About Winnipeg and N. W. T.

We have received from the publishers a copy of Stovel's Pocket Directory, for April. This neat little volume, which contains about 150 pages of useful matter, gives much valuable information concerning Winnipeg and the North West. The little book is up to date, and every intending tourist to that country should see a copy. The publication contains maps, time-tables, and facts relating to the population, public institutions, banks, fraternal societies, railways, school boards, &c., &c.

Methodist Church.

Anniversary services in connection with the Methodist church will be held on Sunday and Monday, the 24th and 25th of May. On Sunday patriotic sermons will be preached morning and evening by the superintendent and assistant. Appropriate music will be furnished by the choir. On the Monday following the ladies of the congregation will provide a sumptuous dinner and tea, the former to be served from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m., the latter from 5 to 7 p. m. Tickets, 25 cents. The ladies hope to have a large number of their friends with them on that day.

Dominion Alliance.

Mr. J. J. McLaren, chairman of the Dominion Alliance for the suppression of the liquor traffic, has issued an address to the electors of Canada with a view of getting a pledge from candidates for the coming general elections. The suggested questions to candidates are: 1. Are you in favor of the prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating beverages? 2. If elected to the House of Commons, will you do all in your power, in co-operation with the other members of Parliament who favor prohibition, to secure the introduction and enactment of prohibitory legislation at the earliest possible opportunity?

Suspected of Theft.

On Saturday afternoon last two able-bodied characters, who might be counted as belonging to the society known as "tramps", came down Yonge street on foot and stopped at the Dominion House for refreshments. A short time afterwards the bar tender, Mr. J. Ellison, Jr., was called to the stable to direct a horseman where to put a stallion, leaving the two pedestrians alone in the bar. On returning from the stable he missed a $5 bill which he had left in the drawer. The two tramps having started down the street, and Mr. Ellison suspecting them of taking the money, he at once informed Constable Brownlee of his suspicions when they secured a horse and rig and started in pursuit. They caught up to the suspects about half a mile below the village, brought them back to the lock-up, and searched them, but the missing money was not found.

All by Accident.

Saturday evening a gentleman from Vaughan was driving north through the village. Just at the same time another gentleman from Markham was driving south. They met in the vicinity of Atkinson & Switzer's store. About the same time an equestrian and an equestrienne came down street on their saddle horses. The spirited steeds of the latter being animated by a "quick march" which the village band just struck up, shot past the Markham cart, when one of the hitched up horses swerved to the left. The result was a collision between the two townships. The front wheels of the buggy were smashed to smithereens, but the agile driver, who was pitched headlong, alighted on his feet about 20 feet from the scene of the accident. The mishap might have been more serious. The question now is who will pay the bill?

Resolution of Sympathy.

The following is another expression of sympathy sent in to Mrs. Trench and family:

To Mrs. TRENCH:
DEAR MADAM,—At the last regular meeting of Richmond Lodge, No. 23, G. R. C., it was unanimously resolved that we, the members of said lodge, convey to you and your family our sincere and profound sympathy in the loss you sustained by the death of your affectionate husband, who for so many years was one of our most honored and highly esteemed members. Our late brother and treasurer was beloved by every member of our lodge, and sad were our hearts when we learned that he would meet with us no more in this transitory abode. Words we know can be of little comfort where sorrow like you have experienced exists, nevertheless we tender you our sincere expression of condolence, and commend you to the merciful care and protection of The Great Architect of the Universe who in his wise providence doeth all things well.
Signed on behalf of the lodge.
T. F. McMAHON, W. M.
