Football Match.
In spite of the drenching rain of the morning, the Aurora football team, on Saturday afternoon, faced our boys in the park. The Hill had intended to put on the field a team composed chiefly of High school pupils, but the weather was so unsatisfactory that very few of the original team appeared. In order, however, not to disappoint the visitors, the following team of raw recruits took the field:—Sims, Grainger, W. Glass, J. Glass, Powell, Hall, Savage, Glover and Trench. Aurora lined up as follows:—W. Young, E. Irvine, E. Frisby, D. Webster, L. Graham, F. Browning, F. Hartman, M. McCaughey and L. Hutchinson. W. J. Rutherford, of Aurora, acted as referee. The visitors in many points were superior, and at the close of the game the score was 2 to 0 in their favor. Our boys hope to play the next match under more favorable circumstances, and feel sure that then the result will not be so unfortunate.

Unexpected Death.
On Tuesday morning, Mr. Ernest Coombs, principal of the High school, received a telegram informing him of the death of his brother John in Huntsville hospital. The deceased was a young man of twenty-six years, and was formerly well known in this neighborhood. When but a lad he learned the trade of machinist with Patterson & Bro., and afterwards moved with them to Woodstock. After spending some three years in Woodstock he went to Cleveland, Ohio, where he was employed for nearly five years, and left that city for Canada only last winter on account of the serious illness of his mother. Early last spring he secured a good situation with the Mickle, Dymont Lumber Co., of Huntsville. This situation he held until about four weeks ago, when he was stricken with typhoid fever, and removed to the hospital. His case became gradually more serious, and he finally succumbed to the disease on the evening of Monday, the 14th inst. He was the fourth son of Mr. John Coombs, of Carrville. The testimonials of his various employers speak of him as an exceedingly clever mechanic and a steady and industrious young man. The body was brought from Huntsville on Wednesday evening, and to-day, at 2 p. m., the little grave yard at Carrville will receive the earthly remains of this young life so well begun, but so quickly ended.
