Vertical Writing.
 Miss Eva Wiley has left us some twenty sheets containing specimens of writing done by a 3rd class in Hamilton street school, Toronto. The writing is done by the vertical system, as taught in the Toronto schools. The specimens are remarkably good for a 3rd class, and so even that it looks as if done by one pupil. Trustees, teachers, or anyone interested may see the specimens at THE LIBERAL Office.

Toilet Soap per 1/2 doz. Box Morse Heliotropes 30c., Infant's Delight 27c., Fine Oatmeal 21c., 1/2 lb. bars best quality either Oatmeal, Castile or Glycerine 4 for 23c., Old Brown Windsor 2 for 5c. and 3 for 5c. Atkinson & Switzer.

Open for Business.
 Mr. George Dunstan, Manager of the Toronto Financial Corporation, was in the village on Tuesday, and explained the mode of business to Mr. J. M. Lawrence, the Manager here. Quite a number of the business men met Mr. Dunstan, and were well pleased with the explanations and information given. The new institution will do all kinds of business done by banks, the only difference being that the corporation issues no bills. Mr. Lawrence has already taken some deposits.

Grand Demonstration.
 The Hon. Wilfred Laurier will speak in the new Agricultural Hall, Markham, under the auspices of the Markham Young Liberal Club, on Saturday, March 23, 1895, at two o'clock p. m., assisted by the following prominent gentlemen: Wm Mulock, M. P.; J. D. Edgar, M. P.; Dr. Coulter, Aurora; G. B. Smith; J. Richardson, M. P. P., and Ald. H. B. Frankland, the Liberal candidate for the Commons in East York. A special train will leave the Union Station, Toronto, at one o'clock p. m. sharp, stopping at the Queen street crossing and all stations between Toronto and Markham. Returning will leave Markham at 6 p. m. Single fare for round trip.

The Delineator.
 The Delineator for April is an excellent specimen of this popular woman's magazine. Supplementary to the regular issue of patterns there is a timely article on bicycling, with illustrations of costumes, that will interest all lovers of the wheel. The papers on the voice, which were interrupted by the illness of the author are resumed; and there is begun a most practical series on preservation and renovation, the first instalment treating of the putting away and care of furs. Mrs. Roger A. Pryor writes very entertainingly on the etiquette of fire calls and introductions, giving the accepted usages and formulas; and the second paper on the experiences of a training school life increases the interest already felt in the subject. Around the tea-table is bright and entertaining, mother and son is earnest and instructive, and a novel Salmagundi party suggests a delightful evening's amusement. There is also a review of the newest books, some instrumental music and an Easter carol.

Organization Meeting.

A meeting of Reformers in Division No. 2 Markham, was held at Joyce's Hall, Edin Mills, on Friday, evening, Mr. D. Lynet in the chair. There was a large attendance, and every elector present seemed thoroughly in earnest about the work of the campaign so close at hand. Mr. H. B. Frankland, the Commons candidate for East York, was also present, and got acquainted with most of the R-form electors in the Division. Mr. Frankland in a neat speech, told of the work he had already done in the riding, saying that he was well pleased with his canvass. By all accounts, No. 2 will give a good report of itself when the general election is held.

Live Stock and Farm Journal.

The Canadian Live Stock and Farm Journal for March has come to hand. As usual, it contains much that is interesting on various topics in connection with farming. The first page is embellished with an illustration of a fine specimen of a thoroughbred horse belonging to Mr. John Haig, Hoard's Station, Ont., and the following are a few of the many articles of interest:—The care of lambs, "Foot root in sheep," "Succession of pastures," "Growing of spring wheat," "Sowing of spring grain," "Gooseberries for profit," "Beekeeping on the farm," "Poultry raising," etc. A sample copy may be had on application to the publishers, 20 Bay street, Toronto.

High School Concert.

Miss E. Pauline Johnson, the Mohawk Indian Poet Reciter; and Mr. Owen A. Smily, the clever society entertainer and impersonator, will give one of their popular entertainments in the Masonic Hall, next Monday evening, under the auspices of the High School. The Johnson-Smily combination are well spoken of by the press wherever they appear, and the programme to be given here promises to be a most interesting one. The High School are looking for a full house. Doors open at 7:30; entertainment to commence at 8 o'clock. Admission, 25 cents; children, 15 cents; reserved seats, 35 cents. The chair will be taken by Mr. N. Robertson, B. A. Plan of hall at THE LIBERAL office.

A Manly Correction.

Mr. J. T. Saigeon was put to some trouble and annoyance a couple of weeks ago while acting in the capacity of auctioneer in Simcoe County. Mr. Saigeon had properly renewed his license, but did not have it in his pocket when an officious constable demanded him to produce it. The Bradford Witness, which was led into error by the report, made the following manly correction last week:—
 "We were in error last week in our item respecting Mr. J. T. Saigeon, of Maple, auctioneer, in stating that Mr. Saigeon had conducted a sale in this county without a proper license. This was not a fact as Mr. Saigeon had been careful to renew his license before occasion arose for him to use it, and the complaint laid against him before our J. P.'s was accordingly dismissed."

The Women's Globe.

Canadian women are already noted for many graces of person, character and heart, and now they propose showing that they also possess mental powers of a high order, combined with business qualities. They have undertaken to assume charge of an entire issue of the Toronto Daily Globe (for April 18th, next). The regular editorial and reportorial staff, certainly all the male members thereof, will be displaced for that issue by a staff of ladies who will cover every department of the paper—business, editorial, local and general. The issue will be a very large one, both as to number of pages and circulation, and will also be non-political and non-sectarian. The result of this unique undertaking will, we are sure, be watched with interest, not only by the fair sex of the Dominion, but also by the, on this occasion, more curious element.

Lacrosse Meeting.

A meeting for re-organizing the Richmond Hill Lacrosse Club for the season of 1895, was held in the Lorne Hall on Thursday evening last. Mr. Will D. Atkinson was in the chair, and Mr. A. S. Savage acted as secretary. After reading and confirming the last annual minutes, the following were elected officers for the current year:—
 Hon. Pres., A. E. Pugsley.
 Pres., Will D. Atkinson.
 Vice-Pres., C. McLean.
 Sec'y., W. E. Wiley.
 Treas., G. Cooper.
 Captain, G. Glover.
 Committee—W. Savage, J. Glass, Wyc. Trench and A. Skierk.
 On motion it was decided to join the C. L. A. If the other clubs approve of the grouping, the club here propose a district to be composed of teams from Richmond Hill, Markham, Stouffville, and either Uxbridge or The Elms, of Toronto.

Sermon to Foresters.

The brethren of Court Richmond, No. 7046, A. O. F., met at their hall last Sunday afternoon, where they were joined by a large load of the members from Court Union, Thornhill, and about an equal number from Court Laurel, King City. Leaving the hall at 3 o'clock, they formed in procession, and headed by the Richmond Hill band, marched to St. Mary's (English) church, where a sermon was preached by Rev. F. Heathcote, of King, a prominent member of the order. The music along the line of march was choice and appropriate, a medley for the occasion, consisting of the selections "Fall into Line," "Oward Christian Soldiers," and "Nearer my God to Thee," having been arranged by Mr. A. J. Hume. Between 70 and 80 Foresters were in the procession. The church was crowded to the door, and many were not even able to get standing room in the church. Rev. Mr. Heathcote preached an excellent sermon from John ix, 1, 2, 3 at the close of which he very appropriately referred to the aims and objects, and to the good work the society is doing for its members. The brethren here are delighted over the success of the afternoon's services, and feel truly grateful to the minister, the visiting brethren, the band, and to all who assisted them in any way.
