Mr. Conolly, who so kindly delivered an address on Missionary Work, at their "At Home" on the evening of Friday last; to the young ladies and gentlemen who so ably assisted them to entertain, also to the young gentlemen who so cordially lent them a helping hand where strength was needed. It is unnecessary for the auxiliary to say that in this respect their lives have fallen in pleasant places.

Presentation and Address.
 As a small token of esteem, and as a mark of appreciation for past services, the members of Court Laurel, A. O. F., King City, a short time ago presented their treasurer, Mr. D. Carley, with a handsome secretary, accompanied with the following address:
 To BROTHER A. D. CARLEY, TREASURER OF COURT LAUREL, No. 7588:
 Among the officers of our court we have had many changes in the last few years, the only exception being yourself, the present worthy treasury of Court Laurel. You have been retained in your office by the consent of the members of this court, when perhaps personally you would have preferred retiring. Do not doubt for one moment that the court is ignorant when one of its officers performs his duties satisfactorily. That you have been a careful treasurer of Court Laurel's funds we all are aware, and we cannot but remark the interest which you have ever shown by your attendance at the meetings of the court. The members of Court Laurel beg to present you with the secretary, as a mark of their appreciation of your services, and wish you every success in life, and a long connection with our noble order.
 Signed on behalf of the committee,
 F. W. HEATHCOTE.

An Enjoyable Evening.
 The "At Home" of the Women's Auxiliary of the Methodist church, held last Friday evening, proved quite a success. A large audience was present, attracted, no doubt, by the fact that Mr. Conolly, a volunteer missionary, was to address the meeting, this being in itself sufficient to draw a large number. But in addition to this was a varied musical programme excellently rendered by our best local talent. Last, but not least, was the evident pleasure manifested by the audience in its discussion of the coffee, so delightfully served by the young men and maidens of the church. The sum of $8 was realized, which will help to swell the funds of the society.

Agricultural Meeting.
 At the R. H. & Y. St. Agricultural Society meeting held on Wednesday of last week, the following officers and directors were appointed for the current year:—President, W. Trench; Vice-Presidents, W. H. Cliburne, T. Lloyd; Sec Treas., H. A. Nicholls; Directors—W. H. Pugsley, B. Redditt, J. Palmer, T. F. McMahon, J. H. Sanderson, Wm Atkinson, T. Boynton, J. Slater, P. Boynton, R. Elliott, D. Lyust, J. Russell, F. Jackson, J. Clark, T. Frisby, W. Scott, & Leek, W. Eyer, R. B. Elliott, Alex Cameron, T. Palmer, J. T. McElroy. The auditors' report showed a fair balance on hand. The executive committee will meet in the Lorne Hall, on Saturday, the 23rd inst., at 2 p. m.

Bond's Lake Races.
 The annual winter races drew a large crowd to Bond's Lake on Friday last. The track was in good condition, and the trotting was exciting. The judges were R. Wells and J. Mager, Aurora, and Ed. Jackson, Bedford Park. The following are the winners:
 Named Race—Robinson's Phyllis, 1; Proctor's Jack, 2; Dilworth's Maud, 3.
 250 Race—H. Legge's Birthmark, 1; J. Palmer's Lorena, 2; J. Wait's Udo, 3.
 230 Race—J. Casserley's Maple Leaf, 1; J. Charlesworth's Tommy R., 2; E. Stone's Henry C., 3.

There was also a match trot by R. Darling's Legal Tender, Robinson Cruso's Codfish Bill and Mosley's Hantsaw Charlie. After trying their bats on firmly the drivers got a send-off and returned in the order named above.

Maple.
 Last Friday Mr. T. Dilworth, station agent, met with a very painful accident. He was raising the semaphore when the handle flew up, striking him on the cheek and inflicting a severe wound. He was off work for a few days, his place being taken by Mr. J. Smith, of Toronto.... On Monday evening three sleigh loads of the members of the Epworth League drove up to Laskay to visit the society of that place. They received a cordial welcome and spent a very sociable evening.... Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Kelly, and Master Lawrence Kelly, left Monday morning for their home in Milton, N. D., after spending the winter with Mrs. Kelly's father, Mr. T. Dilworth.... The trustees of the Methodist church have put in a new furnace, consequently the congregation was nearly roasted out on Sunday.... Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Franks, of Woodbridge, spent Sunday with friends in the village.... Mrs. Cane, of Sandale, is visiting at Mr. H. Dickout's.

Death of Mr. J. A. Monroe.
 Many friends here will learn with regret of the death of J. A. Monroe, B. A., a former head master of our High School, at the early age of 50 years. When Mr. Monroe taught here he was far from being in the enjoyment of good health, and it was evident that his work was telling on his frail constitution. When he left here about two years ago, he had the respect and good-will of everybody. Many of those in needy circumstances will remember him as a christi n gentleman, and as one who was ever ready to give freely to those worthy of assistance. We copy the following notice of his death from the Exeter Advocate, and join with our cotem in expressing our heartfelt sympathy with his bereaved wife, whom the deceased so dearly loved:—

"To us it is a sad duty to chronicle this week the death of Mr. John A. Monroe, who died at the residence of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Folland, sr., on Monday last, the 4th day of March, at the age of 50 years and 3 months. The deceased has been in poor health for over two years, and has been under the best medical treatment that could be obtained: he has also tried change of climate, but it was of no avail. His death was caused by a complication of diseases, and will be sadly mourned by a number of intimate and admiring friends, as he was a gentleman of culture and education, holding the title of B. A. and has been a high school teacher for years. The writer had but a short acquaintance with Mr. Monroe and always found that to converse with him was to admire him. His remains were taken to Stratroy via the L. H. & B. this morning. The bereaved wife and family have the heartfelt sympathy in their sad affliction."
