrence took place in our village. It was the funeral of David Leek, a young man who has lived in our midst all his life. He had been with his sister in Toronto since the holidays, and only a few days before his death he was taken very sick with inflammation of the bowels. Although very ill he expressed a hope that he would get better, until the day of his death, and when it became apparent to him that he was called to leave his friends and companions, his cheerfulness never left him, but on the contrary he gave words of comfort and cheer to his mother and father, and others who lingered near his bedside. He met that mystery in change, which is the common lot of mortal man, expressing a confidence and assurance in the kindness and wisdom of Him whom having not seen he loved. He was active both in the Church and in the Sabbath School, and those whom he left sorrowing his departure have many to sympathize with them in their bereavement. He expressed a wish to have that beautiful hymn, "Meet me There," sung at his funeral. May it be our happy lot when we too are called.
