

The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, Thursday, July 16, '06

LOCALS.

Dr. F. J. Gallanough, V. S., visits Richmond Hill professionally on Wednesdays only, until further notice.

No prices quoted can compare with Atkinson & Switzer's.

The lacrosse club purpose holding an Ice Cream Social on the beautiful lawn of Mr. John Brown, on Friday evening, July 24th. The Band will be in attendance, and a good programme may be expected.

Pure Lard, very best quality, 7½c. per lb., in 20 lb. lots this week. Atkinson & Switzer.

Will Protest East York.

A largely attended and enthusiastic meeting of the friends and supporters of ex-Ald. H. R. Frankland, the defeated Liberal candidate in East York, was held at Markham on Monday, when it was unanimously decided to protest the election of Mr. W. F. Maclean.

Extra quality Currants 5c. per lb. Atkinson & Switzer.

York District.

The following is the standing of the lacrosse teams in the York District:

	WON.	LOST.	TO PLAY
Richmond Hill.....	3	1	2
Bolton	1	1	4
Toronto Junction...2	2	2	2
Tecumseh	0	2	4

The power of price is Atkinson & Switzer's motive power.

Blacksmith Shop and Dwelling.

The Carrville Blacksmith Shop and Dwelling will be offered for sale by public auction by the auctioneers, Eckardt & Prentice, at the Dominion House, on Saturday next, the 18th inst., at 2.30 p. m. The lot contains about 8 acres of land, and there is good young orchard, plenty of first-class water. This is a good business stand, and is convenient to church, post office and school.

California Apricots 7c. per lb. Atkinson & Switzer.

King Plowmen.

The annual meeting of King Plowmen's Association will be held in Hogan's Hall, Springfield, on Friday, the 17th of July, at 3 p. m. At this meeting the reception of the auditors' report for the past year, the election of officers for the ensuing year, and other business will be taken up. The meeting is open to the public, and a large attendance is requested.

Richard's Telephone Soap 26 bars for $1. Atkinson & Switzer.

Lacrosse Next Saturday.

The last championship lacrosse match here this season will be played in the park next Saturday between the Bolton and the Richmond Hill teams. Ball to be faced at 3 o'clock. This will in all probability be one of the best games of the season as both teams have a good record. Admission 45 cents; ladies, 10 cents; ticket-holders free. Don't miss this last championship match.

A splendid Broom this week for 10 cents. Atkinson & Switzer.

A Notable Publication.

H. L. Hastings, 47 Cornhill, Boston, Mass., issues in connection with "The Anti-Slavery Library," his able essay on "The Wonderful Law." The author demolishes the arguments of skeptics, and their cavils against the Mosaic Code, in this excellent publication, which at the low price of 30 cents should have a wide circulation. It is really one of the best of Mr. Hastings' able essays.

Cash buys a big pile of goods these days at Atkinson & Switzer's.

Harriet Beecher Stowe's Last Letter.

The last thing written by Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, only a few days before her death, was a loving acknowledgement to the public for fond remembrances and tokens and expressions of affectionate esteem, on her 85th birthday, which she sent to The Ladies' Home Journal. In the next issue of this magazine it will be published in fac simile. It reflects the beautiful nature of the gifted authoress, and by her death has become her last message to the American public.

Half pound bars best quality Oatmeal or Castile Toilet Soap 5c. per bar. Atkinson & Switzer.

Death of David Murray.

Mr. David Murray, one of the wealthiest men in the township of Vaughan, died at his home near Edgely on Saturday last at the advanced age of 80 years, 5 months, 18 days. Deceased had been a successful farmer and accumulated a large amount of property including land to the extent of about 1000 acres. He was born in the County of Somerset, state of Maryland, in the year 1816. The old gentleman had been confined to the house for about 8 months before his death. He was a member of the Lutheran denomination and was a reformer in politics. He leaves a widow, two sons—George and Isaac—and two daughters—Mrs. John Julian, of Vellore, and Mrs. Geo. J. Keffer, of Maple.

Floor Oilcloth, good quality, 24c. per square yard. Atkinson & Switzer.

A Model (?) Challenge.

The York Mills correspondence to the Weekly Tribune last week contained the following elegant exposition: "The secretary of our football team challenged the Richmond Hill boys, but they are afraid to come down and play. Our boys would knock the stuffing out of them and they know it." We think that the rule in sporting circles is for a team to follow the challenge. If the Hill boys feel disposed to send a challenge to the enterprising team that is thirsting for gore at the Hollow, they will expect to play the match among the picturesque scenery of York Mills.

Most women, all girls and some men take pride in keeping their teeth white, clean and healthy. They have to use good Tooth Brushes, of course. A great many of them buy from us. Do you? Atkinson & Switzer.

Articles on "The Bare Fallow," on "Curing Hay," "The Compost Heap," and on "The Proper Time to Cut Hay and Grain," are to be found in the July issue of Farming. Dairymen will be interested in the articles on "The Home Market for Cheese," "The Cold Storage Service," "Dairying in British Columbia," and "Dairying in New Brunswick." A sketch of the Strathroy Dairy School, with some excellent illustrations, serves to make the dairy department of even greater interest than usual. Send for a sample copy to The Bryant Press, Toronto.

The New Marriage Act.

On the first of August next the marriage act passed at the last session of the local legislature will come into force. The act provides that before procuring a marriage license each of the contracting parties shall make an affidavit stating the date on which the ceremony is to be held, that they are each full eighteen years of age, and that there is no legal bar to their marriage. A record of these affidavits will be kept by the issuer of the licenses, and he will forward to the registrar-general's department the names, ages, occupations, and religion of the contracting parties. These new features of the marriage law were added at the suggestion of the ministers, who discussed them pretty freely at their meetings.

Sunday School Picnic.

The annual picnic of the Methodist Sunday School of this place will be held in Victoria Park on Thursday, July 23rd. The officers and teachers confidently expect a good time, and would like to see a large turnout on that date. Busses will leave the church at 7 a. m. sharp. Arriving at North Toronto the rest of the trip will be made on the electric cars. Fares for the round trip as follows: Bible class, 25 cents; all other scholars of the school, 10 cents; those not belonging to the school, adults 50 cents; children 25 cents. Come and enjoy a good day. The committee would be glad if those not belonging to the school, and intending to go, would leave their names with Mr. W. A. Sanderson or Mr. A. J. Hume, not later than Tuesday night next.

Wedding Bells.

A very pleasing and happy event—of more than ordinary interest to the inhabitants of our little town—took place on Wednesday afternoon at "the McCague residence," on the 3rd concession of Markham. The event was the marriage of Mr. Ashford Wright, of this village, to Miss Maggie, second daughter of the late John McCague. Mr. Wright is to be congratulated on his good choice. He has not only secured a beautiful woman, but one whose life in the past proves that she is in possession of those rare qualities only found in true womanhood. She will be greatly missed by all in the neighborhood from which she comes and where she is a general favorite, and by the church in which she was an earnest worshipper and an active worker, but she will receive a cordial welcome here, not only because of her worth, but because of the high esteem in which Mr. Wright is held. Ashford, as he is commonly called, is a young man of sterling moral character and lofty christian manhood and so is loved by all, which makes this event of general interest. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. McCulloch, the new superintendent. At the hour appointed the groom, attended by his brother, James, took his place in front of the assembled guests and awaited the object of his fondest dreams. Shortly after she appeared supported on the arm of her brother and attended by Miss Annie Comisky and a charming little maid of honor. She appeared a little flushed at first, but other than this was perfectly calm and lovely in her bridal dress. The groom appeared a trifle nervous at first but made his response in a clear happy voice. After the ceremony the happy company sat down to a sumptuous repast which seemed to be thoroughly enjoyed by all. The presents were numerous and costly, evincing the high regard in which both are held. After an hour or so of social chat and good cheer the happy couple left to take the train for Toronto with a plentiful supply of old boots and amid showers of rice, followed by the good wishes of a large circle of friends. They will visit interesting points in the eastern part of the province.

PERSONALS.

Our friends will confer a favor by contributing to the column all items of a personal nature, such as the arrival or departure of friends, picnics or other social gatherings, or anything interesting to our readers. If the item be about yourself it will be none the less acceptable.
