The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, Thursday, May 14, '96

COMING OVER TO MR. LAURIER

Almost every day prominent Conservatives are leaving their party, and signifying their intention of following the leadership of Hon. Wilfrid Laurier. Among the recent converts are ex-Mayor A. F. Mulhern, president of the Liberal-Conservative Association of Cornwall and Stormont; and Mr. J. A. Chipman, one of the leading merchants of Nova Scotia. Among many others may be mentioned Mr. H. A. McKeown, barrister, of St. John, N. B., who stumped for the Conservatives in the last election; John R. Forbes, head of the Forbes Manufacturing Company of Halifax, N. S.; Mr. Calvin, the late Conservative member for Frontenac; and Dr. McLennan, who was the Conservative candidate at the general elections of 1890 for the Nova Scotia Legislature. Many others are reported, Mr. Howell, Q. C., of Winnipeg, being one of the latest to sever his connection with his party.

In withdrawing from the Conservative party a few days ago, ex-Mayor Mulhern, who was the organizer of the Conservative Association in Cornwall, addressed a long letter to the local press giving his reasons for casting in his lot with the Hon. Wilfrid Laurier. In this letter he refers to the unfair treatment of Sir Mackenzie Bowell, says he is in accord with the Liberals for an adjustment of the tariff, and speaks with horror of the corruption in connection with the financing of the Curran Bridge, Sorlanges Canal, &c. The first paragraph of his letter reads as follows:—

To the executive of the Liberal-Conservative Association of Cornwall and Stormont:

Gentlemen,—I hereby tender my resignation as president of the Liberal-Conservative Association of Cornwall and Stormont, and also desire to state that I have decided to withdraw from the Liberal-Conservative party. I feel that I should express to my many warm friends in the Conservative ranks in Cornwall and Stormont my appreciation and gratitude to them for their kindness and loyalty to me while president of the association. Before deciding to retire from the party I have given the matter full and deliberate consideration, and I have come to the conclusion that I cannot consistently, with the views I now hold, endorse the policy of the Conservative party, as developed during the last session of Parliament.

It seems that Sir Charles Tupper is prepared to promise anything and everything to everybody if he is only allowed to become premier of Canada. At Winnipeg a few days ago he declared himself in favor of the Hudson Bay Railway, promising large sums of money for the construction of that wildcat scheme. In Toronto, a few evenings ago, Mr. E. B. Osler, a Conservative nominee, who his supporters say is a man of wonderful business ability, declared that nothing could be more absurd than the idea of building the railroad in question. No one knows better than Sir Charles that the scheme is ridiculous, but as he proposes taxing the people of Manitoba with two sets of schools, he hopes to counteract the adverse feeling against him by squandering money in that section of country.

Sir Charles Tupper's address to the electors of the Dominion of Canada is not one which will likely inspire the people of this country. The premier still praises the National Policy, but he is evidently weakening on that question, as he says that the Conservative party is committed only to "a continuance of a fair measure of protection." The new premier also pins his faith to the enforcement of separate schools for Manitoba, although many prominent Conservatives nominated for the Commons are every day declaring against it, among the rest being Messrs. E. F. Clark and E. B. Osler, in West Toronto, and Mr. Cockburn, in Centre Toronto.

Langstaff

On the evening of Wednesday, May 6th, the O. R. T. held an open meeting in the school house. The programme consisted of readings by Miss Lydia Clubine and Miss Aggie Boyle; recitations by Elsie Weidrick and Ruby Marsh; songs by Mr. James, of Toronto; mouth-organ duets by Messrs. Tompson and Mullock; violin solos by Miss Langstaff; charades, tableaux, and the reading of "The Tattler." In the early part of the evening an address was delivered by Mr. A. C. Thompson, Sec. of the Single Tax Association, Toronto. During his remarks he said:

"The enormously increased productivity which modern inventions have given to labor, while making it easier than ever in the history of the world to produce wealth, has had effect of making it more difficult to earn a living. Modern progress so far from relieving poverty invariably produces it. This seeming necessity of civilization to beget poverty is only seeming, and can be prevented. The cause is the appropriation by individuals of the earth, the great storehouse from which all must draw their living, restricting the production of wealth and permitting of the misappropriation by the owners of land of much that is created in return for their mere permission to use the earth. The Single Tax would divorce poverty from progress by making each one who has exclusive possession of any part of the earth pay into a common fund the yearly value of such exclusive possession. This fund would be ample for all the just purposes of government and no other taxes would be needed, and the present which operates as a fine on industry would be abolished. The motive for speculating in land would be taken away, and all land now withheld from use would be open to workers, immensely increasing the demand for labor and at the same time making it impossible for any to live without work. It would abolish poverty and the fear of poverty and make production, not special privilege, the title to wealth."

Mr. Speight, of Toronto, filled the chair in a most admirable manner. A hearty vote of thanks being tendered to those who assisted the members of the order, the meeting closed by singing God Save the Queen.

News Notes.

Messrs. E. F. Clarke and E. B. Osler, were nominated last Friday night as Conservative candidates for West Toronto.

Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, speaking at Weston last Friday night, defied the Conservative machine to bring out a candidate in opposition to him.

Mr. D'Alton McCarthy will speak at St. Thomas on Friday evening in the interests of the Mr. J. P. Martyn, the Patron candidate in East Elgin.

Mr. G. R. R. Cockburn, was unanimously renominated on Monday evening at the Centre Toronto Conservative convention. Mr. Cockburn declared against the remedial bill.

Mr. Clarke Wallace will speak at Warton on Thursday and at Tara on Friday in behalf of Mr. McNeil, at Masford on Saturday in behalf of Dr. Sproule, and at Mansfield on May 20 in behalf of Lieut.-Col. Tyrwhitt.

J. Leslie Hopwood, 26 years of age, was found dead on Monday in the Armouries, Toronto, with a rifle bullet in his heart. He had been missing from home since Saturday.

The judgment of the Privy Council of England handed down on Saturday in connection with the series of questions relative to the power of a provincial legislature making prohibitory liquor laws, seems to be in accord with the former views of Sir Oliver Mowat. By the judgment a province can prohibit the manufacture of liquor but not the sale of it. The report also shows that Local Option is valid where the Scott Act is not in force.
